

Resolutions of Jondolence

WHEREAS, It has pleased our all-wise Father, in his unfathomable wisdom, to remove from our midst, Sister Ada B. Yocum, who on January 15th, 1892, exchanged her earthly home for the city above; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of our Sister, we recognize the inscrutable wisdom of "One who is too wise to err," and reminded by this event that this earth is not our abiding home, and that we should wisely employ our time, that we may be able and ready at the call of the Master, to enter into that better life.

Resolved, That in her death, our Grange has lost a faithful member and willing worker.

Resolved, That while our hearts go out in sympathy to the bereaved brother and motherless little ones, we bow in humble submission to "Him who doeth all things well."

Resolved, That as a token of our loss, our charter be draped in black for a period of 30 days. That these resolutions be sent to the county papers and the Farmers Friend for publication, and a copy furnished the family of the deceased.

Deafness Can't be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

They Couldn't Understand It

From the New York Press. Mr. Tyrer. "Borde never visits us now."

Mrs. Tyrer. "No; it is rather singular."

Mr. Tyrer. "It is. The last time he was here I did my best to entertain him. Sat with him two solid hours relating to him the smart sayings of our children and you helped to entertain him too."

Mrs. Tyrer. "Yes, I showed him the baby and told all about her cute ways, and even tried to get her to talk to him."

Mr. Tyrer. "I can't understand why he keeps away."

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all who desire, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. A. NOYES, 820 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y. mar-6-1y.

An Egyptian Curiosity.

In July, 1881, there was discovered in the ancient city of Thebes, the mummies of Egypt's mightiest Pharaohs, among them that of Rameses the Great. There were also found seals, coins, statuettes, preserved food, and a few rolls of papyrus, some of the latter being of great value, curiously bound together, and, notwithstanding the mould and mildew of ages upon them, as easily read as if written yesterday. A queer little book entitled, "A Night with Rameses II.," has been executed so cleverly, that the oxidized seal, suggestion of mould, antique coloring, and partially decayed and ragged-edged papyrus carry at once to the mind the possession of a veritable relic from the dawn of civilization. Mailed to any address on receipt of 6 cents in stamps, by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

A Prophecy.

From the Clock Review. "Dashaway. "There's one thing about it, I'll never marry a girl who doesn't dress well." "Cleverton. "But suppose you can't afford to keep it up. What then?" "Dashaway. "She won't be so poor as all that."

President A. A. McLeod.

The Reading Railroad's recent acquisition of the Lehigh Valley and New Jersey Central Roads, the most stupendous railroad deal ever consummated in the world and the most startling financial operation of the age, will have consequences so momentous and far-reaching as to be almost beyond the grasp of the average mind. Not only does it make the Reading Railroad the most powerful corporation in the United States and the largest employers of labor on the civilized globe, but it practically constitutes its president, A. A. McLeod, the dictator of the anthracite coal trade and the arbiter of the fortunes of the vast interest and industries dependent upon the trade.

It is natural that some curiosity should be manifested regarding this remarkable man, and that some anxiety should be felt as to the policy he may be expected to pursue. Those who know Mr. McLeod and those who have closely watched the brilliant and sagacious tactics by means of which he has lifted a bankrupt corporation out of the slough of financial disaster and physical decay, making it a solvent and most powerful company, will have no fear but that he will use his vast authority cautiously, wisely and for the public good.

No apprehension need be felt as to the effect of the new order of things upon the prices of coal. While it is expected that the aggregated net profits of the unified Reading system from this source will be increased $6,000,000, neither furnace, nor foundry, nor poor man's hearth will be taxed a penny to bring about this result.

Bull's Head Veterinary Medicines have been before the public some time. They are now the farmer's standard remedies. Try Bull's Head Horse and Cattle Powder. Sold by all dealers.

R. Jones Monaghan, the West Chester lawyer who so mysteriously disappeared some months ago, has arrived at San Francisco from Australia. He and his family will locate at Spokane Falls. Why he left home is not known to the public.

Wrong Trade Marks.

From the Clothier and Furnisher. Office Boy. "There is a man outside who says he has a play he wants you to read."

Manager. "How is he dressed?" Office Boy. "Oh, he is 'out of sight'—silk hat, patent leathers and box coat."

Manager. "Tell him I'm not in. He must be an amateur."

It is Not What We Say

But what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that makes it sell, and has given it such a firm and lasting hold upon the people. The voluntary statements of thousands of people prove beyond question that this preparation possesses wonderful medicinal power.

Hood's Pills cure Constipation by restoring the peristaltic action of the alimentary canal. They are the best family cathartic.

Reward of Merit

From the New York Weekly. Railroad president. "That was a bad accident, but it might have been a thousand times worse. Suppose those cars had taken fire! Phew! Why didn't they?"

Superintendent. "A lazy brakeman had let the fires go out."

President. "Raise his salary."

COLONIAL BANKS BREAK.

Ten Big Savings Institutions Gone to Smash.

MANY OTHERS MAY ALSO FOLLOW.

Societies that Have Paid Big Dividends Obligated to Suspend—Rumors of Fraud. Depositors will Save but Little From the Wreck.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Feb. 21.—No less than ten of the largest of local savings banks stopped payment during the last fortnight, and many of the remaining ones are likely to follow. Societies that only a few months ago paid at their annual meetings from twelve to twenty-five per cent. dividends to their shareholders, could not see their way after a couple of days of a run on them, to repay to the poor their few pounds of earnings on deposit, let alone fixed deposits that had matured.

Liquidation will give the unfortunate depositors perhaps five shillings on the pound, after an indefinite period of delay. All this has been going on for years under the very noses of Parliament and the Executive Government, and nobody lifted as much as a finger to check the swindle.

The Australian squadron, composed of five corvettes and two gunboats, arrived from England recently. These vessels bear aboriginal names and the colonies have had to contribute largely to paying for them. This is at a time when the colonies are heavily pledged in the London market. The last New South Wales loan for no less than four millions and a half nearly proved a fiasco, and after outstanding obligations scarcely a million will be left to go on with necessary public works.

TO FIGHT THE TRUST.

The Pennsylvania Railroad to Build Branches to Parallel the Reading.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 17.—The Pennsylvania Railroad Company is very active in this section. It will build branch roads, in order to tap the mines owned by individual owners and operators.

By doing this it hopes to save individual operators from being driven out of the business by the coal trust.

Main lines of the road will be extended from Wilkesbarre to Scranton at a cost of $6,000,000. They will parallel the roads now in the Reading combination.

Drove His Mother Out of Doors.

GLEN'S FALLS, N. Y., Feb. 19.—Counselor Frederick L. Hamilton, arrested in New York some weeks ago charged with highway robbery, arrived home a few days ago. About the first thing he did was to flourish a revolver and drive his mother out of doors.

He was arrested and examined by Drs. Howard and Aldrich, of Warrensburg, who pronounced him insane. Judge Cheritree approved the physicians' finding, and Hamilton will be taken to Ogdensburg to-day.

Chicago Wants Royalty at the Fair.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Mr. Burbarrow (Ill.) introduced in the House yesterday joint resolutions authorizing the president to invite the King and Queen Regent of Spain, the living descendants of Columbus and the presidents of American republics and governors of American colonies to attend the opening ceremonies of the World's Fair as the guests of the people of the United States.

Shot Dead by an "Anti."

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 19.—There was a municipal election at Warrior Wednesday, in which prohibition was the chief issue, and won. After the election several men of both sides got to discussing prohibition, when a drunken "anti," George Kaley, began cursing the other side. O. B. Williamson took it up, but Kaley was too quick for him and shot him dead.

Reading to Make Its Own Powder.

SCRANTON, Pa., Feb. 19.—The Reading Railroad Company has bought an extensive tract of land along Spring Brook, on the Moosic Mountains, within easy distance of the Jersey Central Railroad, where it will erect the largest powder mills in the country. The purpose is to manufacture all the powder for use in the collieries controlled under the new deal.

Whaler Lost with Eighteen Men.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 19.—The whaling bark Tamerlane, which cleared from San Francisco January 13, was wrecked at Keenapoka, near Makun Puna, Hawaii, February 1. The vessel was owned in New Bedford, Mass. Capt. Walter Honland and seventeen sailors were lost. Seventeen were saved.
