LATEST FROM HOMESTEAD.

THE SITUATION IS LITTLE CHANGED SINCE LAST WEEK.

PITTSBURG, AUG. 8-The seventh week of the great strike begins to day with no particular change at Homestead since last Sunday excepting that the company has more men at work. Outwardly the strikers are as firm as ever, but many privately express a desire to return to work and say they are only deterred by the influences of the majority. The company now has fully twelve hundred men in the mill, but many of these would have to give way to the old men, if they would decide to go back The Carnegie company has promised that the new men will not be disturbed, but of course this reters only to the ones whose work is satisfactory.

The three regiments of the National Guard are still on duty and at least two regiments will remain as long as there is any danger of an out-

An attempt will be made to start the Duquesne plant this morning. The furnaces have been lighted and charged and everything is in readiness to resume operations. Master Mechanic Miller stated last night that sixty per cent, of the old men had returned to work in the mechanical depart-ment already and he expect at least 300 men to-day. It is the intention to start the blooming, converting; billet and mechanical departments. Vice President Carey of the Amalgamated association, is not inclined to believe Miller's statement and says he is confident that not one man will go back, The residents of Duquense were greatly excited last night. They apprehend that if any of the men attempt to go into the mill an effort will be made by some of the strikers to prevent them doing so. In the event of this, collision with the militia is probable, as two campanies of the Sixteenth regiment are still on guard on the hill above the mill.

There is no change at the Union mills in this city and no effort has yet been made to resume operations at the Beaver Falls plant.

TO SAVE LIFE.

LABORDE'S METHOD OF RESTORING BREATH IN DESPERATE CASES.

From the London News.

Anybody may be called upon to afford assitance to drowned persons while the doctor is being sent for, and Professor Laborde's simple method for restoring breath when all other means have failed deserves to be universaly known. The other day at a watering place in Normandy two bathers, a young man and a boy, who were unable to swim, went out of taeir depth and disappeared. They were brought on shore inanimate, and were taken to the village. Two doctors were sent for, but the young man gave no sign of life, and they were declared dead.

Mr. Laborde, who was fishing at l alf an hour's distance, came up as soon as he heard of the accident. He examined the body and found that the extremities were cold and the heart had stopped. Then taking hold of the root of tongue he drew it violently forward, giving it a succession of jerks in order to excite the reflex action of the breathing apparatus, which is always extremely sensitive. At the end of a few minutes a slight hiccough showed that the patient was saved. In addition to the usual restorative means, Professor Laborde in extreme cases rubs the chest with towels soaked in nearly boiling water.

ALL SHOULD REMEMBER.

1. That all nominations of candidates to be voted on the general or local tickets in November next, must be certified to the State Department at Harrisburg on or before the 13th of September. All nominations not thus certified can't be printed on the uniform ticket to be voted by all at the election.

2. That every otherwise qualified voter, excepting those who will vote on age - because between 21 and 22 years of age on election day - must be assessed on or before the 8th of September, unless they were assessed last year.

3. That all who have paid a State or county tax within two years, must pay such tax on an assessment made within two years, on or before the 8th of October.

4. That failure to file nominations in time practically defeat the candidates whose name are not thus filed; that failure to be assessed forfeits the right to vote, and that failure to pay a State or county tax within two years, also disfranchises the citizen

All should remember these dates. Every party should see that its nomination are filed within the time specified by the new law, and every citizen who respect his manhood should look to his own assessment personally, and personally his own taxes. The man who expects his party committee to pay his poll-tax simply selis his vote to his party for 25 cents a year .- Times.

PROTECTION IN PRACTICE.

An Incontrovertible Statement Made by a Technical Mugazine. The Engineering and Mining Journal gives an exceedingly valuable illustration of the manner in which a protective tariff raises its beneficiaries above the operations of the natural law of trade.

The illustration concerns steel rails, which are now $4 a ton higher than they were in 1885, although the cost of pro-duction and the tariff tax are less and the demand is slight. The command of the market by reason of the tariff on rails and the ownership of the Bessemer patents has enabled the rail makers to fix arbitrarily the price of their products.

The American manufacturers make much of the fact that improved machinery has greatly increased their out-put, and The Journal estimates that the cost of producing steel rails, when the manufacturer makes his own pig, cannot exceed $20 a ton. In 1885 steel rails sold at $26 a ton, and the cost of Bessemer pig alone was $16. At $30 a ton the profits on the annual output of steel rails is necessarily between $10,000,000 and $12,000,000.

That the protective tariff gives this enormous dividend to the makers, who instead of increasing wages are trying to cut them down, is shown by an examination of English prices. In May, 1892, English rails sold for $19.44. The duty on this $18.44 would make their price $33.88, not counting freight and insurance. It is clear therefore that $30 is the price at which the English rails can be kept out. While the English price has fallen since 1885 from $23.17 a ton to $19.44, the price of English pig has risen from $10.69 a ton to $12.15.

In other words, the English maker pays $1.48 more for his pig and gets $3.73 less for his rails. At the same time, while the price of American rails advanced from $26 to $30 a ton, the price of American pig fell from $17 to $14 a ton, so that the American maker paid $3 less for his pig and got $4 more for his product.

This gain he keeps for himself.-New York World.

WHAT THE FORCE BILL MEANS.

The Timely Warning of a Stanch Demo

The Lodge force bill passed by the Re publican house of representatives in the Reed congress two years ago, and prac-tically indered by the Republican party in its national convention at Minneapo lis, is a long and in places a tedious doc-ument. It was carefully drawn with the purpose of muddling the unprofes-sional reader and of beclouding in a see of cuttlefish obscurity some of its most dangerous and revolutionary provisions.

But a casual reading reveals it as an insidious attempt to subvert the constitution of the United States and to substitute government by federal returning boards for free representative government of and by the people. Even if its other provisions were honest—which they are not—its openly avowed purpose of taking control of congressional elec-tions out of the hands of officers chosen by the people of the several states and vesting it in judges appointed by the president would suffice to damn its authors to everlasting infamy as traitors to the American system of government. -St. Louis Republic.

Was This Collateral Nepotlam?

President Harrison has vetoed the bill for the relief of William McGarrahan. know when they get hold of a good Naturally. McGarrahan is poor and the article. They recently sent a number mines to which McGarrahan lays claim are rich. And one of these, too, is Pacific Railroad Magnate D. O. Mills, father-in-law to Whitelaw Reid, who is President Harrison's present running mate. Mr. Harrison will have a hard job in explaining away this veto. The bill to which he refused his signature merely provided for referring McGarrahan's case to the court of claims where it could be acted upon judicially and the right and the law and the equity in the matter be determined. President Harrison's veto means simply that Mc-Garrahan is deprived of the right to be heard in the courts. But then McGar-rahan is poor, and D. O. Mills is in the habit of contributing liberally to the Republican campaign fund.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

The Effect of Harrison's Speeches. The situation in Indiana is very un satisfactory to the Republicans this year, and they will make extraordinary efforts to carry that state. Harrison' plurality in 1888 was only 2,848. A change of 1,200 votes would have given its electoral vote to Cleveland. Two years later the Democratic candidate for secretary of state beat his Republican opponent by 19,579. That was in the "tidal wave" following the passage of the McKinley bill and President Harrison's force bill scheme, and his speechifying tour through the middle and western states.-Charleston News and
