Did you ever count up how much you pay for lamp chimneys? There are about twelve million families of us. We average, maybe, a lamp a family; chimneys break, perhaps, at the rate of one a week a lamp. Six hundred million chimneys a year for the ash barrels. Suppose they cost ten cents a piece on the average; that's enough to half pay the nation's debt. Nine-tenths of it waste. If you get Macbeth's "Pearl-top" or "Pearl-glass" you will pay a trifle more apiece, but not one-tenth as much a year. Disreputable chimney makers are trying to furnish the dealers with cheap imitations. They break from heat, ruin the temper of the household and fill the ash barrels; a plague and a nuisance. Insist on having the right kind. Pittsburgh, Pa. GEO. A. MACBETH & CO.

The monthly meeting of the school board of the Bloomsburg School District, was held in the public library last Friday evening, December 11th, the directors, with all the teachers and janitors, being present. After the teachers had signed their reports, and they with janitors received their monthly salary, they retired and the directors attended to the needed work of the district. Attention was called to the dangerous condition of iron railing around the high school grounds and committee on buildings and grounds instructed to have it repaired. The principal's report was read showing progress in the schools. Books for supplementary reading were ordered and Williams & Rogers Theoretical and Practical Book Keeping for high schools, adopted. The committee on course of instruction were directed to confer with the principal of the Normal School in regard to procuring the services of Prof. Butts to give a few hours instructions each week in music to the high school. The next meeting will be held Friday evening January 22, 1892.

YOUR COUGH

Has not yielded to the various remedies you have been taking. It troubles you day and night, breaks your rest and reduces your strength. Now try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, before the bronchial tubes become enlarged or the delicate tissues of the lungs sustain fatal injury. As an anodyne and expectorant, this preparation has no equal. It soothes the irritated membrane, promotes expectoration, and induces repose. The worst cough by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Dr. J. C. Gordon, Carroll Co., Va., writes: "I use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my practice, and pronounce it to be unequalled as a remedy for colds and coughs." "After the gripe—cough. This was my experience—a hacking, dry cough, with an incessant tickling in the throat, keeping me awake nights, and disturbing the household. I tried a great number of 'cough-cures,' but they gave me only temporary relief. At last I concluded to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and before I had used half a bottle, I had my first all-night sleep. I continued to improve, and now consider myself cured."

Can Be Cured

By Using

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, many have been saved from fatal illness. E. D. Estabrooks, Canterbury, N. H., says: "In the winter of 1889 I was a surveyor of lumber in Sacramento, Cal., being considerably exposed, I took a bad cold accompanied with a terrible cough. I tried several remedies, but they failed to cure me, and it was thought I was going into a decline. On the advice of a friend, I began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and less than half a bottle completely cured me."

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25c; six bottles, $1.50.

TIRED MOTHERS.

A little elbow leans upon your knee, Your tired knee, that has so much to bear. A child's dear eyes are looking lovingly From underneath a thatch of tangled hair; Perhaps you do not heed the velvet touch Of warm, moist fingers folding yours so tight, You do not prize this blessing overmuch— You almost are to tired to pray to-night!

But it is blessedness! A year ago I did not see it as I do to-day. We are so dull and thankless, and too slow To catch the sunshine ere it slips away. And now it seems surpassing strange to me! That while I wore the badge of motherhood I did not kiss more oft and tenderly The little child that brought me only good!

And if some night when you sat down to rest You missed this elbow from your tired knee, This restless, curling head from off your breast, This lisping tongue that chatters constantly, If from your own the dimpled hand had slipped, And ne'er would nestle in your palm again; If the white feet into their grave had tripped, I could not blame you for your heartache then!
