Do You Sweer?

Few people are aware that even in the innocent little mind-relieving expressions which the circumspect allow themselves in moments of pain, anger or astonishment are in reality but corruptions of oaths or disguised profanity, says the St. Louis Republic. he meant, and he replied: "Ministers say 'oh, dear,' and 'dear' as used woman: the love existing in a family. in that way is really a corruption of the French Dieu, God. Mon Dieu of France has become 'oh, dear' in English." Take that innocent word "pshaw" is from the Spanish ajalla, Portuguese oxalla, which words, from the gutteral quality of the j and x, are pronounced much like "pshaw." The Portuguese form is pronounced "oh psharlla," giving us very nearly the English "oh, pshaw." Ajalla and oxalla are derived from the Arabic and are relices of the Montiely accuration of Series of the Moorish occupation of Spain and Portugal. The final alla is the familiar Arabic Allah, God. The original expression is Mashallah, "would to God."

It must not be supposed that a woman is out of temper beccuse she moves about with a bang.

After suffering horribly for years from scrofula in its worst form, a young son of Mr. R. L. King, 706 Franklin st., Richmond, Va., was recently cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. No other medicine can approach this preparation as a cleanser of the blood.

If you have a Jonah among your friends don't sit down and cry about it; be a whale.

The professional thief is sometimes called a bird of prey, and yet he's only a robin'.

It is Not What We Say

But what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that makes it sell, and has given it such a firm and lasting hold upon the confidence of the people. The voluntary statements of thousands of people prove beyond question ti at this preparation possesses wonderful medicinal power.

Of course a fellow is pushed for time when an officer hustles him into a penitentiary.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my Lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Sayiour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all, eight bottles: it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at C. A. Kleim's Drug store, regular size, 50c. and $1.00.

Children Cry for

Some Kinds of Kisses.

HOW THIS UNEXPLAINABLE THING IS SANCTIFIED BY LOVE.

Whatever a kiss be, there is but one thing that sanctifies it, one thing that should permit it, one that should demand it, and that is love. Not neces-I once heard a man say, "Even sarily the love of a sweet heart; it may be the love of friendship, providing it woman: the love existing in a family.

Is not that kiss a mockery which one woman gives another when meet ing, when but a few momen's before she had been gossiping about the one she now sa'utes? We are thankful that at last fashion has taken it in hand and frees us from the gushing women who saluted us on all occasions with a kiss. We are glad that the custom of presenting the cheek in preference to the lips is becoming popular. It is a custom brought home by the foreign school girl and the convent bred girl of our land.

The girl who has been taught to of fer the che-k upon all occasions who has received a kiss on her brow, as a great honor, will not be so apt to give her lips to the first knight who comes a-wooing; the first man who flirts with her. She will know that her lips should only be kissed by one that she is sure loves her alone, and to whom alone she has given her heart.

We are told that the jealous Greek made his wife eat onions before she went from home. I wonder if she made him smoke cigarettes, drink beer and eat cheese when he went on his wanderings.

But truly the old Greek knew how o protect his wife's lips. One half the pleasure of a kiss is in its fragrance -the illusive sweetness that makes a child's face so tempting and alluring-From Music and Drama.
