Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

THE COLUMBIAN.

Entered at the Post Office at Bloomsburg, Pa., as second class matter, March 1, 1888.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1891.

Wanted.

Girls to learn the trade at the Silk Mill, or experienced hands. Fair wages will be paid. Apply at Silk Mill, Bloomsburg. Country girls can make satisfactory arrangements for board, if.

As you like it. Gray and faded whiskers may be changed to their natural and even color—brown or black—by using Buckingham's Dye. Try it.

The remains of Mrs. John Beaghan, formerly of this town, were brought from Tyrone where she died, on Monday, and were buried in Rosemont cemetery by Rev. Father McCann.

Beauty is said to be only skin deep; but to possess and preserve a beautiful skin, pure, vigorous blood is essential. This is best secured by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla in small but frequent doses. It is the most reliable of blood-purifiers.

The following letters are held at the Bloomsburg, Pa., post office and will be sent to the dead letter office Nov. 10, 1891.

Mrs. C. E. Davenport, W. S. Erb, J. H. Foster, J. A. Jones, Mrs. Wm. Maguire, B. Waker.

Persons calling for these letters will please say they were advertised Oct. 27, 1891.

One cent will be charged on each letter advertised.

A. B. CATHCART, P. M.

Look At Him!

A year ago he was not expected to live. Liver complaint almost killed him. He got great relief from three bottles of Sulphur Bitters, and six bottles cured him.—Editor Weekly Sun. 10-30-21.

A Pleased Audience.

The popularity of Chas. T. Ellis attracted one of the largest audiences of the season to Music Hall last night. The performance was satisfactory, and the audience was evidently well pleased, as it frequently applauded and in other ways expressed its pleasure and satisfaction. Mr. Ellis is practically the whole show himself. He is charming in his character, his quaint ways, his pathetic voice and clever turning of nice points having diminished none whatever in interest and impressiveness.—Daily Item, Allen town, Sept. 30. Bloomsburg Opera House, Nov. 4.

Old Nursery Favorites.

There was Tom, the Son of a Piper, Jack Sprat, and Merry King Cole, And the Three Wise Men of Gotham, Who went to sea in a bowl;

The woman who rode on a broom stick,

And swept the cobwebbed sky, And the boy who sat in a corner, Eating his Christmas pie.

These were some of the old favorites, but they have been supplanted by the "Pansy" and "Chatterbox" stories, "Little Lord Fauntleroy" and "Five Little Peppers." The Old fashion pills and physics have been superseded, and wisely, too, by Pierce's Purgative Pellets, a mild, harmless and effective cathartic. They are pleasant to take—so gentle in their action that the most delicate child can take them, yet so effective that they will cure the most obstinate cases of constipation, stomach, liver and bowel troubles. They should be in every nursery. As a gentle laxative, only one a dose.

SAFE-DEPOSIT BOXES.

The vault of the Farmers National Bank contains fifty lock boxes, which are for rent at prices ranging from $3.00 to $6.00 a year. There are two keys to each box, one of which is left at the bank and one is carried by the owner of the box. Neither can open the box until the other is inserted. More than half have already been rented.

Many pleasures in life are due to good health and good looks. Manner's Double Extract Sarsaparilla will bring pleasures as it increases the appetite, relieves all disorders arising from bad blood such as Headache, Constipation, Boils and pimples when driven out of the system brings good looks. Manner's Double Extract Sarsaparilla can be found at all drug stores also at Moyer Bro's.

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS.

A democratic meeting will be held at Catawissa on Friday evening October 30, at 7.30. Speeches will be made by B. F. Zarr Esq., and Fred. T. Ikeler.

A meeting will be held in the Opera House, Bloomsburg, on Saturday evening at 7.30. Speeches will be made by John M. Nash Esq., of Philadelphia, E. D. Zeigler Esq., of York, Hon. W. E. Ritter and W. C. Gilmore of Williamsport.

Suits for men, suits for boys, and pretty little suits for children at D. Lowenberg's.

Bring your watches, clocks and jewelry to J. G. Wells, Bloomsburg, for repairs, all work done by skillful workmen. If.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION, NEW CASTLE, PA., Feb. 25, 1891. Mr. H. J. Norman, Manager Scott Recitals.

The entertainment given by Mr. and Mrs. Scott was very fine; in fact, they are the best in their line that have ever visited our city. Should they ever return they are sure to have a crowded house.

E. W. WILDER, Sec'y.

Popularly called the king of medicines—Hood's Sarsaparilla. It conquers scrofula, salt rheum and all other blood diseases.

Mrs Susan A. Tate.

Although not unexpected, the announcement of the death of Mrs. Susan A. Tate at her home on Hepburn street, last Friday morning, cast a gloom of sadness throughout the length and breadth of the city wherein she had resided so many years and was so well and favorably known. She was the widow of the late veteran editor, Levi L. Tate, and it is said that during that gentleman's long and useful editorial career, his wife proved a great assistance to him in getting out the work that engrossed his attention. She was a lady endowed with a kind heart and a charitable disposition, a fact that many of the poor and needy of the city can vouch for. No one ever went to her for assistance that she didn't grant if it was in her power to do so. A gentle mother, a kind neighbor and an upright Christian woman, her demise is greatly lamented. Her age was 73 years and 8 months. During her illness, which continued over a period of two weeks, her sufferings were of the most intense nature, and death was looked forward to as a relief from the pain and distress she bore so patiently. May she rest in peace and finally awaken to glorious resurrection.—Williamsport Sun.

Mrs. Tate resided in Bloomsburg for many years, when her husband was the editor of the Democrat, and many friends still survive, who will hear of her death with sorrow.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she cried for Castoria. When she became ill, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

A large stock of over coats for men, boys and children at D. Lowenberg's.

REMOVE THE CAUSE.—It is no doubt the correct thing to treat the symptoms of a disease, but this is not effective unless the cause of the complaint is removed. For instance, a fever may be treated with quinine, etc., but unless the cause is removed the fever will surely return. Again, the sores and eruptions of Scrofula may be healed by mercury and potash treatment, but unless the cause of these symptoms is cleansed from the system, they will return or attack some of the delicate internal organs. Swift's Specific strikes at the cause of the trouble, and forces out the germs of disease, and the poison through the pores of the skin, and at the same time builds up the general health of the sufferer. Swift's Specific is a purely vegetable remedy, and is harmless to the most delicate, yet it never fails to eliminate the poison from the human body. We will mail a valuable book to all who will send for it.

PHYSIOLOGIC WONDERS.

Only think: 83 pounds of blood per minute thrown from a heart; 87 yards per minute, 7 miles per hour, 128 miles per day. Is it wonderful that man's excessive and foolish work lives? The only safety is in pure blood, and the only infallible, safe, purely vegetable blood purifier now known is the Cactus Blood Cure. No rival, no mineral, no salubrious.

A Safe Investment.

Is one which is guaranteed to bring you satisfactory results, or in case of failure a return of purchase price. On this safe plan you can buy from our advertised druggist a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It is guaranteed to bring relief in every case, when used for any affection of throat, lungs or chest, such as consumption, inflammation of lungs, bronchitis, asthma, whooping cough, croup, etc. It is pleasant and agreeable to taste, perfectly safe, and can always be depended upon. Trial bottles free at C. A. Klein's drug store.

Please remember that the second entertainment of the Y. M. C. A. Course, "The Scott Recitals," will be given on Friday evening, Nov. 6. Mr. and Mrs. Scott come highly recommended, and those who wish to enjoy an entertaining series of elocutionary efforts should not fail to be present. Tickets for single admission, reserved seats fifty cents. Tickets for this and the remaining four entertainments of the course reduced to one dollar and fifty cents. Inquire at Dentler's shoe store.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. C. A. Klein, druggist.

Salt-rheum is cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Write J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, for evidence.

OLD TIME "SAND CLASS."

Sand Took the Place of Slate in the School of Long Ago.

"Sixty years ago I taught the sand class in the schools of this city in the Grand Jury room of the old Court House," said a gentleman to Gossip last evening. "The sand class!" exclaimed Gossip. "What in the name of Socrates was a sand class?" And then the ancient pedagogue proceeded to say: "Sixty years ago the schools of the town occupied the old Court House, and I was one of the scholars. In the Grand Jury room there was a long table about 18 inches high with a strip of board fastened on the top all around the sides, thus making the center lower than the sides. This center was filled with fine sand an inch deep.

"At the end of the table was a wheel on which the letters of the alphabet were printed so that but one letter would appear at a time; around the table the smallest children of the school were gathered, and each furnished with a stick. I, as the pedagogue, pointed by the head teacher, would take my stand at the end of the table and alongside of the wheel, and as I moved it would announce the letter that was brought to view, which the children would proceed to make in the sand with their sticks. When all had made that letter I would level the sand with a comb and the wheel would be moved on to another letter. And these little ones were called the 'sand class.' It was an interesting sight, the system was somewhat like the kindergarten of the present day, and it was certainly an economical mode of supplying writing material." This was the sand class of 60 years ago.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

Identifying Ancient Cities in Egypt.

Dr. Naville, the well known Egyptian explorer, the discoverer of Bubastis and the treasure city of Pithon, has recently identified other cities in Egypt, more especially some connected with the exodus of the Israelites. At the close of June last he presented the results of his discoveries at a meeting of the Victoria Institute, in London, presided over by Sir Gabriel Stokes, ex president of the Royal Society. Dr. Naville found that the Succoth, spoken of in the Bible, was not a city, as some have supposed, but a district, and from a valuable inscription found at Pithon that the latter became known to the Greeks as Hieropolis, and that although now many miles inland it was once a seaport, the waters of the Red Sea extending up to its walls, and merchants' ships are described by Strabo and Pliny as sailing thence to the Arabian Sea. Through some recently discovered papyri M. Naville found that Baal-Zephon was neither a village or a town, but a shrine of Baal and a noted place of pilgrimage. The sites of other places discovered were those of Migoule, which in after days was probably the Serapeum of the Greeks, and also Pi Hahiroth. In the identification of the two last places M. Naville was greatly helped by a papyrus. The bearing of his identifications is of no small interest to the students of history, both sacred and profane.

We name no prices in this advertisement. Want you to come and see the mark. Whilst we are having quite a run for coats, shawls, blankets, flannels, underwear, fine and cheap dress goods, trimmings, laces, ribbons, collars, cuffs, neck wear etc., we are not neglecting the grocery department, are now getting in fruits, nuts etc., for the fall season. 2 doz. bananas were imported last season, for each man, woman and child in this country, (over 4,000,000 bunches.) We intend keeping them with oranges, lemons etc. Our sweet potatoes are of the best; we run on extra good coffee and tea, and always ready to exchange good groceries for good butter eggs etc. People from other towns are invited to come and examine our goods. Our dish department is being filled up since the fair, a fine assortment of lamps just opened.

HAVING A STAVING TIME.

This unfortunate wight is "in it," sure enough, but although he is having a staving time, barrels are not likely to soon supplant trousers, in polite society. Casks may serve in an emergency, but most people prefer to get their garments at G. W. Bertsch's. He makes a good fit every time, after the latest styles, at fair prices. Satisfaction guaranteed. A fine line of hats, caps, gloves, and Gents' Furnishing Goods always on hand. You know where Bertsch, the Tailor is, Main St., next door to First National Bank, Bloomsburg.

The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Matthew's Lutheran church will serve a turkey dinner in the basement of the Old Presbyterian church, Nov. 13th, from 5 o'clock to 10 o'clock p. m. There will also be for sale a variety of fancy and useful articles. Come and buy your Christmas presents 23-31

There's Music in the Air.

This genius is away up in G, and is engaged in the liberal fulfillment of a very common expression. It is as seldom that musical notes are seen floating over housetops, as it is that bank notes are found growing on bushes. Our artist has therefore photographed them on the spot. The man in the picture is on top. So is J. Saltzer, the well known dealer in all kinds of musical instruments and sewing machines. He handles the Steck, Estey and Starr pianos; the Estey, Miller and United States Organs:

The celebrated White, and other makes of Sewing Machines. Satisfaction guaranteed by J. Saltzer, Bloomsburg Pa. Main St. below Market.

A STATIONERY RUN.

We are having a big stationery run, and yet there is nothing stationary about it. This seeming paradox is a plain fact, and is due to our affixing very low prices to very high grade goods. The goods in the picture are walking off themselves, but not nearly so rapidly as our customers are walking off with books, stationery, school supplies, wall paper, pictures, etc., at the old established store of W. H. BROOKE & CO., Exchange Hotel building, Bloomsburg, Pa.
