VOTE FOR C. G. MURPHY.

An anonymous circular is being distributed which purports to come from Centralia, and which opposes the election of C. G. Murphy as Associate Judge. There are several reasons why this circular should not effect a single vote. Such documents sent out at the last moment before the election, are never worthy of any notice. Anonymous circulars written by somebody who is too cowardly to sign his name, should not influence the vote of a single man. This circular is circulated in the interest of the Republican candidate for Associate Judge, with the hope of inducing some Democrats to cut the ticket, and thus perhaps affect the result on the State ticket. Vote for C. G. Murphy and the whole ticket.

Vote next Tuesday for Wright, Tilden and honest administration of state funds.

If the democratic auditor general and state treasurer be elected the truth can probably be obtained as to how the state has lost over a million dollars and who is connected with the robbery. At all events we can prevent a repetition of the crime. Get out the vote.

On Tuesday next go to the polls early and take your neighbors with you. If three fourths of the democratic vote is polled Wright and Tilden will be elected. If the vote is not gotten out you are personally responsible. Let all work from now until the poles close.

New York, Massachusetts and Ohio will probably elect democratic governors. Can't we keep Pennsylvania in line and elect our candidates for Auditor General and State Treasurer? If you help to get out the vote, we can do it.

Reader, if you understand what is involved in the proposition to hold a constitutional convention, and think it a wise and necessary step, vote the ticket on which is printed "For a Constitutional Convention." If you do not understand it, and do not feel that there is a public demand for it, vote the ticket printed "Against a Constitutional Convention." In either event do not fail to vote for Fritz and Corman for district delegates, and for the delegates-at-large, headed by Hon. C. R. Buckalew.

The republicans are making a frantic appeal for more funds to help elect their candidates. They dare not go before the people, and so depend upon money to carry the election. It is time the people take more interest in the election of our state treasurers and vote for those that will put a stop to the present system of robbery. If you, reader, will aid in getting out the vote, Wright and Tilden can be elected by handsome majorities. Go to the polls early and work for the success of those that will stop the robbing of the tax payers.

Tuesday next, November 3rd, will be an important election. There are no more important positions than Auditor General and State Treasurer, as they handle the finances of the state. The first, and therefore the most important, passes upon the validity of all accounts and should see that county treasurers are not delinquent. The second pays out all moneys and invests the funds. Our state has just lost over one million of dollars, it is for the people to say whether they will continue the old system. Throw away party considerations and vote for those who will take care of the public funds, and the honor of the state.

A circular has been issued by the republicans, purporting to come from the Dealers Protective Association. The circular contains the republican state ticket and urges the business man to support it, because they represent the party which favors the repeal of the Mercantile Tax law. The fact is that Gov. Pattison on two occasions in messages to Republican Legislatures asked for the repeal of these laws, but his suggestions were entirely ignored. No votes can be obtained by such misrepresentation.

We thank the Dealers Protective Association for a copy of this circular, and the republican ballot therein. We have already cast the ballot—in the waste basket.

I've been a sufferer, from rheumatism for years and have been unable to obtain any relief at all. Salvation Oil gave me entire relief and I heartily recommend it. HENRY WINKEL, Baltimore, Md.

What so wonderful, as a severe cough cured by Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for 25 cents. Try it!

AND QUAY, TOO, WAS "IN IT."

The following is a COPY of a DUE BILL found among the papers of the BROKEN KEYSTONE National Bank, and now in possession of ROBERT M. YARDLEY, RECEIVER.

KEYSTONE NATIONAL BANK.

No. 2315. Philadelphia, November 29, 1889. John Bardsley has deposited in this bank eighty-eight hundred and seventy-seven dollars, payable to the order of himself on the return of this certificate properly indorsed. $8,877. G. W. MARSH, Cashier.

On the back are these indorsements:
 Pay to the order of M. S. Quay.

JOHN BARDSLEY,
 M. S. QUAY.

Pay F. C. Hutchinson, cashier, or order, for collection, account of Beaver Deposit Bank, Beaver, Pa.

J. R. HARRAH, Cashier.

Received payment through the Clearing House.

When John Bardsley went to jail, he had collected the following moneys for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which he had not paid over:

Personal property tax, (1890)	-	$622,013 11
(1891)	-	289,232 96
License tax, (1890)	-	367,604 18
(1891)	-	1,497,54 54
Municipal loans tax, (1890)	-	86,030,80
Total,	-	$1,366,378 89

About $1,000,000.00 of this had been in his hand since August 1st, 1890, and the Auditor General and State Treasurer had taken no legal steps to collect it, although it was their duty to do so on October 1st, 1890.

Most of the above money John Bardsley had in the Keystone Bank.

The City of Philadelphia has also lost about $600,000.00 in the same institution.

None of the experts have yet been able to discover and report where this money went.

The Due Bill above, shows that Bardsley got $8,877.00 from the Bank on November 29th, 1889, and sent it to Quay.

Quay collected the money through his bank at Beaver; and when the certificate was sent on the Keystone Bank paid it.

Where did this money come from?

Why did Bardsley send it to Quay?

On 2d November, 1889, Auditor General McCamant sent the money for the Magistrate's costs in Philadelphia to Bardsley—over $30,000.00.

Bardsley deposited it in the Keystone Bank, and on the 29th November, 1889, he (Bardsley) paid $1575 to H. N. Graffen, a clerk to Auditor General McCamant.

On the same day he sent this $8877 to Quay!!!

Of the persons whose names appear on above certificate as drawer, payee, and endorser, G. W. Marsh is a fugitive.

John Bardsley is in jail.

M. S. Quay is in charge of the Republican State Committee, trying to elect Gregg and Morrison to succeed McCamant and Boyer, and to displace William Redwood Wright with George D. McCreary.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Hon. James G. Blaine, the acknowledged dictator of the next republican Presidential nomination, has solved a conundrum which for several months puzzled the people of this country, by returning to Washington and resuming his long neglected duties as Secretary of State; but there is another problem which is yet to be solved—does he come as a friend or as an enemy of Mr. Benjamin Harrison? Some of Mr. Blaine's friends insist that he will again be the nominee of his party and that it is his intention to so shape things during the next few months as to compel Mr. Harrison to abandon the dearest desire of his heart by announcing that he will not allow his name to go before the next republican convention; but your correspondent does not believe that Mr. Harrison has any idea of surrendering the lead he has already secured, by barter of appointments for delegates to that convention, and which he hopes to increase by the large number of important appointments now at his disposal, which are undoubtedly being delayed for the express purpose of obtaining additional Harrison delegates. Six months ago Mr. Blaine could easily have carried out such a plan, but Mr. Harrison has made such good use of the absence of the man from Maine that it will be very difficult if not impossible now. One thing is very certain, if appearances count for anything, and that is, that Mr. Blaine's health will not interfere with his entering the field as a candidate.

Just around the corner from Mr. Blaine's house there was Saturday and Sunday domiciled another man from Maine, who less than two years ago was a rival for popularity in the republican party of Mr. Blaine. His name is Thomas B. Reed, more properly known during the life of the billion-dollar Congress as Czar Reed. He did not call to pay his respects either to Mr. Blaine or Mr. Harrison.

Senator elect Palmer, of Illinois, has in a published interview, given eastern democrats something to think about. He said: "The fact that the elections next week may change the whole current of speculation, makes it vain to engage in political prophecy now. I am hopeful, however, of democratic success. It appears to me beyond question that we will carry Iowa and in my opinion, success in that State puts another Presidential or Vice-Presidential candidate in the field. Gov. Boies is a man of great intellectuality, and he has made a most excellent governor. The democracy has done and could do a great many more foolish things than to nominate Gov. Boies. It is admirably situated from a geographical point of view, and this is an important factor to be taken in consideration. He is much better situated than Gov. Russell, who I suppose will be a candidate for the Vice-Presidency if he is re-elected in Massachusetts.

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, a faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are some of the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet surely and efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and by thus overcoming the local symptoms removes the sympathetic effects of the disease, banishes the headache, and refreshes the tired mind. "I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla—took three bottles. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced." GEORGE A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar

A sense of fullness and other troubles after eating? Then you need a "Pellet." Not one of the ordinary, gripping, tearing pills—it's a sickness in itself to take them. But one of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets—the original Liver Pill, the smallest and the easiest to take. The easiest in the way they work, too—they're mild and gentle, but thorough and effective. Every part of the system feels their healthful influence. They cleanse and regulate the liver, stomach and bowels. Regulate, mind you. They prevent disease as well as cure it. They're purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels are promptly relieved and permanently cured. They're the cheapest pill you can buy, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get.

This is true only of Dr. Pierce's medicines.

REGULATING THE SUN.

This young man regulates the sun by his watch. If you want a correct time piece, buy a watch at J. G. Wells. He has a large assortment of gold and silver watches for ladies and gentlemen, of all prices, and will sell you one that will not regulate all the ills of the body politic, nor the ills that flesh is heir to, but it will regulate the moon and stars, and your son too, if you have one, and keep him from being late at school. These watches have even been known to move a messenger boy. The fitting of glasses a specialty. Eyes examined free. Particular attention given to repairing. All work done by skilled hands. Next door to Post Office, Bloomsburg Pa.

AUDITOR'S NOTICE.

Estate of Simon Peterman, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed an auditor to pass upon the exceptions filed to the second and final account of the executors of Simon Peterman late of Locust township deceased and to distribute the fund in the hands of said executors, will meet the parties interested at the office of W. H. Brown Esq. in Catawissa, on Saturday the 14th day of November A. D. 1891, at 10 o'clock a. m., at which time and place all persons having claims against said fund will appear and present the same or be forever debarred from coming in for a share thereof.

ROBERT BUCKINGHAM, Auditor.

THE FINISHING TOUCH.

In putting the finishing touch to your toilet do you always see that your shoes are in keeping with the rest of your make up? The shoes may be better than the other garments and still be inappropriate, but if they are not up to the raiment in style and quality the effect is unpleasant. Dentler's shoes stand on their merits. His stock of Men's, Women's and Children's boots and shoes, is infinite in variety, and quality, and moderate in price. F. D. Dentler, boot and shoe store, Bloomsburg, Pa.

AUDITOR'S NOTICE.

Estate of H. G. Crevier, deceased.

The undersigned auditor appointed by the Orphans' Court of Columbia county, to pass upon exceptions, and to make distribution of the funds of the estate to and among the parties entitled thereto, will sit at the office of Wintersteen, Beckley, & McKillop, in Bloomsburg, on Monday, November 23, 1891, at 10 o'clock, a. m., to perform the duties of his appointment, when and where all persons having claims must appear and prove the same, or be debarred from any share of said fund.

L. S. WINTERSTEEN, Auditor.

"Seeing is Believing."

And a good lamp must be simple; when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. All metal, tough and seamless, and made in three pieces only, it is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's of old, it is indeed a "wonderful lamp," for its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light and more cheerful than either.

Look for this stamp—THE ROCHESTER. If the lamp dealer has not the genuine Rochester, and the style you want, send to us for our new illustrated catalogue, and we will send you a lamp safely by express—your choice of over 2,000 varieties from the Largest Lamp Store in the World.
