ULSTER COUNTY SAVINGS BANK RUINED BY TREASURER OSTRANDER.

Startling Result of the Bank Examiner's Investigation-Ostrander Surrrendered and His Assistant Arrested-Great Excitement at Kingston.

Kineston, N. Y., Oct. 3.—Assistant Treasurer Trumpbour of the Ulster County Savings Institution has joined his chief in jail. The bank has closed its doors, and Bank Superintendent Charles M. Preston is in charge. The examination of the treasurer's books has, so far, revealed a shortage of $463,000. This news startled this city to-day. It was not unexpected, though the extent of the shortage was far greater than at first supposed. Treasurer James L. Ostrander was arrested about two weeks ago, charged with embezzling $75,000. and was under bonds of $20,000.

The arrest caused a three days' run. which threatened to drive the institu-tion to the wall. But other banks came to the rescue. The trustees made a statement showing that there was a surplus of $247,000. This state-ment, being signed by such well known men as Judge Alton B. Parker, General George H. Sharpe, Judge William S. Kenyon, Postmaster Noah William S. Kenyon, Postmaster Noah Wolven, John W. Searing, and other reputable citizens, had a reassuring effect, and those who had drawn out their money brought it back.

Since Tuesday experts have been at work examining the books under the direction of Bank Superintendent Charles M. Preston. When they reported late last night the discovery of shortages amounting to $463,000, with a possibility of the deficit reaching $500,000, Mr. Preston took immediate action. At midnight he swore out a warrant for the arrest of Assistant Treasurer Matthew T. Trump-bour. The charge was perjury in swearing to false statements in the July report of the bank to the Banking Department. Trumpbour was arrested by Chief of Police Hood. He had his clothes all packed up, and was preparing to flee from town. He was locked up in jail.

In the meantime an inkling of the state of affairs had reached Ostran-der's bondsmen. They brought the Treasurer to the jail and surrendered him to Sheriff Dill. There seems to be no doubt that the two men worked together, at least in concealing their

The majority of the depositors in the Ulster County institution are poor people, many of them old men and women, wholly dependent on the in-terest on the few thousands of dollars they had in the bank, and such men and women, with tears in their eyes, can be seen everywhere about the city, fearing the loss of their savings. Ostrander is sixty years old. He has been Treasurer of the institution for a quarter of a century. Prior to that time he was cashier of the First National Bank of Kingston, and was at one time cashier of a bank at Prattsville. He was also connected with the State Banking Department. It is believed he spent the stolen money in extravagant living.

GROVER CLEVELAND A FATHER.

Mrs. Cleveland Presents the Ex-President With a Daughter. New York, Oct. 4.-Mrs. Grover

Cleveland became the mother of a strong, healthy girl baby yesterday morning shortly after midnight. Dr. J. D. Bryant of 54 West Thirty-sixth street, was in attendance. Both mother and child are doing well.

The important news did not become known down town yesterday until nearly noon. Then it spread with the utmost rapidity, both in the city and to other parts of the country. During the afternoon many flowers were sent in to Mrs. Cleveland, and both father and mother received hearty con-gratulations. Then messenger boys began to move up the avenue with telegraphic messages from all parts of the country.

Among the first telegrams received, within three hours of making the news public, were messages from Don M. Dickinson and W. C. Quinby, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. A. Knott of Baltimore, A. J. Drexel of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Watson Gilder of Marion, Mass.

Atchison, Kan., Oct. 3.—The Democratic County Convention this after-noon sent the following telegram to Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cleveland:

"The Democracy of Atchison County, in con-vention assembled, congratulate you upon the birth of your daughter."

JAY GOULD A SICK MAM.

His Physician Says He is Suffering From Nervous Prostration

New York, Oct. 2.—The most start-ling piece of news in Wall street yesterday was that Jay Gould has broken down physically. His son George, Russell Sage and the other men who are near to him in his busines and social relations all admit that the little financier is a very sick man. To this purely personal testimony is added the professional testimony of Dr. Munn, who says that Mr. Gould is suffering from nervous prostration, and that he must remain very quiet if he has any regard for his health.

The news in regard to Mr. Gould's health caused not a little excitement in the street and resulted in something of a flurry in stocks.

Six Still in the Mine.

ANOTHER REBELLION

UPRISING IN GUATEMALA AGAINST THE DICTATOR, BARILLAS.

Terrible Scenes in the Capital of the Republic-Five Hundred Killed in a Three Days' Battle-Barillas Suppresses the Revolt in Short Order.

City of Mexico, Sept. 29.—According to the story of a man who reached this city on horseback from Acapulco, a revolt of the people of Guatemala City against the Government of President

Barillas broke out on Sept. 15. He says that when he left Gaute-mala on Sept. 16 the fighting was still in progress. The people protested against the appointment by Barillas of orators for their National holiday, which occurred on the 15th. and the mob stoned the speakers, chasing them across the plaza and crying, "Down with despotism and tyranny! Down with Barillas!"

Members of the mob shouted : "Let's storm the national palace, kill Barillas and restore a republican form of government." "Guatemala shall not be ruled by a dictator." "Plunder-ing of the national treasury must

The traveler says that Barillas or-dered a battalion of infantry to dis-perse the mob, but the soldiers were put to flight, leaving many dead and wounded in the plaza. Finally a bat-tery of artillery dispersed the mob, which retired into the side streets and remained aggressive all that night.

Dispatches from Newton, on the line between Guatemala and Mexico, confirm the story, and say that after two days of hard fighting and the loss of 500 lives Barillas put down the revolt and declared himself Dictator. The palace and residence of Prestdent Barillas are guarded by both infantry and artillery. Barillas does not stir abroad unless guarded by a large force of cavalry.

Later dispatches state that a riot has occurred at Quezaltenaugo, in which a revolutionary leader is supported by 1,000 men.
