Married in brown, you will live out of town.
Married in white, you have chosen all right.
Married in black, you will wish yourself back.
Married in red, you will wish yourself dead.
Married in yellow, ashamed of your fellow.
Married in pearl, you will live in a whirl.
Married in blue, he will always be true.
Married in pink, your spirits will sink.
Married in gray, you will go far away.
Married in green, ashamed to be seen.

Would you rather buy lamp-chimneys, one a week the year round, or one that lasts till some accident breaks it?
Common glass may break or not the minute you light your lamp; if not, the first draft may break it; if not, it may break from a mere whim.

Tough glass chimneys, Macbeth's "Pearl-top" or "Pearl-glass," almost never break from heat, not one in a hundred.
Where can you get it? and what does it cost?
Your dealer knows where and how much. It costs more than common glass; and may be, he thinks tough glass isn't good for his business.

Pittsburgh, Pa. GEO. A. MACBETH CO.

The question no longer is, Will Mr. Blaine be nominated? but, Will he stand?

If the man from Maine shall maintain his attitude of the past ten days—or since The World first announced the plan of the anti-Harrison leaders to nominate him in spite of everything—that plan will probably be carried out.

Silence will be accepted as consent!—it is already so accepted. And if the Republican party can have Blaine as its candidate it is scarcely conceivable that it will not take him, even by constraint.

And yet there is a doubt. After putting aside a nomination which he might have had in 1888, and declining to be considered a candidate in February last, the question is asked how Mr. Blaine can consent to accept now a nomination that must be fought for and that will leave bitter heart-burnings behind.

Does Mr. Blaine simply covet the unique distinction of being the only American who ever declined a Presidential nomination actually tendered?

Or are the Big Four—Reed, Platt, Quay, and Clarkson—using Mr. Blaine as a cover behind which to rally an opposition that may be utilized eventually for another—for Reed himself, or Sherman, Allison, or Lincoln? What are the little games inside the big game?—World.

Judge Sadler, of Carlisle, last week filed an opinion which is of interest to all soldiers holding peddling license. The opinion is in the matter of John Webbert versus the county of Cumberland. It seems that Webbert has a soldier license and on that has been purchasing butter, eggs and poultry; and selling them. The County Treasurer then comes and demands a huckster's license of $12. This was paid by Webbert and he then brought suit against the county to recover. A case stated was made and Judge Sadler decided against the plaintiff and directed the judgment with cost be entered for the defendant, the county. This decision was made on the ground that the act of Assembly in regard to the soldier's license only permitted the holder to peddle, hawk and vend; but did not give him "any right to purchase or barter for butter, eggs or poultry."

How to Tell a Good Horse.
"I never ask about a horse's traits," said a horse buyer the other day. "All I want is a good square look in the face. Once in a hundred times I may mistake the head, but not oftener than that, I believe."

It doesn't require an expert to read horses' faces, either. A person who has never handled a horse can saunter down Broadway any afternoon and point out the good, docile family carriage horse, the biting horse, the treacherous animal, the one likely to kick or run at any moment, or the proud, high-spirited horse that may be dangerous and yet not vicious in the least.

The kicking horse can nearly always be singled out by the vicious gleam in his eye which stamps him a born kicker. Of all horses, though, the miserable looking horse attracts most attention. This is the horse persecuted by the check-rein. Like men and women who wear shoes too small, he shows the outward evidence of misery. Many good-natured horses, horsemen say, have been made fretful and vicious by being enslaved by the infamous and cruel check-rein. There are horses broken down by long and continuous service for man, which show sad facial expression.

Fixed Stars.
There are no fixed stars in the firmament of mankind. Each shines for the time appointed, and is then blotted out to make room for others. But the heavens never grow wholly dark, for, as one great light fades, flickers, and is extinguished, another appears in an unexpected quarter. Every age has its exceptional men, and though it may seem impossible to fill their places when they depart, it somehow happens—such is the richness of human nature—that their places are always filled.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last winter she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at C. A. Klein's Drugstore.

THE MOST RELIABLE

To correct the constipated habit, remove sick-headache, relieve dyspepsia, to purify the blood, cure jaundice, liver complaint, and biliousness, Ayer's Pills are unequalled. They are an excellent after-dinner pill, assisting the process of digestion, and cleansing and strengthening the alimentary canal. When taken on the invasion of a cold or a fever, they effectually prevent further progress of the disease. Being sugar-coated and purely vegetable, they are the best medicine, for old and young. Ayer's Pills are indispensable to soldiers, sailors, campers, miners, and travelers, and are everywhere recommended by the medical fraternity. Dr. J. W. Hayes, Palouse, W. T., writes: "Ayer's Pills are the most evenly balanced in their ingredients, of any I know of." "For more than twenty years I have used Ayer's Pills as a corrective for torpidity of the stomach, liver, and bowels, and to ward off malarial attacks, and they have always done perfect work."—U. F. Goodwin, Publisher Democrat, St. Laundry, La.

Family

"I was master of a sailing vessel for many years, and never failed to provide a supply of Ayer's Pills, for the use of both officers and men. They are a safe and reliable and always give satisfaction."—Harry Robinson, 52 E. Pearl St., Fair Haven, Conn. "For a long time I was a sufferer from stomach, liver, and kidney troubles, and having tried a variety of remedies, with only temporary relief, I began, about three months ago, the use of Ayer's Pills, and already my health is so much improved that I gladly testify to the superior merits of this cathartic."—Manceo Jorge Pereira, Oporto, Portugal.

$15,500 FOR A LEG.
THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD WILL HAVE TO PAY REV. HOLDEN THAT.
Rev. Mr. Holden was awarded $15,500 by the jury in his suit against the Pennsylvania Railroad company. The jury was out three hours. The plaintiffs though they had sued for $100,000 were much pleased and satisfied with the verdict, which by the way is the largest one a Luzerne county jury ever awarded for a leg. It was a damage suit for $100,000 against the Pennsylvania Railroad by Rev. Mr. Holden, now of Long Island, but formerly of Hazleton. In August, 1888, Rev. Holden was pastor of the Hazleton Episcopal church and one day while out driving with Mrs. J. C. Hayden, one of his parishioners, a Pennsylvania passenger train struck the buggy at what is known as Cranberry crossing, two miles from Hazleton. The rig was smashed to pieces, Mrs. Hayden badly lacerated, and Rev. Holden had a leg cut off. The case of the plaintiff is that the accident occurred because there was no warning signal given and because as the crossing is on a heavy curve the plaintiff was not able to see the train approaching. The decision of Rev. Holden to sue the company resulted in a dispute with some of the trustees of the church and he was obliged to leave. The plaintiff was represented by John T. Lenahan, Alex. Farnham and Attorney Drayton, of Philadelphia, a cousin of J. Coleman Drayton, and the defendant company by H. W. Palmer and F. W. Wheaton.
