WASHINGTON LETTER

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 4th, 1892.

Speaker Crisp has found such a hard taskmaster in the grip which has held fast to him ever since the day of the recess adjournment, that it is not probable that he will be well enough to preside over the House when it reassembles tomorrow. In that case the House is not expected to transact any further business than the election of a Speaker protem, and the adoption of a resolution authorizing the employment of clerks to the various committees.

This programme may however be added to, if Mr. Harrison shall and his special message, as it has been semi-officially announced that he would do this week. If the correspondence and the message shall prove to be as to believe, the House will probably take it up at once to the temporary exclusion of all other business. In this connection it may be well to give the views of Representative McCreary of Kentucky, who has long been justly regarded as one of the clearest headed democratic members of the House he appointed Z X. Snyder to the posicommittee on Foreign Affairs. He tion. Mr. Snyder's nomination was says: "I still think that the Chilians believe they will make proper repara-States permission to land troops on her soil and to establish store houses there. We could land one hundred thousand troops, and such a step being once taken, there would be no halt until

Were it not for the fact that Frank Hatton has been known to bear a bitter personal grudge against Mr. Blaine of the balance of the unexpired term. He the repulican national convention in 1880, his rather plain intimations in the Washington Post, that Mr. Blaine had, by reason of a business deal with ex-Mayor Grace, of New York, who has large business interests in Chili, determined to prevent war between the countries, even if it becomes necessary to back down to do it, would have created a sensation. As it is they have only raised a smile, and recalled the adage "Give a dog a bad name, etc."

Although nothing definite is known on the subject it seems to be the opinion of the majority of democrats that the committee on Rules of the House will not recommend the restoration of all the appropriation bil's to the Committee on Appropriations, as they were some years ago, and as Representatives Holman, Sayers, Dockerty and other champions of economy wish them to be again. It is possible that the committee may conclude to get the views of a democratic caucus before acting on this very important matter.

Representative Springer has pre-pared the first of the series of tariff bils with which it is proposed to as-sault the present class-favoring law, and it will be submitted to the Ways and Means Committee in a few days probably this week. It would put wool on the free list, and place carpets on about the basis proposed by the Ex-Representative Perkins, of Kans-as, who is to attempt to fill the vacant chair of the late Senator Plumb, by right of a gubernatorial appointment, did not make a reputation to be very proud of during the four sessions he served as a member of the House. As a statesman he was a bad misfit, but as a blind partisan, losing sight of everything but the momentary success of his party, he was a howling success. His career in the Senate will probably be but a repetition of that in the House.

The amount of sugar bounty so far paid, under the McKinley tariff law, is nearly one million dollars; to be exact,

THE SUPREME COURT DECIDES THAT HE IS THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

HE SERVES OUT THE UNEXPIRED TERM OF DR. HIGBEE, WHICH ENDS MARCH, 1893.

The supreme court of the state of Pennsylvania convened in Philadelphia Monday and decided the contention as to the right of appointment to the vacancy in the office of superintendent of public instruction, caused by the death of the late Dr. Highee. The dispute was between rival appointees of Governor Pattison and Governor Beaver, and the decision was in favor of send in the Chilian correspondence the latter's oppointee, Dr. D. J. Wal-

Dr. Waller was originally appointed on February 14, 1891, the senate not then being in session. The next session important as the public have been led of the senate began on the first Tues day of January, 1890, and on January 19th Governor Beaver named him for four years from March 1st, 1890. On January 20 this nomination was confirmed. On the same day Governor Pattison went into office, and, instead of issuing a commission to Dr Waller, rejected by the senate, but Attorney will not want to go to war with us. I General Hensel subsequently issued a writ of quo warranto against Waller, tion for the affront that has been given the governor having re appointed Snyus. The decision of the Dauphin be only too willing to give the United county common pleas was in favor of the commonwealth, but the supreme court reverses the judgment.

INTERPRETING THE CONSTITUTION.

After quoting from article four, secour forces had marched through the tion eight, of the constitution, the chief whole country. The intelligent Chili- justice says: "This clause of the conans must appreciate this danger, if stitution is by no means clear. It will they compel hostilities, and upon the be noticed, however, that there are assumption that they do I believe that two classes of vacancies to be filled by they will not permit war. Soon after appointment by the governor, those Congress reconvenes the President will that relate to elective offices and those send the correspondence to the two that are non-elective. Whatever the result, I In the other case no time is designated do not think we can be charged with during which his appointee can hold, having rushed into war, or that we except the single provision that if a shall suffer any loss of dignity." The vacancy shall occur during the recess last sentence is significant, as there of the senate he shall be commissioned are reasons for the belief that Repres- until the end of the next session. This entative McCreary has already read simply means that his appointee to this c'ass of offices shall be confirmed by the senate, otherwise his incumbencv expires with its adjournment. But appoints to fill the vacancy. What is the vacancy? Clearly the term of of-fice left unfilled, when not otherwise provided for. Governor Beaver exercised this power. He filled the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Higbee, and his appointee having been duly confirmed by the senate, the respondent is in office by virtue of

"There's something behind it."
That's what you think, perhaps, when you read that the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy offer $500 reward for an incurable case of Catarrh. Rather unusual, you think, to find the makers of a medicine trying to prove that they be-lieve in it. "There must be something back of it!"

But it's a plain, square offer, made in good faith. The only thing that's back of it is the Remedy. It cures Catarrh in the Head. To its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties, the worst cases yield, no matter how bad or of how long standing. It has a record that goes back for 25 years. It doesn't simply relieve—it perfectly and permanently cures. With a Rem-edy like this, the proprietors can make such an offer and mean it. To be sure there's risk in it, but it's so very small that they are willing to take it.

You've "never heard of anything like this offer?" True cnough. But then you've never heard of anything like Dr. Sage's Remedy.
