ANOTHER BANK FAILURE

THE FIRST NATIONAL AT MUNCY SUSPENDS PAYMENT.

WILLIAMSPORT, January 11. The First National Bank of Muncy, this county, closed its doors this morning...

The bank has not been doing a profitable business and has had heavy losses where it loaned money. There was $70,000 on deposit at the last statement and there is now a $40,000 shortage.

On his arrival he went to the vault, but could not get it open, when he sent for an expert. When this became known there was a run on the bank.

The bank has not been doing a profitable business and has had heavy losses where it loaned money.

Many of the stockholders are wealthy men and it is hoped that the depositors, many of whom are farmers, will be paid in full.

Dela Green, the cashier and ex-Bank Examiner for this district, was arrested between ten and eleven o'clock to-night, as startling disclosures were made during the evening.

Dela Green, was arrested while in bed and was taken before United States Commissioner Bentley. During the night he will remain in custody of the Deputy Marshal.

Examiner Dangler said this evening that the affairs of the bank are in very bad shape, and it looks as if the institution had been looted.

At midnight the investigation is still under way and full particulars will not be known until morning.

THE (Of microbe (microorganism) is a mighty host, ARMY which indeed no man can number. Invisible to the naked eye, the poisonous part of this army is the cause of four fifths of all the diseases of the human family—their destroyers more lives than war, famine, fire, murder and shipwreck combined, and they actually abbreviate the average term of human life by three-fourths.

An old friend in a new dress, and an article that has come to be one of the indispensables of an editor's desk, comes to hand in the Columbia Daily Calendar for 1892.

My Head Was Fairly Rotten, And how much I suffered it is hard to describe. That loathsome disease, catarrh, caused the above, and the doctors said they could not relieve me.

Praised on all Sides

THE OLD RELIABLE READING ROAD THE FAVORITE EVERYWHERE.

In glancing over our exchanges we find frequent mention and high commendation of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, which under the wise and vigorous policy instituted by President A. A. McLeod and ably prosecuted by his devoted lieutenants, has reached a degree of prosperity that a few years ago seemed impossible of attainment.

To meet the demands of the traveling public of to-day it is necessary that a railroad company shall furnish not only speedy and safe transportation but luxurious accommodations as well. All these requirements are met in the fullest measure by the Reading, which certainly deserves its pet appellation, "The Royal Route."

This triumph is but an example of what the Reading is accomplishing in all directions. In the Boston Christian Ledger of January 7th, we find the following, which fairly reflects the popular appreciation of this line:— "The Royal Blue Line between New York, Philadelphia and Washington, via the Reading Railroad, has attained a world-wide reputation, owing to the high standard of excellence it has maintained ever since it was inaugurated, and its success, although unprecedented, is fully deserved."

To preserve a youthful appearance as long as possible, it is indispensable that the hair should retain its natural color and fullness. There is no preparation so effective as Ayer's Hair Vigor. It prevents baldness, and keeps the scalp clean, cool, and healthy.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Representative Durburrow, chairman of the World's Columbian commission, returned from Chicago Thursday. He says owing to the plans having been broadened and the scope of the exposition widened at the instance of the national commission the local board proposes to come to Congress and ask an appropriation of $5,000,000, this appropriation to be made upon the same basis as the stock subscriptions of the citizens and the municipality of Chicago—that is, the government to share proportionately in the profits of the exposition.
