A dispatch from Washington says: "Among the many things which Postmaster General Wanamaker hopes to accomplish before the expiration of his term are a foreign postal card with stamped coupon attached for prepaid reply; duplex house letter-boxes, in one side of which the postman can deliver his mail while the householder can put his letters in the other; an extended and ultimately universal free delivery; a reform in the present abuse of the penalty frank, whereby more than eight million dollars worth of the most laborious mail carrying is done for nothing; an alteration in the law which now permits paper-covered 'serial novels' to be sent at one-eighth the legitimate rate; based upon these two reforms, a reduction of letter postage to one cent an ounce, and a resulting change, in a few years, of the present annual deficit of five million dollars into a surplus of fourteen; the creation of a postal banking system, the deposits, estimated at five hundred millions, to be re deposited in National local banks, as preferred liabilities, and to be employed in Government real estate and similar solid investments; and the postal telegraph system." We rather guess Mr. Wanamaker has bitten off more than he can chew during his term of office.

The "ominous click." Another lamp chimney for the ash barrel. "Pearl-top" is the only reliable kind not made for ash barrels and back yards. The "we have just as good" don't make them as good. Not one dealer in a hundred knows anything about glass except the price. Insist upon having Macbeth's "Pearl-top" chimneys, and take no other. You will find this label printed in black on each "Pearl-top" chimney; they are wrapped in white paper, printed in red ink.

YOUR COUGH

Has not yielded to the various remedies you have been taking. It troubles you day and night, breaks your rest and reduces your strength. Now try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, before the bronchial tubes become enlarged or the delicate tissues of the lungs sustain fatal injury. As an anodyne and expectorant, this preparation has no equal. It soothes the irritated membrane, promotes expectoration, and induces repose. The worst cough by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Dr. J. G. Gordon, Carrol Co., Va., writes: "I use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my practice, and pronounce it to be unequalled as a remedy for colds and coughs."

Can Be Cured

"After the gripe—cough. This was my experience—a hacking, dry cough, with an incessant tickling in the throat, keeping me awake nights, and disturbing the household. I tried a great number of 'cough-cures,' but they gave me only temporary relief. At last I concluded to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and before I had used half a bottle, I had my first all-night sleep. I continued to improve, and now consider myself cured."—A. A. Sherman, Coeymans, N. Y.

Dickens' Pet Daughter.

THE GREAT NOVELLIST'S FAVORITE "MAMIE" TO WRITE OF HER FATHER.

Pretty "Mamie" Dickens was already considered by those who knew Charles Dickens best to be the novelist's favorite daughter. To none of his children, perhaps, was Dickens more affectionately attached, and the "pet daughter" saw much of her father under all circumstances. When even the dogs were chased out of the novelist's study, Mamie was allowed to stay. The daughter is now a full-grown woman, living quietly just outside of London. For the first time since her father's death, Miss Dickens has been persuaded to write of him whom she knew so well. During 1892 there will be published in The Ladies' Home Journal, of Philadelphia, a series of articles by Miss Dickens under the attractive title of "My Father as I Recall Him." Fortunately for the thousands who will read what she writes in this series, Miss Dickens has a retentive memory, and she made copious notes during her father's lifetime. She will tell in this series everything she remembers of her father; how he educated his children; his family and his personal habits; how he wrote his famous books; his love of flowers and animals; how Christmas was spent in the Dickens household; how the novelst romped with his children; the famous people who came to the Dickens home, and his last years and closing days. No articles ever published have in them so much promise of telling the world things which it has never known of Dickens, and Miss Dickens' story of her father's life will be eagerly looked for in thousands of homes where the name of Dickens is like a household word.
