

ESTABLISHED 1856. The Columbia Democrat, ESTABLISHED 1857. CONSOLIDATED 1863. PUBLISHED BY ELWELL & BITTENBENDER EVERY FRIDAY MORNING At Bloomsburg, the County seat of Columbia County, Pennsylvania.

SUBSCRIPTIONS—$1.00 a year, in advance, $1.50 if not paid in advance. All communications should be addressed to THE COLUMBIAN, Bloomsburg, Pa. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1891.

Sudden deaths appear to be on the increase. One can scarcely pick up a daily paper without seeing the announcement of several such deaths. Usually the doctors attribute this to "heart failure." What is any death but heart failure? When the heart stops beating, death ensues at once, no matter what the disease.

William J. Florence, the celebrated actor, died at the Continental Hotel in Philadelphia, last week Thursday. He had been playing with Joe Jefferson for several seasons, and was attacked with pneumonia while filling an engagement with him. He has been prominent on the stage for thirty years or more, and had a host of friends and admirers.

The Philadelphia Inquirer, organ of the "Constitutionalist-unconstitutional" politicians, continues to enlarge on the expenditures of the session of the Senate, placing the cost at $50,000. But it omits to mention the fact that the Senate wasted $40,000 out of that $50,000, by going on and taking testimony on a subject which it subsequently declares to be beyond its jurisdiction.—Pittsburg Dispatch, Rep.

Many people suffer for years from trouble-some and repulsive sores, boils and eruptions, without ever testing the marvelous curative properties of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The experiment is, certainly, worth trying. Be sure you get Ayer's Sarsaparilla and no other.

Hon. Silas M. Clark, one of the Justices of the State Supreme Court, died at his home in Indiana county last Friday night. He was a man of affable manner, courtly bearing, and great legal ability. No Judge upon the bench more thoroughly possessed the confidence and respect of the bar and the people. His successor will be appointed by Governor Pattison, to serve until a year from next January. The names of Judge Bucher of Lewisburg, Judge Baer of Somerset, and several others have been mentioned in connection with the place.

An effort is being made to boom Philadelphia, and to instill new life and vigor into it. On a recent visit to that city we were forcibly reminded of the fact that even the railroad companies look upon the City of Brotherly Love as a way-station on their lines. As we reached the city a brakeman entered the car and cried out, "Broad street station, change cars for New York." When one arrives at New York he does not hear the brakemen cry out "change cars for Philadelphia," and when one reaches Chicago he is not told to "change cars for Omaha." The railroad companies are doing as much as anything else to put Philadelphia in the light of a way station, instead of the third city of the Union. Our Quaker friends want to get on to the transportation lines and induce them to stop this sort of thing.

Has Shirked the Issue. The Senate has not acted with fairness or justice to the people of the Commonwealth, or to Mr. Boyer, or to Mr. McCamant. It has simply evaded a duty imposed upon it by the Constitution of 1873, which clearly provided for the removal of certain elected officers for "reasonable cause," on address of the Senate, as well as for their removal by impeachment for misdemeanor in office. The Governor did his duty when he called the Senate together in extra session; he gave that body the opportunity to exercise a power conferred upon it by the Constitution; that it has shirked the issue need be no concern of the Governor any more than of other law-abiding citizens of the Commonwealth, who are shamed and disgraced by the subserviency of the Senate of Pennsylvania to the supposed demands of partisan policy.—Ledger.

A New Ruling. The Post-office Department has issued orders that hereafter circulars having anything printed on them by a rubber stamp will have to be prepaid as first-class matter. The order is on the principle that a stamp is nothing more or less than writing from the fact that it is used as a pen is used, and the legend it produces is as individual as those of a pen.

Some favor a tariff for revenue only, some a tariff with incidental protection and some a tariff for protection, per se; but a large majority favor the free use of Silvan Oil for cuts and bruises. An endless chain of certificates verify the excellence of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Price 25 cents.

Official Figures FROM SIXTY-SIX COUNTIES OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

The department of state has received official returns from every county in the Commonwealth except Venango. They show that there was a remarkably large vote out for an off year. The total vote cast in sixty-six counties was, for auditor general, 784,772, and for state treasurer, 785,423, to which may be added about 5,000 votes for Venango county, making, in round numbers, 790,000 in all. At the election for state treasurer in 1889 but 644,042 votes were cast.

General Gregg's plurality is 58,729, to which may be added 772 from Venango, a total of 59,501. Captain Morrison's plurality is 53,307; with Venango's 481, 53,788. The prohibition candidates failed to poll three per cent. of the total vote cast as required by the Baker ballot reform bill to entitle the party to have its tickets for the next election printed at public expense. To secure this free printing it will be necessary to furnish what is to be known as nominating papers, which must have signatures equal to one-half of one per cent. of the highest vote cast for a successful candidate at the preceding election. These papers will therefore require about 2,100 signatures.

The constitutional convention was snowed under, receiving, in the sixty-six counties given but 172,401 out of a total of 588,834 votes cast. Two hundred thousand voters failed to cast a ballot either way on this question.

The official vote by counties is given below:

Table with columns: COUNTY, AUDITOR, STATE TREASURER, CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. Lists counties from Adams to York with corresponding vote counts.

Catarrh

Is a complaint so common that comparatively few people are entirely free from it, so insidious that it gains a firm hold almost before its victims are aware of its presence, so dangerous as to seriously threaten the general health, and liable to develop into bronchitis or consumption.

It is a mistake to consider Catarrh merely a local trouble. It is unquestionably a disease of the blood, and therefore the right way to cure Catarrh is to remove from the blood the impurities which cause and feed it. This is to be done by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, which effectually expels all traces of poison and germs of disease.

and have never received the least benefit from the many so-called catarrh cures. Of late I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and can honestly say that I am certainly improved. I know Hood's Sarsaparilla to be a good medicine." H. A. GEORGE, Athol, Mass.

Stuffed-up Feeling. "For years I have been troubled with that terrible disagreeable disease, Catarrh. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla with the very best results. It cured me of that continual dropping in my throat, and stuffed-up feeling." Mrs. S. D. HEATH, Putnam, Conn.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Is the best blood purifier, the best nerve helper, the best strength builder. Try it. HOOD'S PILLS—For the liver and bowels, act easily, promptly, efficiently. Price 25c.

DISSOLUTION NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given, that the partnership lately subsisting between G. E. Yorks and A. B. Herring, of Central Columbia county, Pennsylvania, under the firm of Yorks & Herring, was dissolved on the ninth day of November, by mutual consent and agreement. All debts owing to the said partnership are to be received by said A. B. Herring, and all demands on the said partnership are to be presented to and paid by him. A. B. HERRING, Nov. 9, 1891. C. E. YORKS.

The undersigned will continue the store business at the old stand of Yorks & Herring. A. B. HERRING.

All back—every cent you've paid for it, if it doesn't benefit or cure you. A medicine that promises this is one that promises to help you.

But there's only one medicine of its kind that can and does promise it. It's Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's the guaranteed remedy for all Blood, Skin and Scalp Diseases, from a common blotch or eruption to the worst scrofula. It cleanses, purifies, and enriches the blood, invigorates the system, and cures Salt-rheum, Tetter, Eczema, Erysipelas and all manner of blood-taints from whatever cause. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence.

It's the best blood-purifier, and it's the cheapest, no matter how many doses are offered for a dollar—for you pay only for the good you get. Nothing else is "just as good" as the "Discovery." It may be better—for the dealer. But he wants money and you want help.

Better Men for Law Makers

William A. Wallace, who has been a member of the lower House of the Pennsylvania Legislature, several times State Senator, United States Senator for six years, and twice a strong competitor for the Democratic nomination for Governor, in an interview in a Pittsburg newspaper declares that he would like very much to go back to the lower House of the Legislature during the next term. This is the kind of frank statement that often comes from Mr. Wallace.

His object is explained with equal frankness. He desires to be in the Legislature to do what he can to secure for the voters of Pennsylvania a satisfactory ballot system and to provide something that would act as a screen between the illiterate and the ballot. He believes the State is absolutely suffering from the flood of illiteracy that is coming in upon it from other countries. He favors compelling foreigners to read and write before they are allowed to become voters. This he regards as a remedy for some of the dangers threatening the larger States.

Without going into the merits of Mr. Wallace's proposition, which is one that is not new with him, it is desirable to encourage the presence in the Legislature of men of his ability and experience. Mr. Wallace should have no great difficulty in getting elected to the House. It is a very worthy ambition. He lives in a strongly Democratic county which has two members, and it is hardly probable that the Clearfield Democrats would begrudge him one of the places. They would do themselves a wrong if they did, in view of the very ordinary kind of material they have recently sent to represent them.

It would be a most excellent advancement if both parties would conclude now, for it is none too early, to nominate for the Legislature men of more substantial character, ability, and loftier purposes than is generally done. The intention should be made general so that the whole tone of the Legislature can be improved as it shall be. Many of the members, and particularly many from the large cities, are a disgrace to the constituencies which they do not really represent, but which are responsible for them just the same. These men are totally unfit for their duties, and serve no purpose in the Legislature but to bring that body into popular contempt.

This is partly due to machine methods in both parties, and is primarily the fault of the people, who are too indifferent at a time when they should be much interested. Another drawback is in the fact that men who ought to be in the Legislature do not generally seek election. They ought to pattern after the frankness of Mr. Wallace and announce themselves, and the people ought to go after them and bring them out. To be a member of the Legislature is a very proper and worthy desire on the part of anyone fit for the duty. It should be encouraged in every district in the State.

There is no more responsible trust in the public service than that of the lawmaking power. And yet the people in many districts allow it to fall into the hands of men who are ignorant or corrupt and have no knowledge whatever of what is required of them. There is no better time than the present to resolve upon a change.—Exchange.

We are having a big stationery run, and yet there is nothing stationary about it. This seeming paradox is a plain fact, and is due to our affixing very low prices to very high grade goods.

The goods in the picture are walking off themselves, but not nearly so rapidly as our customers are walking off with books, stationery, school supplies, wall paper, pictures, etc., at the old established store of
