COUNTY.

FOR CONGRESS, S. P. WOLVERTON, FOR REPRESENTATIVES, E. M. TEWKSBURY, ANDREW L. FRITZ.

The Towarda Review and the Athens News, two independent Republican papers of Bradford county, support the fusion ticket. Politics will be lively in Bradford this fall.

The republican Congressional Conferees of the Seventeenth district met at Danville Monday and placed in momination Chandler Eves of Millville, Columbia county.

All who expect to vote this year for the first time should have their names placed on the assessors list before Thursday Sept. 8, and have the word "age" marked after their name. Those who have just moved into the district should have the letter "R" placed after their name. Let every democrat attend to this important matter at once.

The Western Campaign fund that is being raised through the efforts of the New York World is growing at the rate of almost $1000, a day. The COLUMBIAN last week published a list of fifteen who each gave one dollar. We expect a much larger list in a week or two. Who will join it? Send in your names with amount from ten cents up, and we will acknowledge in the columns of THE COLUMBIAN, and if you prefer, send in your money dir-

The republican senatorial conference of the twenty-seventh districts composed of Union, Snyder and Northumberland counties, on Friday last succeeded in nominating a candi date after taking 214 ballots. The Union county conferees withdraw their candidate, and W. H. Hockenburg, of Milton, Northumberland county, was nominated. The Union county conferees refused to make the nomination unamious, and withdrew from the conference in an ill humor. The district is republican by about 1200, and with a total vote of 20,000. It will take hard work to elect Hackenburg. The present member is Samuel D. Bates of Lewisburg, Union county, who served one term. Mr. Bates was a soldier and a director in many public works about Lewisburg.

In another column we give a draft showing a form of room for voting, and the manner of seating of the election officers. We purpose from week to week to publish all information we can gather that will aid the voter. We should be pleased to have any of our patrons send in questions relative to this new system of voting, and we will answer through the columns of THE COLUMBIAN. The democratic club of Bloomsburg will soon erect several hooths and hold mock elections, so that the masses may be educated to vote rapidly. Under the law three minutes is allowed each voter. No electioneering is allowed in the inclosure, nor no circulars or bills posted. A card of instructions and penalties and sample ballots are posted up.

The guard rail must be six feet from the table containing the ballot box. The voter enters the gates of the guard rail at the right gets the ballot from the clerk, passes to booth, gives it to an inspector who deposits ballot in box, and passes out at the left of the guard rail. No voter can enter the room after once voting unless he be called in to assist another in preparing a ballot. The voter before passing through the guard rail mu., give his name and residence to one of the election officers; if the voter be challenged his right to vote must be established before he can be admitted. As soon as a voter is admitted within the guard rail the election officers having charge of the ballots shall detach a ballot from the stub and give it to the voter, but first fold it so that the words printed on the back and outside, are the only words visible. Four voters may be allowed inside the guard rail in excess of the number of polling booths.

After the closing of the polls any voter or voters shall be admitted in the room outside of guard rail.

The Campaign in New York.

The fact that New York is a doubtful State in Presidential elections will only stimulate the democrats to more determined efforts to carry it.

Doubtful though it is, the chances of carrying New York are favorable to the Democrats.

In seven successive Presidential elecions the State has been carried alter-

In nine successive elections for State officers the Democrats have won. The State government is now entirely in Democratic hands, and this is a strong point in an election.

In the last election for representatives in Congress the Democrats carried twenty-three of the thirty-four districts by an aggreeate plurality of nearly 80,000. They repeated the victory last year, with national issues at the front, by a plurality of nearly 50,000.

The new election laws, insuring a secret ballot and requiring registration in the country as well as in the cities, will materially help the Democrats.

The candidate for President, though nominated against the voice of the New York delegation, is loyally supported by all Democrats and will receive the votes of thousand of independent citizens.

What RICHARD CROKER has just said for Tammany Hall is said or felt by the local leaders everywhere; they are determined that "the next President must be a Democrat," and are put upon their honor and their mettle to give to CLEVELAND and STEVENSON the largest vote ever cast for Democratic candidates in this

But in order that these good omens may be fulfilled, and these loyal purposes realized, certain things must be done

1. The party must be thoroughly organized organized as THDEN marshalled the Democratic voters in his day, and as HILL has arrayed and inspired them for the past seven years.

This must be done through the regular organization in the usual way. Any voluntary association of Demoings and distribute all the documents that it please: but the attempt in any county either to discredit or to ignore the committee regularly constituted and commissioned by the party would inevitably result in division disaster. All such misguided zeal should be resolutely suppressed.

II The principles of the Democratic party have been plainly and authoritatively declared in the national platform. They should be boldly and persistently defended. No party ever won, or deserved to win, by cowardice, concealment or evasion.

The Democratic party is a tariff reform honest money, anti-Force-bill, anti-monopoly party. A winning fight in this State can only be made by a courageous assertion of Demo cratic principles and purposes

III. There must be a speaking as well as a reading and an organizing campaign. A "still hunt" in a Presidential year is an absurdity and an invitation to defeat.

IV. At the proper time there must be a careful attention to the registrat ion of voters and to the instruction of election officers in their duty.

In all of this work THE WORLD will help to the utmost of its re sources and ability. It reaches every election district. It is read equally by Democratic, Republican, Independent and doubtful voters. And while giving the news of both parties impartially, every number of The World, as the campaign progresses, will be a document of the sort that is read-an appeal to the reason that is sure to be heard.

The next President must be a Democrat.

And to that end the electoral vote of New York is highly desirable and may be absolutely necessary .- The World.

Fusion Growing all Around.

It seems to be settled that the Republicans of Arkansas will withdraw their ticket for Governor and other State officers to be elected on the 1st Monday of September, and cast the solid vote of the party for the People's State ticket, and the People's party will in turn cast their solid vote for the Republican Presidential Electors in November. Both Weaver and Field. the People's candidates for President and Vice President, have been actively stumping in Arkansas, and they are hopeful of carrying their State ticket by a fusion of the two parties.

The same fusion was aggressively tried in Arkansas two years ago, and it was defeated 20,000. It is estimated that the People's party is now stronger in Democratic recruits than it was then, but the experience of Alabama is likely to be repeated in a break of the colored vote in view of open trade of the Presidential Electors to the Republican and Force Bill candidate for President will be likely to the expectations of the promotors. make many Democratic converts fall abama, and if it shall be accomplished, what then? At first blush it would inspire the supporters of Harrison to claim a divided South in the Electoral College, but if the division of the South shall be made probable, what must be the effect of this People's victory on the dozen or more wobbling Western States? If they can win in tions the State has been carried alternately by the two great parties. This is the Democratic year.

In pine successive elections for and Michigan and throw Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin and possibly California, Oregon and Washington either way? Looking at the success of fusion with the People's party as we may, it presents a double-edged sword. If the solid South can be broken by the new party, the greatest hindrance to the breaking of a solid Republican West would be removed, and the probable outcome would be the loss of two or three Southern States to the Democrats and the loss of a dozen Western States to the Republicans, with the defeat of both candidates in the Electoral College and the election of Cleveland by the House.

WORK IN THE WEST COMMENCED.

DEMOCRATS PLEASED WITH THE CHI-CAGO BRANCH HEADQUARTERS.

A large number of despatches, principally from the States west of the Ohio River, were received at the Democratic National Headquarters congratulating and praising the Campaign Committee for establishing branch headquarters in Chicago.

The action of the committee was the principal topic of conversation at headquarters, and all the prominent without the least semblence of founprospect of successful fighting campaign in the doubtful Western States. Senator Calvin S. Brice, of Ohio, in speaking of the Western headquarters said: "The conditions have greatly changed since 1888. when the contest turned upon the voters of New York, New Jersey Connecticut and Indiana, Since then so many Western States have gone Democratic in State and Congressional elections that any result favorable to the Democracy may be regarded as probable. Une der these circumstances special effort in that section of the country has become justifiable and proper, and likely to promote the success of the Democratic National ticket"

Senator Eppa Hunton of Virginia, spoke with much confidence of the result of the Presidential election in his State. The Republicans imagine they are going to press us very hard in Virginia, he said, and they are preparing to use the third party movement to draw strength away from us much as possible. But they are reckoning without their host.

F. G. du Big non, ex-President of the State of Georgia, and Chairman of the Georgia delegation to the Chicago Convention, said yesterday: I have been making several speeches in Georgia against the third party men, and I think that the Democratic organization has the situation well in hand. I am convinced there is no danger of our party losing the State. and that she will roll up our accustomed Democratic majority in November.

Senator du Bignon, who is regarded as one of the most eloquent speakers of the South, has, at the request of the National Committee, agreed to deliver addresses in the west and in Northeastern States, including New

Gen. Martin T. McMahon, the Tammany Hall Senator of Eighth New York District, spoke to the following effect in his obser-vation on the condition of the campaign in his and adjoining States: The situation this year is peculiar, and differs from that of previous Presidential contests. In fact, people are everywhere moving in their respective localities without waiting for machine impulse or instructions. In this way, while formal State action is not in advance of previous years, the campaign is really further on.

Instruction, impaired in 1888, has been enforced by subsequent events and the campaign of education on the evils of monopoly taxation has been carried on steadily through striking object lessons within the experience of all with other great issues. The freedom and locol control of popular elections has been brought in peril and the people are rising to defend the home-rule ballot-box against concerted assault, which applies to all sections of the country alike. I have no more doubt about Cleveland and Stevenson carrying New York than I have about my own election last year to the seat in the Senate which I now hold.

Smith M. Wood, of Plattsburg, was also a caller at headquarters. He said the situation in his part of the State never looked more encouragthe Force Bill issue so pointedly pre- ing. Reports received of Cleveland sented in Harrison as the Republican and Stevenson meetings everywhere are candidate for President. Then the strongly gratifying on account of the spontaneous enthusiasm exhibited, and the fact that the gatherings exceed

Mr. Cleveland Amazed-

HE RITTERLY DENIES THAT HE WAS THE MEDIUM THROUGH WHICH 20, 000 PEOPLE WERE MADE HOMELESS.

Michael Shelly, a merchant of Chattanooga, got into a discussion recently on national politics with a Republican neighbor who asserted "during Mr. Cleveland's administration he (Cleveland) permitted Land Commissioner A. J. Sparks to turn out 20, 000 families from their homes in Min nesota and other Northwestern States." Mr. Shelly adressed a letter to Mr. Cleveland on the subject and received the following reply:-

"GRAY GABLES, BUZZARD' BAY, Mass., Aug. 22, 1892. My Dear Sir :—Your letter of the 12th inst. is at hand. In reply I have to say that I have not the least idea what 'your worthy friend' meant when he declared that 'I had been the medium through which 20,000 families were made homeless and lost their all fighting for their rights.' I am perfectly well aware that I have been the means of saving some homes to my countrymen and have tried very hard to make the burden of their lives easier. I am amazed at receiving from the Southern country letters containing charges like that which you bring to my attention.

"I am surprised, first, at the ingenuity necessary for their concoction callers were enthusiastic over the dation. I am more amazed that with my record before the people of this country such baseless lies should be deemed sufficient arguments to prejudice me, and the cause which I for the time being represent, in the minds of the Southern people. We formerly had bonded warehouse room sufficient to sto e 8,000 gallons of whiskey, which we considered a stock sufficient to meet our trade, but we found however, the demand for our whiskey such, that for us to be able to get a larger stock of old whiskey, we were compelled to increase our storage room and have just completed an Ironclad bonded warehouse with a capacity sufficient to store 20,000 gallons of whiskey.

giving our patrons the benefit of the age.

What we claim over a great many other distillers:

First, Bristrereek being a rich fertile valley, we are able to get a superior quality of grain to manufacture our whiskey from.

SKOND: Having our flouring mill in connection with our distillery we clean all our grain for distil ation over a rigid process of the shouter, thereby, making it as clean as the grain that is ground into flour.

Third: we hand mash, double distill our whiskey and then re-distill on a copper distill. FOURTH: We leach our whiskey well thereby getting out the fusil oil and all impurities, which new whiskey contains.

Firm: We use no second-handed barrels, our whiskey is all rut in new, clean, Indiana White Oak barrels which is considered the best barrel in the market.

SIXTH: It is a known fact that the hotter whiskey is kept the faster it will age, therefor, we heat our bonded ware-house with steam so the thermometer will register 70 degrees, when the temperature is at zero.

We have never distilled any corn, and do hereby guarantee all our whiskey positively pur ye or wheat and for purity and quality we dery competition, and to any person who will find any poisonous drug in our whiskey, put in by us, as it leaves our distillery or sales-room we will forfeit $600.00.
