There's Music in the Air.

This genius is away up in G, and is engaged in the literal fulfillment of a very common expression. It is as seldom that musical notes are seen floating over housetops, as it is that bank notes are found growing on bushes. Our artist has therefore photographed them on the spot. The man in the picture is on top. So is J. Saltzer, the well known dealer in all kinds of musical instruments and sewing machines. He handles the Steck, Estey and Starr organs;

The celebrated White, and other makes of Sewing Machines. Satisfaction guaranteed by J. Saltzer, Bloomsburg Pa. Main St. below Market.

A WHOLE TOWN SINKING

HAZELTON, PA., BEING UNDERMINED BY THE CAVE-IN OF A MINE.

A square mile of Territory Affected—Hundreds of Houses in Danger—People Deserting Their Homes—Trains Stopped Running—Great Excitement.

HAZELTON, Jan. 13.—It was thought at midnight Monday night, when the cave-in of the Pardee mine had spread over five squares and had affected 400 houses and 2,500 people directly, that all danger was over. But yesterday the cave-in extended, until it now covers a square mile in extent.

The Sisters of Mercy were hurriedly taken out of the convent, and for a time Lehigh Valley passenger trains were stopped from running through the city. Water and gas mains in streets a quarter mile away are snapping. Windows, pavements, and cellars continue to gap with new fissures. Last evening Superintendent Frank Pardee admitted that he did not know what the result might be. It is estimated that real estate values throughout the city have fallen $1,000,000 in the past twenty-four hours. A large force of special police with lanterns patrolled the streets, ready to warn the sleeping citizens, and guarding from thieves the scores of deserted houses wherein furniture remains. It is generally believed that the disaster was caused by robbing the pillars in the mines.

OHIO'S NEW GOVERNOR.

Gov. Campbell Turns the State Over to His Successor.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 12.—Gov. Campbell turned over the reins of State Government to Major McKinley yesterday in good form. At noon, with the Joint Legislative Committee, he went to Gov. McKinley's hotel and escorted him to the State House rotunda, where the ceremonies were to take place. Ex-President R. B. Hayes introduced the Rev. Bennett, who offered prayer. Gov. Campbell then said that the last act of his administration was one of the most pleasing ones, and that was to hand to Major McKinley his commission as governor of Ohio. He did so, he said, with the sincere wish that his administration might be a successful one and reflect credit both upon the governor and the State.

At this Major McKinley turned and said impressively: "Gov. Campbell, I thank you. Let me say I wish you and yours all the success, happiness and prosperity that can possibly fall to the lot of mortals." He then raised his right hand and was by Chief Justice Marshal sworn in as Governor of Ohio. His inaugural address was read from manuscript in an unimpassioned, dignified style.

FOR OUR COAST DEFENSES.

A Bill Appropriating $100,000,000 Introduced in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Senator Dolph, from the Committee on Coast Defenses and Fortifications, reported favorably yesterday a bill providing for fortifications and other coast defenses, as recommended by a Fortification Board appointed by the president. The cities selected for special defense are: New York, San Francisco, Boston, the Lake ports, Hampton Roads, New Orleans, Philadelphia, Washington, Baltimore, Portland, nearly all of the important Southern seaboard cities, and those on the Pacific Coast.

An appropriation of $100,000,000 is made, a reduction of $23,000,000 from the appropriation contained in the bill introduced at the last session. The bill as amended reduces the amount to be expended the first year from $30,000,000 to $10,000,000, and for each year thereafter for a period of ten years the sum of $9,000,000 is to be available.

"A KINGDOM FOR A HORSE."

Senator Stanford Sells "Arlon" to J. M. Forbes for $150,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—Arlon, the greatest two-year-old the world has ever seen, has brought the highest price ever paid for trotting horse-flesh. Axtell brought $105,000, but yesterday, J. Malcolm Forbes, of Boston, agreed to pay Senator Leland Stanford $150,000 for the mighty son of Electioneer. Two months ago Arlon made a record of 2:10 at Stockton, Cal.

Arlon is a bay colt, fifteen hands high and was foaled March 13, 1889. His sire was the illustrious Electioneer and his dam Nanette, sister to Woodnut (2:16).

CYCLONE IN GEORGIA.

The Town of Fayetteville Devastated. Three Persons Killed.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ga., Jan. 7.—This town was visited by a terrible cyclone early last evening. Three people were killed, a number of others injured, and the little town was almost wiped out of existence. A path 300 yards wide was swept through the town and for three miles east of it the devastation continued. The dead so far as reported are William Travis, a farmer, aged thirty; Sallis Graham, aged ten and a negro child not yet identified. The list of injured will probably reach twenty-five, some of whom will die.

Two Men Killed and Cremated.

CASTLE, N. Y., Jan. 13.—A rear-end collision between two Lehigh Valley freight trains occurred in the Erie yard here yesterday morning. Flagman McCarthy, of Buffalo, and Brakeman Woodruff, who was making his first trip, were killed and their bodies were burned in a fire started by wrecked oil cars.
