Our Mistake with Chili.

If our government had amicably accepted the situation, had recalled Mr. Egan, and replaced him under the new Chilian government by an American Minister of high character carrying the cordial welcome of the great republic to its smaller sister, the Chilian feeling would have been friendly instead of hostile, and the lamentable event which has brought us to the verge of war would have been avoided. Had our disposition been really friendly, had there been no politics in the business, nothing but a determination of honorable peace, Chili would not have been forced into the dilemma in which she was unfortunately placed, and we should have been spared this absurd result of our proposed Pan-American millennium of last year.—Harper's Weekly.

A MARRIED WOMAN'S NOTE.

MUST SHOW WHAT IT WAS GIVEN FOR.

It was generally supposed that the Act of June 3rd, 1887, commonly known as the Married Woman's Act, was intended to enlarge the powers of married women so that they could make any kind of a contract a man can make. This is not so, however. In the case of Real Estate Investment Co. vs. Roop, 132 Penna. State Reports, 496, the Supreme Court has said: "In construing Sec. 3 of the Married Person's Property Act of June 3, 1887, it must be read in connection with the other sections, and the Act considered as a whole; so considered, the section does not confer upon married women a general power to contract debts and bind their estates therefor. The Act confers upon married women the power to make three classes of contracts only, to-wit: In connection with a trade or business in which she is engaged; in the management of her estate; and for the necessities for the family, and the authority to execute obligations is confined to one or the other of these classes."

Judge Olmstead of Potter county, has decided that in the judgment against a married woman, the record should show affirmatively that the debt was contracted by her, and under such circumstances as by law will make her liable.

Judge Stewart of Franklin county, has decided that a judgment entered upon a note against a married woman which neither sets forth her exceptional liability nor discloses her coverture, will be vacated by the Court; such a judgment is void.

It is held in Philadelphia that unless a judgment note made by a married woman shows on its face that it was given for one of the purposes for which a married woman is authorized to make contracts, to-wit; when she engages in trade or business; in the management of her separate estate, or for necessities, the note will be treated as a nullity, and judgment entered thereon will be stricken from the record. The same is held to be the law in numerous other counties, and it has come to be the pretty well settled law of the State.

Would you rather buy lamp-chimneys, one a week the year round, or one that lasts till some accident breaks it?

Common glass may break or not the minute you light your lamp; if not, the first draft may break it; if not, it may break from a mere whim.

Tough glass chimneys, Macbeth's "Pearl-top" or "Pearl-glass," almost never break from heat, not one in a hundred.

Where can you get it? and what does it cost?

Your dealer knows where and how much. It costs more than common glass; and may be, he thinks tough glass isn't good for his business.

THE BEST APERIENT

In modern pharmacy is, undoubtedly, Ayer's Cathartic Pills. Except in extreme cases, physicians have abandoned the use of drastic purgatives, and recommend a milder, but no less effective medicine. The favorite is Ayer's Pills, the superior medicinal virtues of which have been certified to under the official seals of state chemists, as well as by hosts of eminent doctors and pharmacists. No other pill so well supplies the demand of the general public for a safe, certain, and agreeable family medicine.

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine I ever used; and in my judgment no better general remedy was

Ever Devised

I have used them in my family and caused them to be used among my friends and employes for more than twenty years. To my certain knowledge many cases of the following complaints have been completely and permanently cured by the use of Ayer's Pills alone: Third day chills, dumb ague, bilious fever, sick headache, rheumatism, flux, dyspepsia, constipation, and hard colic. I know that a moderate use of Ayer's Pills, continued for a few days or weeks, as the nature of the complaint required, would be found an absolute cure for the disorders I have named above.—J. O. Wilson, Contractor and Builder, Sulphur Springs, Texas.
