THE NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Telegraphic Notes of Interest Briefly Told.

HERE, THERE AND EVERYWHERE.

Small but Nutritious-The News of the World From Pole to Pole Carefully Cuiled and Belled Down for Busy Readers Throughout the Country.

Thursday, Nov. 26.

A malignant case of genuine leprosy has been discovered at Clare, Mich. The private bank of S. Peters, Pool & Co., of Bradford, Pa., closed its doors on Wednesday.

The date of the annual encamp-ment of the G. A. R. at Washington has been fixed for June 25, 1892.

The plant of the Dallas (Tex.) Dressed Beef Company was destroyed by fire Wednesday. Damage $200,000. of the order. The Texas State Alliance, in session at Corsicana, has condemned the action of the Supreme Council at Indianapolis, and proposed to sever connection with the "de facto Na-tional Alliance."

The Post office at Putnam, N. Y., was entered by burglars Tuesday night and robbed of stamps and change.

The wife of Henry Graves, of Scran-ton, Pa., killed herself with poison Tuesday because her husband came home drunk.

Inventor Edison is modifying the phonograph in order that it may re-place the raised letter system of reading for the blind.

The First National Bank of Wil-mington, N. C., closed its doors Wed-nesday until further notice. The deposits amount to $405,000 and the capital stock $250,000.

Robert Lyons, a butcher, was mys-teriously murdered in his shop in Cherry street, New York, Wednesday, Michael Sliney, his friend, has been arrested on suspicion.

Two more appeals have been filed in the Searles will case, by Bennie C. Severance of Los Angeles, Cal., and Lyman Sherwood and Delia Sher-wood of Putnam county, N. Y.

Sarah Tilton, eighty-nine, who died at Lynn, Mass., Wednesday, took part in a battle with a British ship in the war of 1812, and was for nine months a prisoner of the English. Harry B. Denny, aged fifty-five, employed in the Government Printing Office at Washington son of the late

Office at Washington, son of the late H. B. Denny, a well known news-ar man of Ohio, was found dead in his room yesterday morning suffo-cated by escaping gas.

While Farmer Abner Wilson was seining for fish in a creek that runs through his farm, near St. Joseph, Mo., on Sunday, he brought up an old coffee pot containing $5, $10 and $20 gold pieces, amounting to $670. None bore a later date than 1857.

Judgments aggregating $15,000 were entered Wednesday against J. Cohn, a large clothing and shoe dealer at Hollidaysburg, Pa. Cohn also owns stores at Hazelton, Houtzdale and other cities which are wrecked by the other cities, which are wrecked by the failure. The liabilities are placed at $60,000 and the assets $20,000.

Friday, Nov. 37.

Grand Army posts all over Kansas have indersed Commander in Chief Palmer's Confederate flag order.

Fannie Davenport, the actress, has closed a contract for 380 acres of land in Fulton's Canyon, Orange county, Cal.

The thermometer at Winnepeg for the past few days has varied between twelve and seventeen degrees below zero.

Saturday, Nov. 38.

A switching engine ran into a street car in the town of Lake, near Chicago, Thursday afternoon. Nine passengers in the street car were seriously burned

any difference with the membership

Henry Stratton, the faster.

The Ebenezer Presbyterian Church, of Ebenezer, Pa., celebrated the one hundredth anniversary of it sorganiza-tion Friday. The church building, which was erected 100 years ago, still stands by the side of a new brick church building.

Henry M. Munroe has brought a

A locomotive belonging to the Cleveland, Akron and Columbia Railroad Company exploded about a mile south of Akron, O., Friday morning, The body of Engineer John Byron was found 600 yards south of the track, while that of his fireman, George Parker, was 200 feet north. Both had been instantly killed.

leg was taken off, and then the body was drawn under the wheels in such

Monday, Nov. 39.

The Apaches are again on the war

The fiftieth anniversary of the consecration of Archbishop Kenrick of St. Louis was celebrated on Sunday.

Four shocks of earthquake, each lasting about five seconds, were felt at Seattle, Wash., Sunday afternoon.

Farmers Joseph Wolff and John Miller, of Wapakoneta, O., fought with axes over a line fence Saturday.

S. Glensor, who is supposed to be in a way that it was cut in two.

path in Arizona.

Both will die.

by the car stove.

Junius P. Slach, a Washington po-liceman, who was stabbed by his neighbor, C. H. Meyers, Wednesday, died on Friday. The Mississippi at Galena, Ill., is frozen solidly from shore to shore. Gov. Buchanan, of Tennessee has determined that the escaped convicts Walter Winters, an engineer on the Texas and Pacific Railroad, was killed shall be returned to the mines. At midnight Monday night the Champlain, Black River, Oswego and by jumping from his engine while approaching a burning bridge, near Fort Worth, Friday. Cayuga canals were closed officially for the winter. Gen. Benj. F. Butler is seriously ill at his home in Lowell, Mass., and it is feared that he will never leave the house again alive.

Tuesday, Dec. 1.

Mrs. Delia Parnell is going back to Ireland with her son, John Howard Parnell, who has come into possession of the Parnell estate in County Wick-

George P. Blackburn, of West New-ton, Pa., a former member of the State Legislature, has been arrested for alleged issuing of bogus tax re-ceipts to voters at the recent election. Mrs. Anna Lyons of 227 West Sixty-third street, New York, was burned to death, Monday, while trying to thaw out a water pipe with burning Officers of the Knights of Labor at Philadelphia do not think the refusal of the General Assembly at Toledo to institute a uniformed rank will make paper.

The Chicago Times started a Presi-dential boom for General Nelson A. Miles yesterday with half a page of the history of his life and military services.-

The First National Bank of Dam-ariscotta, Me., which has been closed since the suspension of the Maverick Bank in Boston, resumed business vesterday.

Christian K. Ross, of Philadelphia, father of the missing Charlie Ross, says there is nothing in the story from Cortland, N. Y., that his son had lived there as the adopted son of G. John Craven, twenty-six years old, a truck driver, was sentenced to State Prison for seven years by Judge Fitzgerald in New York for killing Arthur Measal, a eleven year old boy, some months ago.

Henry E. Marcham committed suicide Sunday night by taking Paris green, in a barn on the outskirts of Meriden, Conn. A suit for divorce brought by his wife preyed heavily upon his mind.

suit against Dr. Keeley and his gold-cure company at Dwight, Ill., to re-cover $150 paid to Keeley for services A fireman on the Hudson River railroad was killed Monday evening. He accidentally fell off the cab near Scarborough, and another train came along and struck him. He was about thirty years old.

in treating the plaintiff for dipso-mania, and another suit to recover $12,000 damages for injuring his health by the treatment. Commander-in-Chief John Palmer of the Grand Army of the Republic is in receipt of many communications favoring the purchase of Mount Mc-Gregor, where General Grant died, for a home for consumptive soldiers.

> A span of a bridge on the Great Northern Railroad extension at Kalispell, Mont., fell Monday, taking down with it fifteen men. Five men were killed and the other ten injured. Some of the injured may die. The fall was 150 feet, John Ellis, an engineer on the Dela-ware and Hudson road, was killed Thursday night by his locomotive at Binghamton, N. Y. He had been oil-ing the piston rod and gave his fire-man the signal to start up. In at-tempting to climb into the cab Eilis missed the step and fell. The right log was taken off, and then the body William N. Johnson, who was ar-rested in Jersey City Saturday night, for embezzling two years ago $12,000 from his uncle, William H. Harney, a prominent real estate broker, was committed for trial Monday in default of $2,000 bail.

Mrs. Mary McVay, of Braddock, Pa. died Monday after having volun-tarily fasted 150 days. She was nearly seventy years of age and had for mix months been suffering from cancer of the lower jaw, and had steadfastly re-fused all food and drink except but-termilk termilk.

A four-story block at Market and Andrew streets, Lynn, Mass., was burned Saturday night. Loss, $80,000. Will Perry, one of the half dozen men arrested at Denver, on suspicion of being the robbers who held up a Rio Grande express two months ago, has confessed. He told where the booty was hidden, and officers who went to the spot described found the stolen property, valued at $6,000.

Wednesday, Dec. 2.

Walter Hyman, aged eleven years, ceidentally shot and killed his baby

RELIABLE CLOTHING AND HAT HOUSE

Comes to the front with the LARGEST ASSORTMENT,

-AND-

MAKING AND FITTING

: OF THE .:

Best, the Newest and Most Stylish, Lowest in Price; and to prove Satisaction is our Endeavor

The best value for Money is to buy your

Clothing, Hats, Shirts, Neckwear, Trunks and Valises of

GI. MAIER,

Corner of Main and Centre Streets, BLOOMSBURG, PA.

UNEXCELLED CLOTHING MADE TO ORDER.

Largest Clothing and Hat House in Columbia and Montour Counties.

MATTING,

ALEXANDER BROTHERS & CO. DEALERS IN

Cigars, Tobacco, Candies, Fruits and Nuts SOLE AGENTS FOR

Henry Maillard's Fine Candies. Fresh Every Week. PENNY GOODS & SPECIALTY.

SOLE AGENTS FOR

F. F. Adams & Co's Fine Cut Chewing Tobacco Sole agents for the following brands of Cigars:

Henry Clay, Londres, Normal, Indian Princess, Samson, Silver Ash.

Bloomsburg, Pa.

IF YOU ARE IN NEED OF

CARPET,

or OIL CLOTH,

YOU WILL FIND A NICE LINE AT

THOMAS GORREY. CONTRACTOR and BUILDER.

Plans and Estimates on all kinds of buildings. Repairing and carpenter work promptly attended to.

Dealer in Builder's Supplies.

Inside Hardwood finishes a specialty.

Persons of limited means who desire to build can pay part and secure balance by mortgages $3000 have been any latty intelligent persons of either, there is a state of the st Tear in their own localities, wherever they live, i will also formish the situation or employment at which you can earn that among to money for our unless successful as above. Easily and quickly learned. I desire but one worker trans each district or county. I have already institut and provided with employment a large tumber, who are making over $1000 s year each. It's NEW and SOLID, Foll particulars PREFE. Address at once, E. C. ALLEN, Box $200, Augusts, Muine.

A fire at St. Albans, Vt., on Thursday, destroyed eight business build-ings and the Congregational Church. Loss, $100,000.

Railway traffic has been delayed by a heavy drifting snowstorm in Northern and Western Minnesota. The snow is a foot deep on a level.

The Rev. Mr. Babbitt of the Methodist Church of Stratford, Conn., has just finished painting the church with paint purchased by subscription.

The Norwegian bark Anna has been wrecked on Anticosti Island, in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. The crew was rescued and sheltered in the lighthouse.

A runaway freight train telescoped another freight train standing on the track near Morden, Manitoba, on Wednesday night. Brakeman Frazier was killed.

James Hanley, aged twenty-five years, stabbed his brother, Patrick, aged sixteen, at Thomaston, Conn., Wednesday night during a quarrel. Patrick will die.

An epidemic of scarlet fever has attacked the thriving village of Colchester, Conn. There are a large number of cases, and the authorities are taking action to prevent further spread of the disease.

Mrs. Johanna Gossmeyler, aged forty-five, of No. 685 Columbus avenue, New York, prepared her Thanksgiving dinner, on Thursday, placed the turkey, steaming hot, upon the table, and then hanged herself in her bedroom.

Charles Jones, manager of the Postal Telegraph office, in Elmira, N. Y., was probably fatally shot Thursday evening, by Bort Vincent, a fifteen-year-old boy, at the instigation of his mother. Mrs. Vincent and her son were arrested were arrested.

John N. Huber & Son's glass works on Morgan avenue, Willfamsburg, N. Y., were destroyed by fire Thursday morning. The loss on building and stock was $50,000. This is said to be the sixth mysterious fire in that neighborhood within a week.

The National officials of the United Mine-Workers at Terre Haute, Ind., Thursday formally indorsed the miners' strike in Indiana and voted the strikers financial aid. The Miners' Convention decided to send a circular to all the miners in the United States asking for their financial support in the struggle.

Canada, is said to have left Boston with $18,000, collected from the "People's United Legion." John A. Pizzini, an old newspaper man, died at Richmond yesterday. He was fifty-nine years old, and was at one time Vice-Consul to Italy.

Forty thousand Hebrews from Russia have been forwarded to North and South America through German ports since June 1, as is shown by official returns.

Mrs. Mouk, of Metamora, Ill., left her two children aged three and four alone while she went to a church. They played with fire and both were burned to death.

Baron Whatredge and Godfrey Haver fought over a girl at White Points, Ohio, Friday. Haver was whipped, and then he shot his opponent, wounding him fatally.

The Canadian Government has granted a warrant for the extradition of Hong Yuen, a Chinamen now in Victoria, B. C., who is wanted in San Francisco for the embezzlement of $20,000.

A. S. Froman accused William Rivers of killing his dog at Weatherford, Texas, Saturday. Both men had shotguns, and the double funeral will take place as soon as the coroner's jury completes its work.

Chicago enterprise has found a new field in the purchase of Texas goats, which are shipped to Chicago and sold as sheep. The first consignment of 247 goats, which is now here, will be doled out to the patrons of cheap restaurants as mutton.

A heavy snow-storm is reported from various points in North Carolina, Sunday, At Weldon seven inches of snow fell; Battleboro, six inches; Rocky Mount, five inches. Snow fell all along the line of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad.

The grain elevator of the "Soo" line in Escanaba, Mich., and flour warehouses, docks and coal pits, in-cluding 200,000 bushels of wheet, 12,-000 barrels of flour and 40,000 tons of coal, owned by the Lehigh Valley Coal Company, were destroyed by fire Saturday. The total loss will reach $300,000.

The south bound passenger train on the South Carolina Bailway, with 200 passengers aboard, was wrecked twenty miles north of Charleston, S. C., at 10 o'clock Saturday night. Parks, the fireman, was buried under the tender and crushed to death. Baggagemaster Anderson, express messenger Pierson, and three passengers were seriously injured.

brother Tuesday night in Franklin, N. J.

The number of Gilbert Island na-tives lost in the brig Tahiti, in the Pacific, will reach near 400, it is now stated.

The annual Convention of the National Association of Barbers at Jackson, Mich., will consider how the tencent shops can be induced to come up to the standard price of fifteen cents for a shave.

Charles Busow, who narrowly escaped lynching by a mob in Indianapolis for his assault on a little girl was sentenced to twenty-one years' imprisonment Tuesday, and taken to Michigan City Penitentiary.

Nelson W. Decker, once a brilliant Acts on W. Decker, once a offinant actor and personal friend of Edwin Booth, died Tuesday in the Edwin Forrest Home at Holmesburg near Philadelphia. He was a native of New York and fifty years old.

The Protectory Building, connected with the Convent of the Sisters of Mercy, two miles north of Newburgh, N. Y., burned to the ground Tuesday morning. There were 240 children sleeping in the building, but all got out safely.

Martin Knapp, a veteran politician and journalist of Rockland county, N. Y. died in the Almshouse at Viola, N. Y., Monday, aged seventy-two. His writings under the name of "Samson Broadaxe" have been known for many years.

George E. Barr, a well-known citi-zen and proprietor of the Hotel Warwick, in Springfield, Mass., shot his wife dead late Monday night, and then killed himself. Trouble over money matters is supposed to have been the cause.

William C. Allison, President of the Allison Car Manufacturing Company, is dead at Philadelphia, in his seventyfifth year. He was a well-known philanthropist, his gifts to Dickinson College and the Young Men's Christian Association having been munificent.

T. A. Brady, station agent, on the Atlantic and Pacific Railway at Win-gate, Ariz., was held up and robbed by two masked men at 7.30 o'clock on Sunday night. A passenger train had just left when the men came into the depot, and presenting two revolvers demanded all the valuables and money in the place. They were ac-commodated with about $1,000 in cash belonging to Wells Fargo Express Company and the agents gold watch.

W. H. BROWER'S

2nd Door above Court House.

A large lot of Window Curtains in stock.

HOLIDAY FURNITURE NOVELTIES.

The extensive improvements in our Furniture Warerooms are completed and they are now not only among the largest, but among the finest in the State. All are invited to see our great HOLIDAY DISPLAY. Ornament combined with best utility. Onyx Tables, Fancy Writing Desks, Secre-taries, Book Cases, Cabinets, Sideboards, China Cupboards, etc., etc. Reed Chairs and Rockers, finished in gold, copper, bronze, old brass, green and gold, white and gold, antique and XVIth century. Upholstered goods of marvelous elegance, novel styles. Draperies of exquisite textures and colorings. Every variety of Furniture, to the plainest that is reliable.

11.

TTF1

German's Barred Rocks.

A few choice cockerels for

W. B. GERMAN,

AGENTS send for How I Made a

Millville, Pa.

VOORHIS & MURRAY, 13 & 15 W. Market St. WILKES-BARRE.

BREAKFAST.

BREAKFAST. "By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Occoa. Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a deli-cately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judielous use of such articles of dict that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maiadies are floatling around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. Ve may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping our-selves well fortified with pure blood and a prop-eriy nourished frame."-Civil Service Gasette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in hall pound tins, by grocers, labelled thus: JAMES RFPE & CO., Homoeopathic and 1.50 a piece. One choice one, early hatched, price $2.50 if taken soon.

JAMES RPPS & CO., Homoeopathic Chemists, London, England.

Caveats and Trade Marks obtained, and all Patent business conducted for MODERATE FEES. OUR OFFICE IS OFFOSITE THE U. S. PAT-ENT OFFICE. We have no sub-agencies, all business direct, hence can transact patent busi-ness in less time and at Less Cost than those re-mote from Washington. Send model, drawing or photo, with descrip-tion. We advise if patentable or hot, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured A book, "now to Obtain Patents," with refer-nces to actual clients in your State, county, or town, sent free. Address C. A. SNOW & Co., Washington, D. C. (Opposite U. S. Patent Office.)

We will $900. Salary and commission to Men PAT $000. Salary and women Teachers and Clerkymen to sell our NEW POPULAR StANDARD WORK,

Marvels of The New West-

No finer block published. Over 350 choice en-gravings. 10,400 copies sold in one week. En-dorsed by the greatest men of the country. This is no humbug offer.

Write at Once FOR PARTICULARS IN The Henry Bill Publishing Co., Norwich, Conn. 10-9 3.m.

