"House boating" has grown to be a very popular amusement along the Susquehanna. A party that decides on house boating first builds a flat boat of any size and dimensions desired, a cabin or tent is pitched in the middle of the big float and the party makes itself comfortable therein and thereon. Then they launch the craft and "dream and idly float" and smoke, and fish, and tell stories, and drink beer and play euchre till they get sick of it. Then they sell the boat and go home on the cars. Those who have been down the river this year say they are going twice next year. It seems to be an inexpensive outing, and can be made very quiet, civil and moral, or just the reverse, according to the company.—Sullivan Review.

A FORTUNE

Inherited by few, is pure blood, free from hereditary taint. Catarrh, consumption, rheumatism, Scrofula, and many other maladies born in the blood, can be effectually eradicated only by the use of powerful alteratives. The standard specific for this purpose—the one best known and approved—is Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the compound, concentrated extract of Honduras sarsaparilla, and other powerful alteratives.

"I consider that I have been SAVED several hundred dollars' expense, by using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and would strongly urge all who are troubled with lameness or rheumatic pains to give it a trial. I am sure it will do them permanent good, as it has done me."—Mrs. Joseph Wood, West Plattsburgh, N. Y.

Dr. J. W. Shields, of Smithville, Tenn., says: "I regard Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood medicine on earth, and know of many wonderful cures effected by its use."

"For many years I was laid up with Scrofula, no treatment being of any benefit. At length I was recommended to give Ayer's Sarsaparilla a trial. I did so, and about a dozen bottles, was restored to perfect health—weighing 230 pounds—and am now a believer in the merits of Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—James Patsy, Mine Boss, Breckenridge Coal Co. (Limited), Victoria, Ky.

"My niece, Sarah A. Losee, was for years afflicted with scrofulous humor in the blood. About 18 months ago she began to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and after taking three bottles was completely cured."—E. Caffall, P. M., Losce, Utah.

EARLY TRAINING.

To one who has given a moiety of thought to the struggle of a child in trying to see what his teacher means, who remembers his own blind faith, when required to recite "the world is round like an apple" (we used to wonder which apple) or to recite the nine times backward, the kindergarten presents itself as a belated luminary.

This important foundation stone for all successful teaching was long rejected by the builders and even at its renaissance so hidden by the fossiliferous stratum of self conceit and unwillingness to "ring out the old" that a universal recognition of its untold value is still in the future.

It has been said "Je pence, dons je suis", (I think, therefore I am.) To aid the proper development of this positive proof of existing capable intelligence—not prematurely thus taxing the mental powers beyond healthful endurance but by nature's own beautiful method is the aim of the kindergarten.

Children are not ready made machines but growing plants, reaching out in every direction and eagerly absorbing from their environments whatever will tend to supply the demands of the increasing capacity for thought food; not however,
