Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklin's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. C. A. Klein, druggist.

BEATTY HOGAN'S, FIANOS $39 up. Catalog Free. Daniel P. Beatty, Washington, D. C.

Rich Men's Ailings. It is an old axiom that health is the greatest of all riches, and it is a thing that money will often not buy. Indeed, the possession of great wealth is a predisposing cause of a number of complaints. This, says a Paris letter to the New York Tribune, is the opinion of Dr. Monin, who has defended it in a book just published, entitled "Rich Men's Evils." The list of diseases which beset the rich man is not a long one, but it is, if one may call it so, a substantial one.

The possessor of several hundred thousand dollars has the choice between stomach complaints of various sorts, congestions, apoplexies, rheumatisms acute and subacute, gout, headaches of every degree, affections of the heart, pleurisy and asthma, liver complaints, jaundice, roscole (from which Queen Victoria suffers), sleeplessness, nervous exhaustion, beside a number of artificial ailments which are within the reach of all who can purchase morphine, cocaine, and ether.

Whatever your choice may be you may console yourself by the thought that you suffer in good company. Rheumatic people will remember that Mme. de Sevigne, who was a sufferer from it, wore a cheerful countenance and delighted her friends with her sparkling wit. The gouty celebrities form a brilliant host: Torrance, Leibnitz, Erasmus, Kant, Franklin, Milton (I give their names as they occur, not in chronological order), Darwin, Sydneyham.

As you see, doctors are not exempt from it. Literary people are placed by Dr. Monin in company with millionaires, an association no doubt flattering to both, but none the less unlooked for. The weight in their purses, however, has nothing to do with this. But, like plutocrats, they lead a sedentary life, dissipate a quantity of vital energy, and are obliged, on that account, to have a substantial diet. Literary men and women are therefore subject to dyspepsia and gout.

Wheat in America.

Prior to the discovery of this continent by Columbus there was no cereal in America, either north or south, which approached in nature to the wheat plant, says the St. Louis Republic. It was not until 1530 that it found its way into Mexico.

It may be difficult to realize the fact that wheat was at one time wholly unknown in such an immense country and one so favorable to its production, but such was the case. It was in 1530 that a poor slave belonging to Cortez found a few grains of wheat in a parcel of rice; he showed them to his master, who ordered them to be planted. The result showed that wheat would thrive well on Mexican soil, and to-day one of the finest wheat valleys in the world is near the Mexican capital.

From Mexico the cereal found its way to Peru. Marie d'Escobar, wife of Don Diego de Chauves, carried a few grains to Lima, the entire product for several successive years being used for seed.

At Quito, Ecuador, a monk of the Order of St. Francis, named Fra Joloai Bixi, introduced the new bread grain, and it is said that the jar in which the pious man kept the original seed is still preserved at Quito.

Wheat was introduced into the present limits of the United States contemporaneously with the settlement of the country by the English and other Europeans.

Lamp-chimneys cost so little that we let them go on breaking. We go on buying and grumbling.

What should we do? Get Macbeth's "Pearl-top" and "Pearl-glass;" they are made of tough glass, tough against heat; they do not break in use; they do from accident.

They are fine, well made, exact; they fit the lamps they are made for; stand upright; the shade is right; they make a right draught for light; they are uniform. Both bear a label for your protection. Look for it. Be willing to pay a nickel more and stop this constant expense and annoyance.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Stands at the head of all blood medicines. This position it has secured by its intrinsic merit, sustained by the opinion of leading physicians, and by the certificates of thousands who have successfully tested its remedial worth. No other medicine so effectually

CURES

Scrofula, boils, pimples, rheumatism, catarrh, and all other blood diseases.

There can be no question as to the superiority of Ayer's Sarsaparilla over all other blood-purifiers. If this was not the case, the demand for it, instead of increasing yearly, would have ceased long ago, like so many other blood medicines I could name.—F. L. Nickerson, Druggist, 75 Chelsea st., Charlestown, Mass.

Two years ago I was troubled with salt-rheum. It was all over my body, and nothing the doctors did for me was of any avail. At last I took four bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and was completely cured. I can sincerely recommend it as a splendid blood-purifier.—J. S. Burt, Upper Keswick, New Brunswick.

My sister was afflicted with a severe case of

SCROFULA

Our doctor recommended Ayer's Sarsaparilla as being the best blood-purifier within his experience. We gave her this medicine, and a complete cure was the result.—Wm. O. Jenkins, Dewesee, Neb.

When a boy I was troubled with a blood disease which manifested itself in sores on the legs. Ayer's Sarsaparilla being recommended, I took a number of bottles, and was cured. I have never since that time had a recurrence of the complaint.—J. C. Thompson, Lowell, Mass.

I was cured of Scrofula by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.—John C. Berry, Deerfield, Mo.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $4. Cures others, will cure you

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Dr. G. C. OSOONO, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphia, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

The Centaur Company, 77 Murray Street, New York City.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ANCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

Notice is hereby given that the following accounts have been filed in the Court of Common Pleas of Columbia County, and will be presented to the said Court on the first Monday of February, 1892, and confirmed nisi, and unless Exceptions are filed within four days thereafter will be confirmed absolute.

Will Bardsley Speak.

It is not known what expectations or understanding influenced John Bardsley when he stubbornly declined to give any information as to those who were associated with him in his colossal theft of city and State money, but it is evident that he either had an understanding with certain party leaders, or had well-defined expectations, that his silence would hasten his release from prison. It is not conceivable that Bardsley was actuated to seal his lips by any sense of chivalry or of honor among thieves. It is probable that he had no agreement with any responsible leader on the subject, but no man better understands the ins and outs of potent party men, and if he had no agreement, he believed that his expectations were well founded.

A felon's cell at Cherry Hill is not conducive to a hopeful condition of the mind of an inmate, and it is now intimated that Bardsley has greatly weakened his courage and that he is likely to take an early opportunity to give the whole story of his embezzlements. As a Congressional Committee will soon be here to inquire into the as yet unknown causes of the theft in the Keystone National Bank, he will have an opportunity to speak if he shall desire to unseal his lips. The Congressional Committee will doubtless mean business, and it will probe this defalcation to the core. It is accepted on every side as a reproach upon our city and State, that millions of money have been stolen and that as yet the public is entirely ignorant of who got the money or what was done with it. That influential parties have hindered the inquiry in some unseen way cannot now be doubted.

But suppose Bardsley should now tell all that he knows? It goes without saying that he would not be believed unless clearly corroborated by other evidence, but that is no reason why he should not be heard if he is willing to tell anything. If he shall tell the truth he would doubtless open channels of information that have hitherto been closed, and make it possible for the Congressional Committee to find witnesses and develop evidence that can be had only by Bardsley giving the cue. He now stands before the public as a confessed purveyor and thief and it is a just rule of law that he who is false in one thing is false in all, but while Bardsley's evidence would not of itself criminate any man, it might instruct the committee of inquiry where to turn and how to act.

The only possible attestation that Bardsley can now make to the city and State he so largely wronged, would be to tell the truth. If he should testify and his testimony should be established as true by other witnesses, it would lay the ground work for some degree of popular sympathy that might sooner or later aid his release. If he shall not speak, nothing short of hopeless physical or mental wreck could plead for his escape from the penitentiary before the fulfillment of his entire sentence.—Times
