To Horse Buyers.

A TIP THAT MAY BE USEFUL WHEN YOU ARE AT AUCTIONS.

"Let me give you a tip," said a prominent horse dealer to a prospective buyer yesterday. "When you go to a sale with the intention of picking up a bargain, read your catalogue carefully before you buy.

"Auction sales by reliable firms are honestly conducted, and they don't guarantee anything they're not reasonably sure of.

"Kind, sound and true," is the phrase you want to keep a special lookout for.

"Horses warranted kind and sound may have both of those qualities and yet turn out to be equine maniacs. Others guaranteed to be kind and true may be both and have the blind staggers, but a horse that is announced by a reliable firm to have all these desirable qualities is in the majority of cases all right. If you want a proof of this, go to any first-class sale and notice how the careful buyers let showy and attractive animals pass until a kind, sound and true animal appears. The price on him goes up like a rocket."

To Builders and Others.

Would you rather buy lamp-chimneys, one a week the year round, or one that lasts till some accident breaks it?

Common glass may break or not the minute you light your lamp; if not, the first draft may break it; if not, it may break from a mere whim.

Tough glass chimneys, Macbeth's "Pearl-top" or "Pearl-glass," almost never break from heat, not one in a hundred.

Where can you get it? and what does it cost?

Your dealer knows where and how much. It costs more than common glass; and may be, he thinks tough glass isn't good for his business.

Dr. G. C. Osgood, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. Kitchener, Conway, Ark.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. Archer, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

The recent snows drifted at a terrible rate. The roads were impassable in many places until opened.

The next step in the order of scholastic progression will be the opening of the public schools thirteen months in a year.

Week ago last Wednesday a way faring deer—large buck strolled across the ridges at this place; but a little beyond he met with a mishap that cost his skin.

Judge Krickbaum fell on the barn cellar steps and in consequence is confined to the house at present.

Last week the snow was sent in a hurry during the thaw.

The fitting season has again arrived, and many changes are taking place.

The silver question agitates a number of our people. The farmers appear to favor free coinage. At all events, they all seem to want more silver.

If the 70 cent dollar is an honest dollar now, why would it not be under free coinage?

Why should there be an effort to obtain a standard dollar for the world, when the conditions of nations are as different and varied as their several forms of government. It is only a step toward a standard of wages and a standard of prices of agricultural products. Let our own government coin its own money at its own standard regardless of other nations as we are not exchanging money coins but bills of credit.

The farmers will play a trick or two before many years.
