OBITUARY. WELLIVERSVILLE, Pa., April 26th-92. This community was greatly surprised to learn of the death of Miss Anna Appleman who was a former associate and was highly esteemed by all who knew her. Her remains were interred at the Kitchen's Cemetery, on the 21st ult., where a large number of friends assembled to pay the last tribute of respect to the deceased.

'Tis with hearts of grief we say it, But with kindness, sad and true, That to witness the burial, Of our friend, was deepest woe.

She in portals, now Celestial,

Smiles in that blest abode. Though her smiles, when here among us, Memory recalls with truest love,

We will miss her from our circle, There will be a vacant place, Still memory, sweet, with us will linger,

Which time and age can ne'er efface. O'er her mound, the flowers still blooming,

We all know so soon will fade, But the one beneath them sleeping, Awaits the last call, from the grave.

In this world we ne'er shall meet her. Nevermore her hand we'll clasp,

Though if guided by our Saviour, We may gain that home at last.

A FRIEND.

It is Not What We Say

A cold of unusual severity develop ed into a difficulty decidedly catarrhal in all its characteristics, threatening areturn of my old malady, catarrh. One bottle of Ely's Cream Balm complete ly eradicated every symptom of that painful and prevailing disorder.—E. W. Warner, Rochester, N. Y.

When I began using Ely's Cream Balm my catarrh was so bad I had headache the whole time and discharged a large amount of filthy matter, That has almost entirely disappeared and I have not had headache since .-J. H. Sommers, Stephney, Conn. 4-29-2t

The most fashionable street garments are half fitting jackets. They are much liked in London, but American women seem not to take so kindly to them, preferring the more closely fitted wrap.
