It is unfair to Mr. Buckalew to charge him with using secret means to defeat C. G. Murphy in the late election. It is quite certain that the circular sent out with Mr. Buckalew's name signed to it, was of very material assistance to Mr. Murphy, and it is within our personal knowledge that Mr. Buckalew willingly offered to sign the paper as soon as his attention was directed to the circular charging Judge Murphy with treachery to him. Judge Murphy should not be held responsible for any such allegations concerning Mr. Buckalew.

The movement in favor of a Constitutional Convention never had much basis upon which to stand, and what little chance it had of success was almost dissipated by the work of the nominating Conventions which selected candidates for delegates. There were of course, the names of some relatively good men on the party tickets; but the average voter in Pennsylvania would hesitate a long time before submitting the organic law of this state to the tender mercies of a good many of those who had been named as candidates for the work of revision. It is no wonder public sentiment set in so overwhelmingly against this scheme. The present Constitution has not yet been in force twenty years, and it fully lived up to it would meet every reasonable public expectation and demand.—Ashland Advocate.

Women are not slow to comprehend. They're quick. They're alive, and yet it was a man who discovered the one remedy for their peculiar ailments. The man was Dr. Pierce.

The discovery was his "Favorite Prescription"—the boon to delicate women. Why go round "with one foot in the grave," suffering in silence—misunderstood—when there's a remedy at hand that isn't an experiment, but which is sold under the guarantee that if you are disappointed in any way in it, you can get your money back by applying to its makers.

We can hardly imagine a woman's not trying it. Possibly it may be true of one or two—but we doubt it. Women are ripe for it. They must have it. Think of a prescription and nine out of ten waiting for it. Carry the news to them.

The seat of sick headache is not in the brain. Regulate the stomach and you cure it. Dr. Pierce's Pellets are the Little Regulators.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.
Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Specker, Catawba, O., had five large Fevers so on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at C. A. Klein's Dr. 13 50c.

A few weeks since delegates of several of the churches met at Y. M. C. A. hall and organized themselves into a union for the purpose of having quarterly union meetings to increase Christian zeal among the young people of Bloomsburg.

The first quarterly meeting will be held Monday evening Nov. 23rd in the Presbyterian church. The Union has been very fortunate in securing the services of Rev. C. H. Yatman, the noted evangelist for that evening. He is now working in Scranton. Please notice clippings in the paper this and next week taken from the Scranton Press.

The Tabernacle Service
AFTER IT WAS OVER MR. YATMAN WAS TENDERED A RECEPTION.

The great interest manifested in the Yatman revival service continues. There was hardly standing room in the Tabernacle last evening, and the line of people that sought admission to the edifice extended from the Tabernacle doors to the sidewalk. The subject of Mr. Yatman's discourse was "The Acceptance or Rejection of Christ"—a plain putting of the fact as to whether a man should save his life or lose it.

It was a solemn, earnest service and resulted in the conversion of a large number of persons, especially men. The singing of Mrs. Kress was a marked feature, especially the solo, "Building for Eternity." At the close of the service Mr. Yatman was invited to the residence of Mr. William Connell, where he was met and complimented upon the work he is performing by a large number of enterprising and progressive men of the city.—Scranton Paper.

"A chemical success and medical triumph," so speaks an eminent physician in reference to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral; and the eulogy was none too strong. No other medicine is so safe and efficacious in all diseases of the throat and lungs.

Their Votes A Tie

The contest for the office of Register of Wills in Lackawanna county has had a most peculiar termination. The popular G. A. R. man, Mr. Hopkins, is the present incumbent. His opponent was H. T. Kohler, a young German-American, and a prominent member of the P. O. S. of A.

It was generally thought before election that the race between these two men would be close, but no one dreamed it would result as it did. When the official count was ended Friday evening each man had 10,223 votes. During the afternoon the vote was close, sometimes one man would be ahead and then the other. Several little irregularities were discovered in the tally sheets and a number of ballot boxes were sent for and opened in court.

Two lawyers looked after the interests of either candidate, and a blot on the tally sheet, an erasure or two strokes resembling one was enough to cause a battle of tongues.
Late in the evening one of Mr. Hopkins' lawyers discovered that in one of the Carbondale districts two votes had been cast for Register more than the total number in the ward. Mayor Ritten, of Carbondale, was telegraphed to get possession of the box and tipstaves were dispatched to bring it into court.

Saturday morning, when its contents were counted, the tie was broken and an error of one vote in favor of Koehler was found. The candidates and their attorneys then held a consultation and a compromise was effected. Mr. Koehler is to take the office, hire a deputy at $800 per year and divide the profits, which amount to nearly $5,000, between himself and Mr. Hopkins. Each agreed not to institute a contest nor pursue the count further.
