The Russian Famine.

EXTENT OF THE FAMINE.-The territory afflicted by the drouth comprises thirteen provinces of European Russia, where the famine is general. In five other provinces the famine prevails in part, one or two others have suffered to some extent, but are not included in official reports.

AREA AND POPULATION COMPARED. The first thirteen provinces in area are one third greater than all Geral weeks by the effects of Grip is many. They cover an area equal to ng relatives here and at Light-the States of Maire, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusets, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Marythe roth at Mrs. H. S. Maris was land, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Kentucky all isiah Heacock is putting up a logether. The population is about equal, or 27,000,000. The five provinces above-named, it included in the comparison would equal a com bined area of Indiana, Iowa, Michi gan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois, North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas and half of Ohio. The total population of these last five provinces is nearly double that of the eleven states.

CHARACTER OF SOIL AND PEOPLE. This vast area is agricultural, and the rof. C. E. Smith will have charge richest and ordinarily the most fruitful part of Russia. The destitution is not universal, as there are those whose accumulations have saved them from want, and there are some spots preserved from blight by irrigation, where a good harvest was reaped, but at the best estimate the proportion of suffering is enormous. An official estimate of the number of those without food or means of support who require aid is given as 14, 000,000 persons, and this is probably below the true number.

For three years the crops have fallen short of the average and the deficiency of the past season left the storehouses well-nigh empty, and with the increased failure of this year it is mith and his wife have every luxury evident, and, Minister Smith adds, positive, that unless adequate relief can be supplied, the great present destitution and suffering will grow worse as the season continues. The greater portion of the peasantry is not improvident. The peasants make on savings generally, but live wholly dependent upon yearly crops, hence the long continued and widespread she is herself in good health. If drought leaves them subject to outdeteat is possible.

There is nothing to be gained but everything to be lost by forcing this issue now. It can accomplish nothing for free counage, while it threatens Relack all the necessaries of life, firewood, tarming implements, subsistence of horses and cattle, all depend upon this one resource-the crops. Taxes and rental continue, and it is as difficult to get fuel as food in some sections.

Cold as well as hunger causes terrible suffering. In some neighborhood: large numbers of persons huddle together in some houses most conducive to warmth. Barns have been torn down and the boards used for firewood. Even thatched roofs are torn disaster to their party - World. darr, Schuylkill; James Kerr, Cleareld; A. V. Dively, Blair; E. H.

dying embers; clothing is given away
for bread; horses and cattle are sacrificed at a tithe of their value; fodder is as scarce as human food; and in off and the straw made to feed the is as scarce as human food; and in some cases horse flesh has been sacrificed for sustenance. During the winter there is no work, and frequently fathers have left their wives and child ren to fight the battle of want alone, because they could do nothing and their absence would leave fewer The Finance Committee is as foll mouths to feed at home. The bread which many are eating is composed of wild arrock, potatoes, chaff and leaves, and these terrible conditions inevit ably produce disease. Within the radius of one mile there are 120 cases of typhus fever. Pestilence and hunger are daily gaining ground and decimating the people.

How TO RENDER AID .- Through January, February and March the roads are good, and all energies should WAY seliminate it through the be directed to pouring provisions into the suffering provinces. The rivers are frozen. Two or three railroads run into the famine-stricken region, but there are no branches of these railroads, and all provisions must be carried for long distances on sleighs The problem is, how to carry enough during the next three months, not only for immediate use, but also to tide over the period until the next Mrs. E. J. Rowell, No. 11 Quincy harvest shall be realized, which should treet, Medford, Mass., says that her be in July. > OPPORTUNITY FOR QUICK ACTION .-Time is a most important factor in the work of relief. Every week is vital Pitcher's Casteria.

One hundred and eighty million (180, 000,000) pounds of food are necessary. Fifty car loads should arrive every day in these stricken provinces, but only eleven carloads per day were received Christmas week. The emergency pending has not been realized, unfortunately, but the spectre of the famine has overshadowed everything, and every energy must be strained to mitigate the calamify. The Imperial Government has, up to the present time, appropriated 85,000. 000 roubles ($42,500,000) from the public treasury for the work of relief. But the work must still go on, and the expenditure must amount to a much higher sum.

The Russian Emperor has personally given enormously and all classes are giving according to their means. The loss to the government revenues will be at least 200,000,000 roubles (about $100,000 000) or more, while a conservative estimate of the loss to Russia, in view of all consequence, is placed at not less than 1,000,000,000 roubles ($500,000,000). Up to the present there have been few contributions from abroad, but the Government and the people of Russia are deeply sensible of the spontaneous offers that have been made in various parts of the United States, and the Emperor's Ministers, as well as others. have manifested such to Minister Smith in their expressions of apprecia

No free coinage bill can become a law this year. The certainty of a veto settles that. There is nothing to be settles that. There is nothing to be gained by the discussion of the cuestion in Congress at this session, while there is much to be lost. The Democracy asks the silver Democrats in Congress to postpone the discussion till next December, that a Democratic President may be surely elected; to postpone it till December for further light and leading; to post-pone it till December because no bill passed now can under any conceivable circumstances become law, to postpone it till December because the passage of such a bill now can be nothing but a firebrand in the party; because it would make every Eastern State, including even Maryland and Delaware.

Those who try Swamp-Root have generally drst employed the family physician, or used all the prescriptions within their reach without benefit. As a last resort, when their case has become chronic, the symptoms complicated and their constitution run down, then they take this remedy, and it is just such cases and cures as the one above that have made Swamp-Root famous and given it a world-wide reputation.
