Christmas, with all its joy and promise, will bring only sadness to many families. How many homes, during the past year, have been visited by death! How many have laid away in the silent tomb, a parent, a wife or husband, a beloved child, or other dear relative or friend! While the departed ones are missed more than ever at such times, the occasion is full of consolation, for the birth of Christ preceded his resurrection, which gave to the world the promise that all the dead shall rise again.

The Parting of Ways.

Wilkins and Watkins were college chums and close friends. They had been hard students and had taken little outdoor exercise. When they shook hands and said good-bye, at the end of their college career, they were in impaired health. Both had dyspepsia, liver troubles and troublesome coughs.

Wilkins had plenty of money, and decided to travel for his health. Watkins was poor. "I must go to work for my living," said he, "but I'll try the remedy that Robinson talks so much about—Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

In less than two years, Wilkins came home in his coffin, Watkins, now in the prime of life, is a bank president, rich and respected, and weighs 200 pounds. "The Golden Medical Discovery, saved my life at a critical time," he often says. "Oh, if poor Wilkins had only tried it!" For weak lungs, spitting of blood, all lingering coughs, and consumption in its early stages, it is an unequalled remedy.

The plague of breaking lamp-chimneys is abroad in the land.

There are two sorts of chimneys; brittle and tough. Ninety-nine in a hundred are brittle. The worst are imported from Germany. The best are Macbeth's "Pearl-top" & "Pearl-glass."

Two sorts as to workmanship; fine and coarse. The fine are Macbeth's "Pearl-top" and "Pearl-glass." The coarse are rough and out of proportion; misfits and misshapen; they do not make a good draft; they smoke.

Two sorts as to glass; transparent and gray. "Pearl-top" and "Pearl-glass" are clear, fine and tough—not tough against accident—tough against heat.

Call for "Pearl-top" or "Pearl-glass" chimneys. Pittsburgh, Pa., Geo. A. Macbeth & Co.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large Fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at C. A. Klein's Drug store.

EAST BENTON.

A. W. Beishline, of Bendertown, familiarly known as "Gustie", died of a malignant form of pneumonia on the 15th of December aged about 44 years. He was buried at Jonestown on the 18th. A widow and daughter survive to mourn their loss. The deceased belonged to a large circle of relatives, and to a family of six children of which the father, two brothers and a sister survive. Almost all of the Van Camp vicinity, known as "Germany," are related, either by marriage, or blood connections, of which the leading families, numerically, are Wengers and Beishline's. The pioneer stock thrived and multiplied until their name is legion. The chief characteristic of these people—industry and honesty, is proverbial. In the death of Gustie the community has lost a valuable and honored member, the surviving household a dear son and brother, the wife a devoted and loving husband, and the daughter an affectionate father. He was a member of the M. E. Church and place of worship was at Jonestown.

The late changeable weather has sorely tried the physical constitution of weakly and afflicted people.

John Kinard aged 78 years departed this life on the 5th of Dec., and was buried at St. James on the 8th. He also lived in the Van Camp vicinity.

Nathaniel Driesbach of Van Camp was complaining ill last Sunday week ago.

Lew M. Creveling of Van Camp who was dangerously afflicted with pneumonia sometime ago, we are glad to say has fully recovered his former health.

Alonzo Alberson's family was called to mourn the loss of an infant, babe on Friday night, the 11th of Dec.

The itching of the scalp, falling of the hair, resulting in baldness, are often caused by dandruff, which may be cured by using Hall's Hair Renewer.
