Would you rather buy lamp-chimneys, one a week the year round, or one that lasts till some accident breaks it?

Common glass may break or not the minute you light your lamp; if not, the first draft may break it; if not, it may break from a mere whim.

Tough glass chimneys, Macbeth's "Pearl-top" or "Pearl-glass," almost never break from heat, not one in a hundred.

Where can you get it? and what does it cost?

Your dealer knows where and how much. It costs more than common glass; and may be, he thinks tough glass isn't good for his business.

DEAFNESS, ITS CAUSES AND CURE

Scientifically treated by an artist of world-wide reputation. Deafness eradicated and entirely cured, of from 20 to 30 years' standing, after all other treatments have failed. How the difficulty is reached and the cause removed, fully explained in circulars, with affidavits and testimonials of cures from prominent people, mailed free. Dr. A. Fontaine, Tacoma, Wash.

A FORTUNE

Inherited by few, is pure blood, free from hereditary taint. Catarrh, consumption, rheumatism, Scrofula, and many other maladies born in the blood, can be effectually eradicated only by the use of powerful alteratives. The standard specific for this purpose—the one best known and approved—is Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the compound, concentrated extract of Honduras sarsaparilla, and other powerful alteratives.

"I consider that I have been

several hundred dollars' expense, by using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and would strongly urge all who are troubled with lameness or rheumatic pains to give it a trial. I am sure it will do them permanent good, as it has done me."—Mrs. Joseph Wood, West Plattsburgh, N. Y.

Dr. J. W. Shields, of Smithville, Tenn., says: "I regard Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood medicine on earth, and know of many wonderful cures effected by its use."

"For many years I was laid up with Scrofula, no treatment being of any benefit. At length I was treated to give Ayer's Sarsaparilla a trial. I did so, and about a dozen bottles, was restored to perfect health—weighing 200 pounds—and am now a believer in the merits of Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—James Petsy, Mine Boss, Berea, Ohio.

By Taking

"My niece, Sarah A. Looce, was for years afflicted with scrofulous humor in the blood. About six months ago she began to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and after taking three bottles was completely cured."—E. Caffall, P. M. Looce, Utah.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5.

New Zealand Holidays.

The colonists of New Zealand, according to Mr. Edward Wakefield, are a holiday making people. There is almost no average of one recognized holiday to a month, and it is a common practice for all working people to take two or more days at Christmas, New Year's and Easter, so as to make an unbroken play time of three or four days, including a Sunday.

The custom of all holiday amusements is the picnic. The several trunks, seats and societies have picnics of their own, to which the public are cordially welcomed on the payment of a small sum to ward the expense of the entertainment. It is amusing to the railway traveler to note, as he passes through some pretty country, side, not one or two, but perhaps fifty different picnics in full swing, each numbering scores or hundreds of guests. It has been said, with much more truth than is usually to be found in epigrams of this kind, that "New Zealand people are like cattle. You need only turn a number of them into a pasture and leave them alone, and they will make themselves perfectly happy."

On a warm and tempting New Year's day an enterprising burgher might walk through a New Zealand city and help himself undisturbed to the contents of most of the houses. Dwellings and streets are alike deserted, and the casual sojourner who does not understand the ways of the place seeks in vain for some one to speak to or something to do. By 6 or 7 o'clock in the evening the streets are lively with returning crowds.—Youth's Companion.

"How would you like to cure your horse of that shaggy look and rough coat?" "Well, you can do it by giving him Bull's-Head Horse and Cattle Powder; a pound package costs only 25cts."

"I don't seem to quite understand the drift of this play yet," said one gentleman to another at the theatre, the other evening.

"You don't?"

"No; do you?"

"Yes, what I've seen of it. There's one thing, though, that I can't see through."

"What is that?"

"The hat of the lady in front of me." —New York Press.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING.

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every attack of disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure cocoa and a properly nourished frame."—Cent. Secular Gazette.
