Outline Fishing.

We have been requested, time and time again, in our line of official duty as Fish Warden, to arrest parties for fishing with outlines. We will say in reply, that outline fishing is not illegal, according to the decisions of the courts of the State, except as to catching game fish thereon, such as bass, salmon, etc., consequently we have no authority to make such arrests.—Catawissa Item.

I. W. Hartman & Sons.

We are in the city this week looking up cash bargains in all kinds of goods.

The premium cake came to us and was eaten by our clerks and others, who decided it was worthy of a silver premium. Not all the 20,000 who attended the Fair on Friday or Saturday called to see us; many did, and went home with a new coat, new dress pattern, new gloves, new shoes, or some article which made them and us happy. The sales on coats, dress goods, shawls, blankets, dishes, lamps, &c., promise well this fall, we have a big line of them. Our Fair Butter was all good this time. We have not seen much of the $4,000,000 of gold which came over from Europe last week for grain &c. Think it will be around about Christmas time. We are getting ready for it.

JOHN HOEY DEPOSED.

ADAMS EXPRESS CO.

Vice-President Spooner Also Goes Out—
Both Charged With a Questionable Deal in Express Stock—Henry Sanford Succeeds Mr. Hoey.

New York, Oct. 14.—The Board of Managers of the Adams Express Company met yesterday and elected Henry Sanford as president in place of John Hoey, who was deposed from the position on Monday. Frederick Lovejoy was elected as a member of the Board of Managers and vice-president in place of Clapp Spooner, who resigned both positions.

The charge which was made against Messrs. Hoey and Spooner, which led to these sudden changes, was malfeasance in office. Henry Sherburne, Clapp Spooner and Henry C. Taft owned the stock of the New York and Boston Dispatch Express Company and the Kingsley Express Company. This stock was sold to the Adams Express Company through the agency of Mr. Hoey and Mr. Spooner for $300,000.

Suspicion was aroused by a suit which was begun last April by Mr. Sherburne against Messrs. Spooner, Taft and Hoey to recover $87,500. Mr. Sherburne claimed that Hoey was to receive one-fourth the amount for making the deal. Mr. Sanford, one of the managers of the Adams Express Company, investigated the matter. He claims that the property which was purchased for $800,000 was worth less than $200,000. The purchase was made against the advice of the managers, and Mr. Hoey admitted in court that his share of the profits amounted to $179,000.

President Hoey had been with the company for forty years, and for three years had been its President. Vice-President Spooner had also been with the company for many years. He is a millionaire and lives in Bridgeport, Conn.

Mr. Sanford, the new president, is a millionaire residing in Bridgeport, Conn. He is sixty, and has been connected with the company for thirty-five years. He was several years the general superintendent until that office was abolished a few years ago. Since that time he has been one of its managers.

Frederick Lovejoy, the Vice-President and General Manager, is nearly fifty years old, and he too, has made a fortune out of the Adams Express Company. He entered its service in his youth, and rose to be Assistant Superintendent. Later he was put in charge of the Pennsylvania division. He is a New Yorker, living with his wife at the Gilsey House. He is a director in the Subway Company and has a steam yacht, the Neaira.

TIES PILED ON THE TRACK.

Attempt to Wreck a Train on the Delaware and Hudson Road.

SARATOGA, Oct. 13.—An attempt was made last night to wreck the south bound steamboat passenger train from this station on the Delaware and Hudson Railroad just north of Round Lake. The engineer saw an obstruction across both tracks, and before he could stop his train the engine plunged into the obstruction, which proved to be a lot of ties piled across the tracks, with a telegraph pole on top of them. The force of the blow cut the telegraph pole in two and the ties were pushed off on both sides of the track. The train did not leave the rails. The passengers were shaken up, but none was injured.

Death of Judge Allen.

New York, Oct. 14.—Henry Wilder Allen, judge of the Court of Common Pleas, died at the Chamber Street Hospital at 12.40 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Judge Allen fell in an apoplectic fit at the new Court House Saturday afternoon, and never regained consciousness. Judge Allen was fifty-five years old, and a native of Alfred, Me. He was appointed to the Bench of the Court of Common Pleas in June, 1884, by Governor Cleveland and succeeded Judge Van Brunt. He was elected to the place October 21, 1884. Chief Justice Chase appointed him a Register in Bankruptcy, which he held until 1884. His term on the Common Pleas Bench would have expired in 1889.

Three Newspaper Men Killed.

CRETE, Ill., Oct. 15.—Two reporters of the Chicago Inter-Ocean named Washburn and Henry, and McCafferty, the special artist of that paper, were instantly killed last night at this place, by an engine on which they were riding dashing against an engine house. The train men jumped and escaped.

THE STALLION ST. BLAISE SOLD TO CHARLES REED, OF KENTUCKY.

Jacob Ruppert Pays $100,000 for a Yearling—Several Brought $10,000 Each—Greatest Sale of Thoroughbreds Ever Held in any Country.

New York, Oct. 18.—The greatest sale of thoroughbred horses ever held in any country was concluded last night when stallions and yearlings belonging to the Nursery Stud of the late Hon. August Belmont was disposed of by Tattersalls of New York. Records were made for the Old World to shoot at, and prices were paid that will cause the whole universe to marvel. To Charles Reed of Fairview Stud, Gallatin, Tenn., belongs the honor of keeping St. Blaise, the great son of Harmit, on this continent, that gallant sportsman paying $100,000 for the royal chestnut that has made a name for himself second to none in this sphere in two short seasons at the stud. A yearling sold for $30,000, and several commanded $10,000, while the entire stud brought the enormous total of $603,500.

MAIL DELIVERY FOR THE FARMER.

The Postmaster-General in Favor of Extending the Carrier Service.

New York, Oct. 20.—An organized effort is under way among farmers to secure from Congress free mail delivery in country towns. The Farmers' Alliance, Patrons of Husbandry, and other orders are canvassing the matter, letters are being written to congressmen, and petitions to congress are being circulated. Farmers assert that a daily mail delivery at their door will add to the value of their farms, and will rob farm life of its isolation and monotony.

In the American Agriculturist for November, Postmaster-General Wamaker states definitely for the first time that the experiment made by the Post Office Department for free delivery in farmer districts, shows that the increase in revenue more than pays all the increased expense. He believes that universal free delivery would, therefore, be self-sustaining.

MINERS' WAGES STOLEN.

Gold Robbery at a Mine Office, and Speedy Capture of the Thieves.

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 17.—Spencer's colliery office at Dunmore was entered to-day and robbed of $12,700. John Brady was alone in the office at the time. He is the mine foreman, and was watching the office while the paymaster was at dinner. Charles Engle and George Snow came in suddenly and pounced upon the unsuspecting Brady, whom they overpowered, gagged and blindfolded and tied in a chair. Then they gathered up the money, which was in envelopes all ready for payment to the miners to-day. The police were soon on their track, and they were captured shortly after they had committed the robbery. Joseph Bowen and John Hollister, accessories, were also arrested, and the four men are now in jail.

FOUR MEN BLOWN TO DEATH.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 19.—At 6.45 o'clock this evening at Tucker's Watch Box, a short distance below St. Clair, mountain engine 955 on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad was drawing a train of empty cars up the grade when the boiler exploded, completely demolishing the engine, tearing up the tracks, and doing great damage to telegraph lines and surrounding property. Italy Still Hostile to Our Pork.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Secretary Wharton said this morning that he had received no communication either from the American Minister at Rome or from the Italian Ministry that the Italian Government had decided to rescind the decree prohibiting the importation of American pork into Italy.

A six days bicycle race was started in Madison Square Garden, New York, Sunday night. Six thousand people saw fourteen men start.
