A STIRRING BUSINESS.

Yes, a regular revolution business, in which one sale helps to make another. The people make us stir around to fill orders, and evidently believe we do a fair square business. Seeing we have such a large patronage too, convinces others they better try us, and so the trade increases. We're happy over it, and so are all our customers. The demand for our bread, cakes and candies (our own manufacture), is greater than ever, but we are ready to supply the demand. As the holidays are now coming on you will be thinking of Clear Toys. Give us a trial on these goods.

PAID $5,000 FOR TWO BRICKS.

An Ohio Farmer Thought They Were Gold, But They Turned Out to be Clay.
ALLIANCE, O., Nov. 14.—One of the most novel, curious and extremely well laid plans for fleecing money from credulous farmers has just been unfolded within a few miles of this city. The victim is Herbert Rose, one of the wealthiest farmers in this section, and that he should fall into the trap is the wonder of the community. The schemer gave his name as James McIntosh, and his home as Arizona. He gave out that he and an Indian were interested in a gold mine, and that he was in this section hunting for his uncle, whose name was Hubert Rose. He learned that he lived in Salem, and that he had recently moved to Ravenna. Going there, he was informed that he was dead.

Learning that Hubert Rose lived here, and being almost heartbroken over the loss of his uncle, he worked upon the sympathies of the unsuspecting farmer, who did not tumble until too late.

Gold bricks were shown him, which were tested and proved to be genuine. The schemer offered a third interest in the mine, and, furthermore, he would dispose of the two bricks, which he valued at $30,000, for $5,000.

Mr. Rose consented to interest himself in the mine and also take the bricks at that figure. A time was set for the transfer and at night, when the moon was shining bright, $5,000 were given for two bricks, not of gold, but of burned clay covered with brass.

Mr. Rose is a very much beat man and is using every means in his power to intercept the swindler. Unsuspecting farmers in Indiana and elsewhere in this State have been bitten by the same scheme. Mr. Rose feels satisfied that the nuggets were good gold and still believes that such was the case, a confederate changing them for worthless stuff after the test had been made.

A FOOLISH HEIRESS.

She Elopes With a Married Man and Loses a Legacy.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 14.—Rev. E. A. Devare, of Dayton, Ohio, is in this city searching for his pretty niece, who, he claims, eloped from Dayton two weeks ago with George Eis, a married man and the father of two children.

Lulu Devare, a pretty, sweet-faced girl of seventeen, lived with her grandmother, who has an elegant house on Detroit street, and is said to be possessed of a large fortune. Not long ago the old lady made a will and Lulu was designated as her sole heir. The fortune is said to amount to nearly $30,000 and the girl has about $40,000 in her own name in a Dayton bank.

Lulu met George Eis and fell in love with him. He proposed that they elope, and she consented. Two weeks ago last Tuesday they took a train for Franklin, Ohio. From there Miss Devare telegraphed to her uncle and grandmother, saying she would explain later. From Franklin they arrived here last Thursday and engaged rooms, giving their names as Mr. and Mrs. George W. Graham.

There they met Charles Burns, a young man who formerly resided in Dayton. Eis recognized Burns, and yesterday he and Miss Devare disappeared. This morning Mr. Devare swore out a warrant for the arrest of Eis, charging him with abduction. The grandmother has made a new will, leaving the girl entirely out, and the $40,000 in the Dayton Bank has been taken in charge by Miss Devare's guardian.

Black Diphtheria Devastating Ohio.

BATAVIA, Ohio, Nov. 14.—Black diphtheria in an unusually virulent form is epidemic at several points in Warren and Clermont counties. The disease first appeared at Hill's Station, in Warren county, and practically the whole village has the disease, the deaths averaging ninety-nine per cent. of the cases. Business is wholly suspended and the schools are closed. From Hill's Station the scourge spread in all directions, and fully 500 cases now exist. The death list is something frightful. Physicians are almost exhausted, and funeral processions are never out of sight. The epidemic is attributed to low water consequent upon the long drought.

Gov. Campbell at Donn Platt's Funeral.

WEST LIBERTY, O., Nov. 15.—Donn Platt was buried to-day at Mac-o-chee. The ceremony was the simple service of the Catholic Church, and the body was laid to rest in the family tomb without display, but the long line of carriages that followed the hearse to the grave told of the esteem in which he was held. The Rev. Father William Conway, of Bellefontaine, performed the obsequies. Archbishop Elder being unable to be present. Among the pall-bearers were Gov. Campbell, Col. Frank S. Bond, of New York; Gen. Henry M. Cist and Judge Moses F. Wilson, of Cincinnati.

Sixty-Nine Families Homeless.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Sixty-nine families were made homeless and $200,000 worth of property destroyed by a disastrous fire which broke out at No. 120 Nostrand avenue, Brooklyn, early yesterday morning. The fire soon extended to Nos. 122, 124 and 126 on one side, and 118, 116, 114, 112 and 110 on the other. They were all wrecked above the third story.

Big Fire in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 17.—The Famous dry goods, clothing, boot and shoe house, Sonnenfeld's millinery house and Penny & Gentile's dry goods house, on North Broadway, between Franklin avenue and Morgan street, were burned at 4 o'clock this morning. The loss will foot up over $1,000,000

A FORTUNE

Inherited by few, is pure blood, free from hereditary taint. Catarrh, consumption, rheumatism, Scrofula, and many other maladies born in the blood, can be effectually eradicated only by the use of powerful alteratives. The standard specific for this purpose—the one best known and approved—is Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the compound, concentrated extract of Honduras sarsaparilla, and other powerful alteratives.

several hundred dollars' expense, by using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and would strongly urge all who are troubled with lameness or rheumatic pains to give it a trial. I am sure it will do them permanent good, as it has done me."—Mrs. Joseph Wood, West Plattsburgh, N. Y.

Dr. J. W. Shields, of Smithville, Tenn., says: "I regard Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood medicine on earth, and know of many wonderful cures effected by its use."

"For many years I was laid up with Scrofula, no treatment being of any benefit. At length I was recommended to give Ayer's Sarsaparilla a trial. I did so, and about a dozen bottles, was restored to perfect health—weighing 230 pounds—and am now a believer in the merits of Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—James Petsy, Mine Boss, Breckenridge Coal Co. (Limited), Victoria, Ky.

By Taking

"My niece, Sarah A. Loeue, was for years afflicted with scrofulous humor in the blood. About 18 months ago she began to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and after taking three bottles was completely cured."—E. Caffait, P. M., Loeue, Utah.

Castoria. "Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ANCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it." UNITED HOSPITAL AND DISPENSARY, Boston, Mass. ALLEN C. SMITH, Pres.

Castoria. "Castoria is an excellent medicine for children, and I am repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children." Dr. G. C. OSOON, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves." "Seeing is Believing."
And a good lamp

must be simple; when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. All metal, tough and seamless, and made in three pieces only, it is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's of old, it is indeed a "wonderful lamp," for its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light and more cheerful than either.

Look for this lamp—THE ROCHESTER. If the lamp dealer has not the genuine Rochester, and the style you want, send us for our new illustrated catalogue, and we will send you a lamp safely by express—your choice of over 2,000 varieties from the Largest Lamp Store in the World.

THROUGH FLOOD TO SAFETY.

Fifty Miners Almost Literally Within an Inch of Losing Their Lives.
SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 13.—About 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the great pumps that cast out thousands of gallons of water from the Leggett's Creek coal mine broke, and the mine began to flood. Fifty miners hurried in great alarm to reach the carriage which conveys them to the surface. They found that their avenue of escape had been cut off. The only other way to reach the surface was to face the raging waters, pass through them, and reach a narrow passage way which led to the shaft of the Von Storen mine.

With stern faces the miners waded into the water, which grew deeper every step. Soon it reached their knees, then their hips, and then their shoulders, but still they went on. To turn back meant death; ahead was hope of safety. For a thousand feet the men trudged on with the water up to their necks. Soon they were compelled to throw their heads sideways. With one ear in the sulphur water, and occasionally gulping in the water as they breathed, they steadily strove to reach safety hundreds of yards away.

John Jones, a Welsh miner, finally despaired and asked the others to go on and leave him to perish, but they would not and assisted him along. Suddenly one of the men found his shoulders rising above the water, and five minutes later all were on dry land.

LOMBARD'S PROFITLESS SCHEME.

New York State Banks Were Apparently His Intended Victims.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Nov. 13.—A man, representing himself as William Lombard, cashier of the Wheatland (Cal.) Bank, was arrested here to-day charged with attempting to defraud several New York State banks out of sums varying in amount from $2,500 to $5,000.

His plan, as stated, was to forge checks on the Wheatland Bank, and deposit them in banks in this State—$3,500 in Cattaraugus, $5,000 in Herkimer, $3,500 in Poland, $2,500 in New Berlin, and $3,500 in Attica. Then each of these banks was notified by letter that Lombard had transferred his account to a specified bank in this city.

Lombard arrived here on Wednesday night and registered to the best hotel in the city. He presented a draft at the Susquehanna Valley Bank, which was sent to Cattaraugus and returned. The police were notified, and answers to telegrams sent in every direction prove the man to be a fraud, it is said. In his satchel was a book containing a list of every bank in the country.

He fought hard against being photographed, and the police twisted his wrists with nippers until the blood came before he would open his eyes. His right name is believed to be Charles M. Morton.

STOLE $6,000 AND ELOPED.

A Farmer's Hired Man Skips With His Sweetheart and Employer's Money.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 13.—Killing-erstown is a pretty village in the Blue Ridge Mountains, not far north of this city, and Mary Fletcher was known for miles around as one of its prettiest maidens. For more than a year Charles Clifton Ford has been devoting himself to her. Each was vivacious and popular. A few mornings ago, when the sturdy farmers and villagers arose, word was passed around that Mary and Charles were missing and $6,000 of Farmer John H. Weist's cash had also disappeared. Ford has worked for Farmer Weist for almost ten years. He frequently made trips through the mountains collecting money for Weist, who is wealthy.

Ford had made arrangements for another trip of this kind. On Tuesday night he hitched Weist's fast horse to his best buggy. Before saying good-by he put his hands in Weist's safe and transferred $6,000 into his pocket. He drove to the Fletcher house, secured the object of his love, and they drove to Frackville, where they took the cars. The next morning Mr. Weist received word that if he wanted his horse and buggy he would find them in Frackville. Nothing has since been heard of the elopers.

WILL LIVE TO SPITE HIS FAMILY.

Mr. Coleman Now Hatches in the Coffin He Bought for Himself.

WAYNESBURG, Pa., Nov. 13.—Joshua Coleman, a rich Green County farmer, had a presentiment that his death was near at hand. He made his will and had a coffin sent to his home. The members of his family didn't grieve enough over the prospect of his death to suit Coleman, and in his wrath he resolved to live in order to spite them. He has had the coffin lined with zinc and now uses it for a bathtub.
