

THE NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Telegraphic Notes of Interest Briefly Told.

HERE, THERE AND EVERYWHERE.

Small but Nutritious—The News of the World From Pole to Pole Carefully Culled and Botted Down for Busy Readers Throughout the Country.

Thursday, Nov. 5.

Isaac M. Atwill, shoe manufacturer of Lynn, assigned Wednesday. Liabilities, $32,000; assets, unknown.

G. W. Price was shot and instantly killed by his camping companion, who mistook him for a bear, near Jerome Park, Col.

President Harrison has declined the invitation to be present at the Augusta exposition owing to pressure of public business.

William Cox and his son of Wapella, Ill., were both suffocated Wednesday by gas in an old well which they were trying to deepen.

J. I. Todd's new mill and the plant of the Grimshaw Silk Manufacturing Company at Paterson were burned Tuesday night. Loss, $50,000; insured.

The trouble in the Maverick Bank in Boston started a small run on the Five Cent Savings Bank. The bank has 125,000 depositors and $18,000,000 in deposits.

The new Furness line steamer Ottawa is ashore, a total loss, at Blond Rock, near Nova Scotia. The crew were all saved, and she had no passengers aboard.

Destructive fires have been raging in the woods extending from Wilton to New Canaan, Conn., since Saturday. Several hundred acres have been burned over, doing a great amount of damage.

Judgment for $125,180 was entered against the Scranton, Pa., Steel Company Wednesday in favor of John A. Nichols on promissory notes for pig iron furnished by William R. Hart & Co., of Philadelphia.

The British ship Strathblaine, sixteen days from Honolulu, went ashore twenty-five miles north of Astoria Wednesday morning. Of thirty-one people on board six were drowned, including the captain. The vessel is a total loss.

The case of Dr. Charles A. Briggs, charged with heresy, which has caused so much attention, has been dismissed by the New York Presbytery by a vote of 94 against 33. The committee on prosecution will, however, appeal to the Synod.

The Monongahela River coal operators have decided to reduce the rate from three and a half to three cents a bushel. The cut will affect 8,000 men. The operators have 12,000,000 bushels of coal on hand, and say they can shut down if necessary.

The Brazilian congress has determined to re-establish the dictatorship and to proclaim martial law. Fonseca was indorsed with full power of life and death when Dom Pedro was expelled. As a president he has not been popular.

Lewis Cox, colored, aged twelve, was killed by the accidental discharge of his gun while hunting near Cape May Wednesday. William Johnson of South River, N. J., was killed while gunning yesterday, the upper part of his head being torn off.

A Government survey of the boundary line between Indiana and Ohio, which has been conducted for the past two months, has resulted in the discovery that Ohio is entitled to about 1,200 square miles of territory which lies west of the present State line.

Nathaniel Laird cast his eighty-seventh vote Tuesday at Oswego, N. Y. He was born 109 years ago in Tipperary, Ireland, and came to this country at the age of fifteen. His wife is still living at the age of seventy-nine, but they have no living children.

When her mother was searching for a basin of water, a six-year-old daughter of Louis Wahl, of Dunellen, N. J., was slowly burned to death Tuesday night. The child had been playing with a bonfire of leaves, and a sudden gust of wind communicated the fire to her dress.

The boys of the State Reform School at Jamesburg, N. J., took advantage of the darkness caused by a disarrangement of the electric lighting system, to escape through the windows. Eleven effected their escape, seven of whom were recaptured during the night, the rest being still at large.

W. S. Felton and J. T. Smith were taken from the parish jail at Bastrop, La., Tuesday night by a mob and hanged. Smith and Felton were suspected of the murder of J. A. Drycus, at Mer Rouge, near there, on October 6, but no arrests were made at the time. Later they were arrested for making threats.

Conductor Unger of Albany was killed Wednesday afternoon by a Peekskill local train near the Irvington station. He was in charge of a freight train which was wrecked at noon to-day. He was standing on the track giving directions for the clearing of the wreck, and did not hear the approaching local.

Tony Hart, for many years one of New York's favorite comedians, died Wednesday morning at the Worcester, Mass., Lunatic Hospital, where he has been confined for a year past. During that time his life has been many times despaired of, but in each instance he has rallied. His right name was Anthony Cannon and he was born in Worcester, Mass., in 1855. He was for years associated with the noted comedian Edward Harrigan.

Friday, Nov. 6.

Snow storms occurred Thursday at Washington, Lock Haven, Pa., and Charlottesville, W. Va.

The object of Senor Montt's visit to New Orleans is to meet his wife, who will arrive at that port from Chile.

Four stockmen were killed by a collision on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas road near Waco Wednesday.

The American Shropshire Registry Association (sheep breeders) is holding its annual convention in Buffalo.

John B. Ransley has been adjudged insane at Cincinnati, and a guardian was appointed against the protest of his wife.

Farmer Samuel Wilson, of Wolf Summit, W. Va., yesterday shot and killed a little girl named Bailey, mistaking her for a ground hog.

The affairs of the Golden Seal Endowment Order at Lowell, Mass., are to be wound up, and sixty per cent. of money taken in certificates returned.

Jonas H. French, Director of the Maverick Bank, of Boston, was committed to the Charles street Jail late Thursday in default of $75,000 bail.

Suit for several million dollars has been begun against the Leavenworth Coal Mining Company for coal taken from the government's railroad reservation.

A lockout of 4,000 brewers is expected in California, ten of the largest breweries, controlled by an English syndicate, having combined with outside breweries to reduce wages.

Mrs. George Dunlap, aged twenty-one, was killed by a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western passenger train at Pacono Summit, N. J., Thursday. Her head, one arm and a leg were cut off.

An attempt was made on Thursday to wreck a passenger train on the Eastern and Northern road near Easton, Pa., by placing an iron bar across the track. The engine only was derailed.

Miss Mary Jennison, a society belle, of Weston, Mass., the eighteen-year-old daughter of Frank C. Jennison, a Boston grain merchant, has eloped with Herbert Foster, a commercial traveler for a New York house.

Godfrey & Clarke's paper warehouse, Walker & Son's paper box factory and Meyer, Arnold & Co.'s furniture store, at Pittsburg, were burned Thursday night, causing a loss of about $69,000, fully insured.

The golden jubilee of the ordination of the Right Rev. Mgr. Cantwell, vicar general of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Philadelphia, and rector of St. Philip de Neri's Church, Philadelphia, was celebrated Wednesday.

R. E. Dowell, of Chicago, and L. L. Osborne, of Garnett, Kan., president and secretary of the Cherokee township and colony, have been arrested at the Ponca Agency, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses.

The sixth annual Convention of the International Christian Workers' Association, composed chiefly of delegates from the United States and Canada, met in the First Congregational Church in Washington, D. C., Thursday.

Advice received from Llano, Tex., state that miners have struck a bonanza vein of gold there near some abandoned Spanish diggings which were worked profitably two centuries ago. There is much excitement over the discovery.

Another break between the railroad coal operators and miners of the Pittsburg district has occurred, and about 1,000 of the miners have refused to return to work because of the operators refusing to recognize the Miners' Union.

The men at Charles B. Tebbetts' shoe factory, Lynn, Mass., have voluntarily offered to accept lower wages in each branch if Mr. Tebbetts will return his bottoming shop to Lynn and give the work to Lynn workmen. The offer will be accepted.

The charred remains of Richard Foote, an old man, were found in his barn which was burned in Windsor, N. Y., a few days ago. John Furman, a former lover of Mrs. Foote, is suspected of murdering Foote. Furman and Mrs. Foote have been arrested.

The Bank of Caledonia, Minn., was robbed Wednesday night, a blacksmith shop being entered to secure the tools, the vault being next entered and a fine burglar proof safe blown to pieces. About $6,000 in cash was secured, besides notes and other papers.

The long-delayed trial of Rev. Henry W. George, the curious being who stands indicted for manslaughter in the first degree for causing the death by malpractice of his adopted daughter, Lottie Townsend, began before Judge Sanderson in the County Court at Catskill, N. Y., Thursday.

The country tributary to the lower Rio Grande has suffered greatly from drought this year. Cattle on the large ranches in Starr and Zapata counties are falling to the ground out of sheer exhaustion. In their emaciated condition they die by the hundreds in going to water or back to their grazing, sometimes miles apart.

A National Council of the Kings' Daughters was organized in New York on Thursday with the following officers: President, Mrs. Margaret J. Franklin, New York; vice president, Mrs. J. W. F. Peck, New Haven; secretary, Miss Elizabeth L. Ryerson, New York; and treasurer, Miss Annie Krugel, New York.

The Kansas City express train on the Missouri Pacific road was held up by six masked men about 10 o'clock Wednesday night, eight miles from Omaha. Two of the men boarded the engine, and with cocked revolvers, commanded Engineer Hall to get off. The others boarded the express car. While two of the men worked on the strong box, the others compelled the passengers to keep their seats. The thieves secured about $3,500 from the safe, and then disappeared in the darkness.

Saturday, Nov. 7.

Indiana is suffering from the worst drought in fifty years.

An extensive forest fire is raging in the village of Woodstock, in the Catskills.

Director Nathan of the World's Fair announced that the price of tickets will be fifty cents.

The report of the appraisers of the estate of the late Mrs. Theresa Fair values it at $4,694,000.

Constable Harris of the Winnipeg mounted police has been found dead with a bullet in his head.

Seven thousand bituminous coal miners have been ordered on strike in Indiana for advance of wages.

The trial of ex-Assemblyman Demorest, indicted for forgery, has been set for November 23 at Nyack, N. Y.

Ex-Governor Smith of Vermont, president of the Central Railroad, died Friday of heart failure at St. Albans, Vt.

Reports at Little Rock, Ark., say that prairie fires have done over $100,000 damage in the interior of the State.

The iron firm of Jones & Louthin, of Pittsburg, Pa., reduced the wages of the 500 laborers employed by it from $1.50 to $1.25.

Frank Taylor and John McKernon were smothered to death Friday by the upsetting of a load of hay on which they were riding at Lima, Ohio.

Claim has been put into the Vice Admiralty Court by Andrus Island sailors for sixty per cent. salvage on the cargo of the steamship El Dorado.

Fifty employes of the Baker Wire Mill, at Lockport, Ill., have been locked out for belonging to a union of the Amalgamated Iron and Steel Workers.

James Sullivan and Mrs. Catharine E. McDonough were arrested at Boston Friday charged with conspiracy to defraud the New York Life Insurance Company out of $2,000.

Florence Blythe, heir of the late Thomas Blythe, became of age November 19, and has announced she will end the litigation over her father's $4,000,000 by giving the contestants $1,500,000.

The federal authorities at Rio Grande city, Tex., are investigating the recent examinations by the Mexican military of suspected revolutionists, said to be American citizens, and two of whom were shot.

The strike that has been in progress at the tin plate department of the St. Louis Stamping Company's mills has been declared off, and yesterday all of the men went to work, including the skilled laborers from abroad.

Charles Crittenfort, a young man employed as a collector and delivery man for the Weiss Produce Company of Klingerstown, Pa., has disappeared, taking with him valuable papers and money to the value of $12,000.

Sarah Cornelison, sixty years old and an inmate of the Rockland County (N. Y.) Almshouse for the last six months, fell down a flight of stairs in the building Friday night and broke her neck. She was dead when picked up.

The Cochrane-Fulton Company, distillers and wholesale liquor dealers, at Louisville, Ky., assigned Friday to the Louisville Trust Company. The liabilities and assets are supposed to be about equal and to reach nearly $500,000.

The Bank of Florence, Ala., failed on Friday. The assets are about $50,000 and the liabilities about $100,000. There is great indignation among the depositors. One man went to the president and, drawing a pistol, demanding his money. He didn't get it, however.

Two girls of ten and twelve, named Kunz, averted a terrible railroad accident on the Pittsburg and Youghiogheny Railway on Tuesday night. They found a telegraph pole across the track, and by swinging a lantern stopped a train.

In the case of the Jewett Publishing Company vs. General B. F. Butler, Judge Holmes of Boston has decided that there was a breach of contract, but reserved the question of equitable remedy for the full bench of the Supreme Court.

A delegation from Savannah, Ga., headed by Senator Colquitt and Mayor McDonough, called on the president yesterday and urged him to visit Savannah during the coming winter. The president said he would visit Savannah, as requested, if he could possibly do so.

The Giant Powder Works at Clipper Gap, Cal., blew up Friday. James Hamilton was blown to atoms, nothing being found of him but one finger. Ah Han, a Chinaman, was killed, and only his que was found. Joseph Peppin, a resident of Santa Cruz, was badly cut about the head. He leaves a wife and six children. Bert Hicks, a boy, had his skull fractured. Buildings were shaken down and ruined.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Table with columns for Butter, Eggs, Feed, Hay, Straw, and Flour, listing various grades and prices.

CHEATING IN HORSE BLANKETS

Nearly every pattern of 5/8 Horse Blanket is imitated in color and style. In most cases the imitation looks just as good as the genuine, but it hasn't the warp threads, and so lacks strength, and while it sells for only a little less than the genuine it isn't worth one-half as much.

Advertisement for 5/8 Horse Blankets, Five Mile Boss Electric Extra Test Baker, ARE THE STRONGEST. 100 5/8 STYLES.

PHILLIPS'

The Summer is gone, but we still keep ice cream of several flavors daily.

Oysters are now in season, and they are served in any style desired.

Regular meals served to transient or permanent guests.

The Cafe is open, and the kitchen is in charge of an experienced cook. Catering for parties, lodges, weddings, etc., a specialty.

Fresh bread and cakes daily in the bakery.

M. M. PHILLIPS & SON. Proprietors of "PHILLIPS' CAFE." Bloomsburg, Pa.

KESTY & HOFFMAN, Practical Machinists.

We repair Engines, Boilers, Saw Mills, Threshers, Harvesters, Mowers and all kinds of machinery.

WE HANDLE STEAM PIPE FITTINGS, VALVES, STEAM GAUGES. And all kinds of Repairs. PIPE CUT TO ORDER.

AGENTS FOR Garfield Injector Co., Garfield Double Jet Injector, Automatic and Locomotive Injector.

All work done by us is guaranteed to give satisfaction, and all work in our line will be promptly attended to.

SHOPS - 6th and CENTRE STREETS.

BULL'S-HEAD DAY'S HORSE AND CATTLE POWDER. HAS NO RIVAL. SOLD ONLY IN 1 LB. PACKAGES.

THE "PEOPLE'S STORE," DANVILLE'S GIANT SHOPPING MART.

NOVEL DRESS GOODS.

Marvels in Mixed Woolens, Plaids, Fancy Stripes and such, at 50c per yard, that are our pride and your delight. Gay indeed for the children, neater and more subdued for older members; you can't go astray on these. Here's everything you can possibly want and more too.

OUR COAT DEPARTMENT

is spreading out of all bounds. It is packed full of the choicest New Goods, upon which we have placed very small figures for their actual worth. The latest arrival is a complete assortment of Ladies' Capes in Seal Plush, Russian Lynx, Black Hare, Wool Seal, Beaver Astrachan, Alaska Seal, Black Marten, Krimmer, &c.

COMFORTABLES AND QUILTS.

We are showing an elegant assortment of Eider Down Comfortables, embroidered or plain coverings in Silk Olive and figured French Sateens, all colors, ranging in price from $3.00 to $8.50 each.

Special values in cotton comfortables in Turkey Red and chintz coverings, all full sizes, and pure white cotton filling, 85c to $2.75 each.

Marseilles and Honeycomb Quilts in every size and Quality, 75c to $4.00 each.

CLOTHING DEPARTMENT.

Trade is very brisk here and why shouldn't it be. We are offering men's fine business suits in fancy mixtures, Scotch tweeds, cassimers and corkscrews at $8.50, $10.00 and $12.00. Also men's genuine all wool Slater and other fine blue and black flannel sack suits, single and double breasted and lined with double warp serge, at $15.00, $18.00 and $20.00.

PERFUMES AND TOILET WATERS.

We have just added to our perfumery department a line of ARMANT'S Triple and Quadruple extracts, that will surely delight the heart of every live visitor. Triple extracts, 35c an ounce, in the following odors: Heliotrope, Jockey Club, Frangipanni, White Lilac, Wild Olive, New Moon Hay, White Rose, Stephanotis, White Heliotrope, Musk, Violet, Lily of the Valley, May Blossom, Trailing Arbutus, and Ylang Ylang.

Quadruple Extracts, 50c an ounce in the following odors: Trailing Arbutus, Lillita, White Lilac, Frangipanni, May Blossom and Musk.

We know the goods are right. We want you to know it. We furnish the bottles. The "People's Store," W. C. FRICK & CO., MILL & CENTRE STS., DANVILLE, PA. Entrance on both Streets.

C. B. ROBBINS, DEALER IN FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC WINES AND LIQUORS. Bloomsburg, Pa.

EVERY WATERPROOF COLLAR OR CUFF THAT CAN BE RELIED ON Not to Split! Not to Discolor! BEARS THIS MARK. TRADE MARK. ELLULOID MARK. NEEDS NO LAUNDERING. CAN BE WIPED CLEAN IN A MOMENT. THE ONLY LINEN-LINED WATERPROOF COLLAR IN THE MARKET.