To Prevent Frozen Feet.

In cold weather never wear a woolen stocking inside a thin tight shoe. To do is to invite frozen feet, says The Ladies' Home Journal. The wool grows damp and clammy with insensible perspiration, the shoe pinches the bloodvessels into sluggish torpor. Beware when you have a frozen foot almost before you know it. Much better put a thin silk, hislethead or cotton stocking next to the foot, and draw the woolen one on outside the shoe. With arctics over the stockings, you can defy Jack Frost, if you are shod like Cinderella herself.

WITHOUT KNIFE OR FIRE.

Mrs. S. E. Carmichael, a prominent citizen of Henrietta, Texas, writes: "I wish to tell you what Swift's Specific has done for my wife. Several years ago there appeared a spot on the corner of her nose which gradually increased in size, and became quite painful; on washing her face it would frequently bleed. The doctors called it cancer, and advised that it be removed by the knife or burning, stating that it never would do to neglect it. My wife refused to have it cut or burned, but at the same time it continued to grow worse. After a time she commenced taking S. S. S., which effected an entire cure. She used a half dozen small sized bottles. We think there is no medicine in the world that will equal Swift's Specific, and we would like for all sufferers to know the benefit she has received from it."
S. S. S. cures blood diseases of this character by forcing out the poisonous germs and the poison also. A valuable book on blood and skin diseases will be mailed to all applicants free. Address:

WINDOM'S LAST WORDS:

"As poison in the blood permeates arteries, veins, nerves, organs, etc." His might be added, therefore purify the blood, tone the heart, and vitalize the system, to restore health. Cactus Blood Cure is the one only vegetable compound known able to neutralize and eliminate from the system the taints of scrofula and specific disease. No rival, no inferior, no failure.

ULLIE AKERSTROM.

Winsome little Ullie Akerstrom made her first appearance in this city at the Grand opera house last evening, and was greeted by a large and appreciative audience. As "A Little Busybody," she captured the hearts of all, as was clearly shown by the applause that greeted her every effort. Her dancing was the most lithe and graceful that Pittsburghers have had the pleasure of witnessing for a long time.

Miss Akerstrom has a sweet, musical voice, which, though not very strong, is capable of reaching with perfect distinctness the remotest portions of the theatre. Her elocutionary powers were well exhibited in the recitations she so ably rendered, and the round of applause that followed demonstrated the appreciation of the audience. Her style of acting is peculiarly her own, and her quaint and captivating manner pleasing in the extreme.

The quartet is deserving of mention for the excellent manner in which their selections were rendered. Altogether the support was very good.—Pittsburgh Times, Sept. 7, 1891.
