POLITICAL POINTERS.

The signs of the times are that Cleveland will be nominated for President by the Democratic National Convention. Sentiment in favor of his selection predominates everywhere. With Cleveland as the candidate and tariff reform as the platform, the Democratic party will be victor-

The assertion made in the Sentinel last week that everybody who optelegate to the National Democratic Convention, were working to secure a Vallace delegation to the State Conention, is utterly untrue, and is only a keeping with the constant political nearly ten years, besides being Comclap trap with which that paper is weekly nauseating its readers. In connection with the allegation that Chairman Townsend voted in State Committee, "against the interests of Cleveland and Pattison," how Bloomsburg E. does the following dispatch from Washington read? Mr. Townsend vored for Kerr for State Chairman, believing that he was a supporter of Cleveland. He was not controlled by the Harrity combine. Now read the following dispatch to the Harrisburg

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12-The cat is out of the bag. Congressman Beltzhover let it out to day in an interview in which he stated that the state administration people would make an effort to send a solid Pattison delegation to the national convention. This information will not be very cheering to those friends of ex President Cleveland who are in training with the Harrity-Pattison combine. Before the Democratic state committee meeting was held the Pattison-Harrity people sent the word broadcast that the Democrats of Pennsylvania were for Cleveland and that a delegation for him would be sent to the national convention

It would seem from what Mr. Beltzhover said to day that Cleveland was to be dumped to make way for Governor Pattison, Mr. Beltzhoover is credited with being the mouth piece of the Pattison-Harrity faction of the party and his utterance to-day that the unit rule would be adopted by the state convention, and that the delegation would be instructed for Pattison, has stirred up a hornet's nest among the Pennsylvania followers of Cleveland in Washington.

In speaking of Mr. Beltzhoover's declaration, a prominent Pennsylvania Democrat said: "The friends of Cleveland have suspected for some time that Harrity and the state administration people would prove false to the ex-president. They won the fight against Kerr by misrepresentation. They gave it out that Kerr was against Cleveland and that they were for him. They accomplished their purpose, and they are now getting ready to knife Cleveland. I believe that Cleveland has enough friends in the state to knock out the plans of his pretended

People are laughing at the claim made that the result of the recent committee meeting was a people's victory. The people had as much to do with it as the man in the moon. The committee were elected at a time when the question at issue was not thought of. After promising Buckingnam faithfully to support him, several men were induced to change their minds.
