The Lightstreet and Espy M. E. churches will go on an excursion to Central on the B. & S. on Saturday July 23rd. If stormy on that day it will be postponed to Wednesday 27th.

H. P. Chamberlin has been in town for several days making arrangements to open his new steam laundry on Centre street as soon as the building is completed.

Third street has been much improved between Jefferson and West, by filling in with the loose stone hauled from Market. It has been a bad spot there for years, in wet weather.

On Saturday the 23rd a Harvest Home Picnic and Excursion will be taken to Central Park. Music, speaking, refreshments, and other good things to be had on the ground. Look out for particulars next week. Under auspices of Light-Steet and Espy M. E. Church.

The strip of two feet between the pavement and the gutter in front of the Episcopal church and Rectory has been nicely sodded, and made ready for cobbling in the gutter. A heavy rain will wash it all out. The street commissioner should attend to the cobbling without further delay, as the town would likely be at the expense of doing the work a second time.

"I was prostrated with a severe bilious complaint," writes Erastus Southworth, of Bath, Me. "After vainly trying a number of remedies, I was finally induced to take Ayer's Pills. I had scarcely taken two boxes when I was completely cured."

"NOW WE SMILE."

Under the above headline, in the columns of the Bloomsburg Daily and the Democratic Sentinel of July 7th, appeared the following effusion of a brilliant intellect:

"NOW WE SMILE."

"Two red hot binder contests took place Tuesday. The first at Wm. Masteller's between the Johnston Continental Binder, sold by H. V. White & Co., and the New Deering Binder, sold by D. W. Kitchen. The wheat was very large and badly tangled, the weather rainy, the ground hilly, and both machines were tested to the utmost, but long before noon Mr. Kitchen very gracefully conceded the victory to the Johnston and left the field.

After dinner the contest was renewed at Howard Ohl's between the Johnston and the Osborne, handled by C. H. Bomboy. Here again both machines were thoroughly tried and White & Co. carried off the victory. In both cases White & Co. had placed the Johnston Binder ready for operation with a guarantee it would do good work, and the other machine came in to "knock out the Johnston," but they couldn't and "NOW WE SMILE."

H. V. WHITE & CO.
MORAL.—Try the Johnston Binder before you buy."

Were it not for the malicious misrepresentation of facts, the article would be beneath our notice.

We did not "concede the victory to the Johnston and leave the field." When Mr. Masteller expressed his desire to test the merits of the two machines without the assistance of either agent, we left the field trusting to the integrity of our competitors to do likewise. They however remained upon the premises, and when next we saw our machine, "we smiled" at the re-adjustments that had been made after we left the field, to make our binder work at a disadvantage.

Such an unmanly, contemptible act as that needs no comment from us. In the eyes of a right minded public, it speaks for itself.

We always smile from a sincere feeling of pleasure. We never purchase our "smiles".

Another Binder contest took place on the farm of Joseph Zeisloff, near Jerseytown, between the Deering Iron Steel Binder and the Johnston Continental Binder, on July 8th.

This time we were wise enough to stand by our machine, and with a "smile that was child-like and bland" we watched the Famous Deering whip the Johnston at every turn; and we are sorry to record that our competitors did not leave the field and "concede the victory to us" in a very "graceful manner". But then we presume the extreme warm weather accounts for the condition of their temper.

We desire to express our thanks to Mess. H. V. White & Co., for the assistance rendered to our customer on Summer Hill, and to assure them that we fully appreciate their kindness.

In closing we would bring to the mind of our esteemed competitors the old adage: "He laughs best, who laughs last" D. W. KITCHEN.

MORAL.—When you "smile" be sure to "smile" at the proper time.

REPLY TO D. W. KITCHEN.

The following letter from William Masteller and his two sons, three of the most reputable men of the County and whose character and reputation for honesty and integrity cannot be questioned, explains itself:—

H. V. WHITE & CO.
GENTLEMEN:—

After reading the account in the Bloomsburg Daily of yesterday of the Binder contest at our place last week we feel that we owe to you a statement of just how this matter was—

When you came, in May last, to sell us a Johnston Binder, we agreed that you could set one up on our barn floor and when the time came we would try it and if it did as good work as any Binder we would keep it and pay $125.00 for it. Some time after your machine was in our barn Mr. Kitchen came and agreed to pay us $5.00 to get one of his Deering Binders to try with yours. We accepted his offer, brought out his binder, notified you and fixed upon the day for the contest. Both were on hand as stated and each worked his machine for all it was worth. We did not invite the agents to leave the field as stated, but did invite you and your men to take dinner with us and you did. Neither you nor your men, nor any one else, "readjusted" the Deering Binder in Mr. Kitchen's absence and it was unfair and unkind in him to state that he had done so mean a trick, or that we had permitted it. The contest was fair and honorable, in the presence of some twenty-five men, and your Binder done the best work and ran much lighter and we decided to keep it and pay the price agreed upon, ($125.00). In fact we could do nothing else, as honorable men, as it had done all we could ask and you had fulfilled your part of the contract. When Mr. Kitchen came back the next day and in your absence we tried his Binder again, we consented to do so to give him a fair show and in going once around the field the sheep carrier failed to carry the sheaves down hill, or an siding in the grain the machine would not cut six feet wide, and we condemned it and returned it and he paid us as he had agreed. Now this is just how it all was and we think it was wrong and mean for Mr. Kitchen to misrepresent the case.

(Signed) D. H. MASTELLER,
W. CLAUD MASTELLER,
WM. MASTELLER.

The above statement must prove conclusively that D. W. Kitchen deliberately and maliciously misrepresented the facts connected with the contest at Mr. Masteller's and "in the eyes of a right minded public, it speaks for itself.

We did not represent the Johnston

Binder at Mr. Zeisloff's as it was out of our territory but we know that Mr. Zeisloff refused to permit a contest on July 8th, stating that he had purchased Mr. Kitchen's Binder and would not try any other. He said Mr. Kitchen paid him $5. cash to bring out the Deering Binder, gave him a bale of twine and a truck for his "Famous Deering" Folding Binder. We submit that it is much easier to understand, why Mr. Kitchen sported a "Smile that was child-like and bland", than to understand what he meant when he stated "we never purchase our smiles". Mr. Kitchen's Summerhill customer, Silas Shuman, saw Mr. Creveling tugging along a "Famous Deering" with three horses and then saw Mr. McBride cut a wider swath with two small horses in a Johnston and it required no bribe on our part to get him to return the Deering and buy a Johnston. and Mr. Kitchen with the aid of Shuman's father-in-law whom he brought from Millville, could not coax Mr. Shuman to reconsider and take the Deering. These are the facts in the several cases. We have not cut prices on a single binder. We are not ashamed of our record. We are sorry to be obliged to reply to the malicious falsehoods used to injure us after the harvest is over. We refer the public to our customers and have nothing more to say.

PURE OLD RYE AND WHEAT WHISKEY.

We formerly had bonded warehouse room sufficient to store 8,000 gallons of whiskey, which we considered a stock sufficient to meet our trade, but found however, the demand for our whiskey such, that for us to be able to get a larger stock of old whiskey, we were compelled to increase our storage room and have just completed an Ironclad bonded warehouse with a capacity sufficient to store 20,000 gallons of whiskey.

We aim to sell no whiskey less than one year old and from that on up to the oldest we have in stock except in original packages, thereby giving our patrons the benefit of the age.

What we claim over a great many other distillers: First: Briarcreek being a rich fertile valley, we are able to get a superior quality of grain to manufacture our whiskey from. Second: Having our flooring mill in connection with our distillery we clean all our grain for distillation over a rigid process of the smelter, thereby making it as clean as the grain that is ground into flour. Third: We have mash, double distill our whiskey and then re-distill on a copper distill. Fourth: We teach our whiskey well thereby getting out the full oil and all impurities, with new whiskey contains. Fifth: We use no second-hand barrels, our whiskey is all put in new, clean, Indiana White Oak barrels which is considered the best barrel in the market. Sixth: It is a known fact that the better whiskey is kept the faster it will age, therefore, we have our bonded warehouse with steam heat, the thermometer will register 70 degrees, when the temperature is at zero. We have never distilled any corn, and do hereby guarantee all our whiskey, positively pure 100% and for purity and quality we defy competition, and to any person who will find any poisonous drug in our whiskey, put in by us, as it leaves our distillery or sales-room we will forfeit $200.00.
