Quarterly meeting Conference at the A. M. E. church on the 24th and 25th inst. Preaching at 7:45 each evening by Rev. D. S. Bently, Presiding Elder. H. JOHNSON, Pastor.

Oh, this ringing in the ears!
Oh, this humming in the head!
Hawking, blowing, snuffing, gasping,
Watery eyes and throat a rasping,
Health impaired and comfort fled,
Till I would that I were dead!
What folly to suffer so with catarrhal troubles, when the worst cases of chronic catarrh in the head are relieved and cured by the mild, cleansing and healing properties of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It purifies the fowl breath, by removing the cause of offence, heals the sore and inflamed passages, and perfects a lasting cure.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Mrs. W. J. Bidleman died suddenly at her home Saturday evening of heart failure. She was about 57 years of age. She was a sister of Michael, William and Owen Eyerly. The deceased was an active member of the Lutheran church for over 40 years. She assisted in giving a turkey dinner at the old Presbyterian church Friday and Saturday evenings. Upon her return home late Saturday evening she complained of shortness of breath. Her husband went after a physician, but before his return she breathed her last. She leaves behind to mourn her loss, a husband and five daughters, four of whom are married. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, conducted by her late pastor Rev. P. A. Heilman. The church was filled with friends who were anxious to show their last tribute of respect to one who was faithful, and loved to work in the church to which she had so long been a member.
