

M'KINLEY CARRIES OHIO.

Campbell Defeated for Governor in That State.

GREGG AND MORRISON ELECTED.

The Republican ticket a Winner in Pennsylvania by a Majority of 50,000. Democrats Re-elected Governor Boies in Iowa—Democracy Wins in New Jersey.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—William McKinley, Jr., has been elected governor of Ohio by a majority of about 19,000 on one of the heaviest votes ever cast in the state. The new system of voting has greatly delayed the counting of the vote, but McKinley's election is conceded by Chairman Neal, of the Democratic state committee. The election of a Republican majority of the general assembly is also conceded. A remarkable feature of the election is the vote in Hamilton county, where it was expected that Campbell would be slaughtered. Instead of that he has run from five to twenty votes ahead of his ticket in almost every precinct in the city.

His defeat is due to the heavy vote brought out by the vigor with which the campaign has been fought on both sides.

and to the failure of the farmers in the heavily Republican districts to desert McKinley on the tariff issue to the extent that had been expected. The returns indicate that Campbell made large gains in the manufacturing towns and cities. He also gained in the Democratic districts in the northwest.

Major McKinley voted at his home in Canton and remained there to receive the returns. Governor Campbell left Cincinnati on an early train for Hamilton, his legal residence, where he voted a straight Democratic ticket, including himself. He always votes for himself when running for an office. Experience has taught him the value of single votes.

The first time he was a candidate for the nomination for governor he was beaten in the convention by one-half of a vote, and when he was nominated the first time he had but barely a majority of the convention.

From Hamilton the governor went to Columbus, where he spent the day quietly with his family.

Ohio electors for the first time made use of the Australian system of voting. The law establishing this reform was passed last winter after a fight lasting two years.

A blanket ballot is used, but each ticket is printed upon it separately, in parallel columns, separated by heavy black lines. At the head of each ticket was a pictorial device and beneath it, in large type, the name of the ticket. There were this year five tickets, and the ballot was nearly as large as one page of a newspaper. The Republican ticket was headed by an eagle, the Democratic ticket by a rooster, the Prohibition ticket by a rose, the People's party ticket by a plow and banner and the Veteran Republican ticket by a soldier.

The arrangement of the booths and polling places was similar to that in New York. Each voter was allowed five minutes in which to mark his ballot. Reports indicate that the new system made a favorable impression.

Gregg's Plurality About 57,434.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—Complete figures from fifty-three of the sixty-seven counties in the state, including Philadelphia and Allegheny, and estimates for the other fourteen counties show a plurality of 57,434 for Gregg for auditor general and 54,488 for Morrison, Rep., for state treasurer. Only ten counties in the state gave majorities for the holding of a constitutional convention. In forty-two counties there is a majority of 154,500 against holding the convention. The counties favorable to the convention are Bedford, Carbon, Columbia, Elk, Fayette, Lackawanna, Luzerne, Pike, Warren and Wayne.

MORRISON. GREGG.

The Inquirer says Blaine could carry Massachusetts next year, and probably Harrison or Major McKinley could do so, too. In New York, however, the result must be looked upon as a defeat for President Harrison, whose personal candidate Mr. Fassett was.

The meaning of all this is that the New York Republicans want Blaine for president, and the figures show that he can carry the state. Pennsylvania, Ohio and Nebraska will support either McKinley, Harrison or Blaine. The west, as shown by Iowa, is still restive. There is one man who can certainly recall every wandering state. His name is Blaine.

New Jersey Democrats Happy.
TRENTON, Nov. 5.—The election in New Jersey, by which the Democrats secure a majority of 11 in the senate and 30 in the assembly—a majority of 31 on joint ballot—is claimed by the victorious party as an emphatic endorsement of the conduct of the state government under Democratic rule. The Republicans did not carry one of the seven counties in which senators were elected, and of the sixty assemblymen nominated they elected but nineteen. This is a loss to the Republicans of three senators and one assemblyman.

day, together with those who hold over, will vote for a United States senator to succeed Rufus Blodgett. Of these seven who will come up for election the Democrats are very certain of securing three, thus retaining control of the senate.

IN IOWA.

Republican Boies Has Undoubtedly Retained the State for the Democracy.
DES MOINES, Nov. 5.—The latest returns indicate Boies' plurality at 12,322. Eighty-eight counties give him 12,322. The new Democrats claim the election of their whole state ticket. The senate stands: Democrats, 25; Republicans, 21; Independents, 1.

HORACE BOIES. H. C. WHEELER.
ent. 1. The Republicans have a majority of 2 or 3 in the house. The Democrats had a regular old fashioned jubilee last night over the success of Boies. Fires were burned all over the state and Democrats marched the streets. Governor Boies' carriage was drawn through the streets by a great crowd of enthusiastic Democrats.

What the President Says.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—In speaking of the elections the president stated that the only place where national issues entered into the campaign was in Ohio, and that therefore the election of Mr. McKinley is particularly significant and gratifying. He expressed disappointment at the result in New York, but intimated that he had expected it from the moment that the campaign degenerated into a fight with Tammany as an issue. He thinks that if national issues had been kept to the front the result would have been different. Secretary Foster, who took the stump for McKinley in Ohio, was very happy over McKinley's victory. He said that the result in Ohio was a complete vindication of the protection principle. "The McKinley bill," he said, "has worked out its own salvation. We were brave enough to fight fairly and squarely on the tariff, and the result proved that the people are satisfied with the bill. Protection and honest money were vindicated. Campbell was badly crippled by the Democratic policy on the silver question, but that did not cause nearly so great a loss of votes to him as his free trade speeches did, and we will elect a Republican senator, too. I suppose Senator Sherman will be the man."

Ex-President Cleveland's Views.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Concerning the elections ex-President Grover Cleveland said:

"Of course every one has a right to put his own construction on the result, and I am not anxious to obtrude my ideas, but it seems to me some things ought to be no longer doubtful. 'Any man who still thinks that tariff reform is a settled and obsolete issue, or that the importance of sound and safe money is a question which the people can be blinded, is either wilfully wrong or dangerously dull. It seems to me, too, that Democrats ought to be satisfied that a staunch adherence to the principles of their party does not require the abuse of those who show an inclination to help us. I very much regret the defeat of Governor Campbell. He has been a brave and honest official. This and the splendid canvass he made entitled him to success. While the election of Flower, Russell and Boies ought to cause the utmost rejoicing among the Democrats, they should not forget that with these things comes the obligation to be true to the people, honest in the advocacy of our principles and decent in all things.'"

Brown's Plurality 30,000.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5.—Frank Brown, for governor, carried the state by something over 30,000 plurality. The legislature will stand on joint ballot 103 Democrats, 14 Republicans. The senate will have only four Republicans, who are holdover senators. In the house of delegates there are seven Republicans and three fusionists. Chief Justice Briscoe, Dem., carried his judicial circuit in southern Maryland by over 1,300, while in the western Maryland circuit, Mr. Stake, the Republican candidate for associate judge, is elected by over 600 majority.

In Michigan.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Nov. 5.—Republicans have won a sweeping victory here. Belknap, Republican candidate for the Fifth Congressional district, will be returned by from 1,300 to 1,500 majority. Late Congressman Ford carried his district by 2,000 last fall.

DETROIT, Nov. 4.—The Republicans elect their city ticket by large majority. Mayor Plingree, Republican candidate, run considerably ahead of his ticket. The Republicans also elect fifteen out of sixteen aldermen.

In Virginia.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 5.—The Democrats had a walk over in Virginia. The Independents cut no figure and the Republicans did little better. The Democrats will have thirty-eight members of the senate, Republicans only two, and the Independents none. In the house of delegates the Democrats will have far more than two-thirds and may have seven-eighths of 100 members elected to that body. The Republicans seem to have refrained from voting.

In Kansas.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 5.—Nine district judges and county officers were voted for in Kansas. The vote was very light everywhere. The only other noticeable feature of the polling was the failure of sub-alliances to vote in blocks, as they did last year, when they swept the state. At Leavenworth the Alliance polled about half of its registered vote.

In South Dakota.

PIERRE, S. D., Nov. 5.—John L. Jolley, Rep., is elected to congress to succeed John R. Gamble, Rep., deceased, by a majority approximating 4,000.

The Duke as Co-respondent.

VIENNA, Nov. 5.—The Duke of Orleans was served with a writ in the action for divorce brought by Captain Charles Arncliffe against his wife, the celebrated soprano, known as Mme. Melba, in which the duke is charged as co-respondent.

"Thinking that a word from me might be the cause of others receiving benefit from your S. S. S., I write to say that I have been a sufferer from Eczema, which my doctor called pink heads. Small blisters would form on my limbs, would break and ooze, and cause large sores to form. The odor arising would be very disagreeable, and I would often be laid up from one to two months. I tried various physicians and treatments, but received no permanent relief until I was induced to try S. S. S., and felt the benefit from it in a few days. I continued to use of it until I had taken three bottles, which was over a year ago, and I have not had the Eczema since. I believe it is thoroughly eradicated from my system. I feel sure that S. S. S. is the greatest blood remedy, and I would recommend it to everyone afflicted with any form of blood poison, for I believe they will receive like benefits that I have."
