Arkansas held an election for State officers, Monday. The People's party and republican party had formed alliance, and the republicans were emocratic ticket, The democratic mojority in 1888 was 27,210. The latest returns indicate that the demo- voted. cratic majority on Monday will reach nearly 40,000. In 1888 the Counties of Jefferson, Desha, Chicot, Phillips and Pulaski gave a republican

On Tuesday an election was held in Vermont for governor and state officers. The State gave a republican majority in 1888 of 28995. The returns this year indicate a republican majority of about 20,000 a falling of 9,000 since 1888. These are the two first chills for candidate Harrison.

Mr. Dougherty is Dead-

Daniel Dougherty, the distinguished orator and well known lawyer, died at his home, 2021 Spruce street, at a little before 3 o'clock Monday afternoon. His death was not unexpected, as he had been ill for nearly three months and his physician, Dr. D. F. Woods, told the family on Sunday night that his death was only a question of hours. The immediate cause of death was nervous prostration, to which was added trouble of the liver and stomach,

Mr. Dougherty's illness dated from June 20, at which time he came from Long Branch to attend to some business in this city. Not feeling well he visited his physician, who ordered him to bed immediately. At that time he was arranging for a trip to Europe, but this was postponed from week to week until it was finally abondoned six weeks ago, when he was compelled to remain in bed.

HIS NERVOUS SYSTEM GAVE WAY.

Three weeks ago his nervous trouble set in and it was preceded by a lesion at the base of the brain. This was succeeded by partial paralysis. Gradually the whole nervous system became affected and his left side was entirely paralyzed. At one stage of his illness about ten days ago, hiccoughs set in, but Dr. Woods succeed ed in checking them in a day or two Several times during the past week he has been either unconscious or delirious, but he has rallied.

No hope of a full recovery has been entertained for some time, and on sioners, or if the election be held in a Sunday the family was told to prepare township or borough, from the auditors for the worst. From that time his of the same, stating his name, names wife and five children were constantly of the persons who have appointed at his bed side. Yesterday morning him and the party or policy he reprehe became unconscious and died with-

THE NEW BALLOT LAW DIRECTIONS TO VOTERS.

Section 22. Any person desiring to vote shall give his name and residence to one of the election officers in charge of the ballots, who shall there upon announce the same in a loud and distinct tone of voice, and if such name is found upon the ballot checklist by the inspector or clerks in charge thereof, he shall likewise repeat the said name and the voter shall be al lowed to enter the space enclosed by the guard-rail, unless his right to vote be challenged.

No person whose name is not on the said list, or whose right to vote shall be challenged by a qualified citizen, shall be admitted within said guard-rail until he has established his right to vote in the manner now provided by law, and his name, if not on the check-lists, shall then be added to both lists.

As soon as a voter is admitted with in the rail the election officer having charge of the ballots shall detach a ballot from the stub and give it to the said voter, but shall first fold it so that the words printed on the back and out side, as provided in section fifteen of this act, shall be the only wording visible, and no ballot shall be voted unless folded in the same manner.

Not more than one ballot shall be given to a voter, except as provided in section twenty-six of this act. As soon as a voter receives a ballot, the "B" shall be marked against his name on the margin of the ballot-check-list, but no record of the number of the ballots shall be made on the said lists.

Besides the election officers and such supervisors as are authorized by the laws of the United States, or overseers appointed by the courts of this Commonwealth, not more than four voters in excess of the number of voting or compartments provided, shall be allowed in said enclosed space at

Section 23. On receipt of his ballot, the voter shall, forthwith, and with out leaving the space enclosed by the guard rail, retire to one of the voting shelves or compartments, and shall prepare his ballot by marking in the appropriate margin or place a cross (x) opposite the party name or political designation of a group of candidates, or opposite the name of the candidate of his choice, for each office to be filled, or by inserting in the blank space provided therefor any name not already on the ballot, and in case of a question submitted to the vote of the people, by marking in the appropriate margin or place a cross (x) against the answer which he desires to give.

Before leaving the voting shelf or compartment, the voter shall fold his old alliance, and the republicans were ballot without displaying the marks oking forward to the defeat of the thereon in the same way it was folded when received by him, and he shall keep the same so folded until i.e has

After leaving the voting shelf and before leaving the enclosed space he shall give his ballot to the election officer in charge of the ballot box, who vote of 14,834 and a democratic vote shall, without unfolding the ballot, of 6100. This year they all gave number it as required by the Constitu democratic majority. The voting tion of this Commonwealth, placing Ballots not marked, or improperly was done under the Australian ballot the said number in the right hand up or defectively marked, shall be enimmediately to the left of the folding line printed thereon, and nowhere else, and shall then at once fold the corner at the folding line and fasten it securely down with the adhesive paste, so as to cover the number on the ballot, so that it cannot be seen without unfastening or cutting open the part so fast-ened down, and shall then deposit the ballot in the box.

The voter shall mark and deliver his ballot without undue delay, and shall quit the enclosed space as soon as his ballot has been deposited.

SECTION 24. No voter shall be al lowed to occupy a voting shelf or compartment already occupied by another, except when giving the help allowed by section twenty-seven of this act, nor to remain within said compartment more than three minutes in case all of such compartments are in use and other voters are waiting to occupy the same.

No voter not an election officer shall be allowed to re-enter the enclosed space after he has once left it, except to give help as hereinafter described.

Each voter's name shall (not) be checked on the voting check-list by the officer having charge thereof as soon as he has cast his vote, in the manner now provided by law.

It shall be the duty of the judge election to secure the observance of the provisions of this section, to keep order in the room in which the voting is held, and to see that no more persons are admitted within the enclosed space than are allowed by this act.

Each party which has, by its primary meeting, caucus, convention or board sent to the proper officer a certificate of nomination, are allowed to appoint three electors to act as watchers at each voting place, without expense to the county, one of whom shall be allowed to remain in the room outside of the enclosed space show their certificates when requested to do so.

Each watcher shall be provided with a certificate from the county commissents, and no party or policy shall be represented by more than one watcher Pitcher's Castoria.

Until the polls are closed no person shall be allowed in the room outside of the said enclosed space, except these watchers, voters not exceeding ten at any one time, who are awaiting their turn to prepare their ballots, and peace officers when necessary for the preservation of the peace.

No person, when within the voting room, shall electioneer or solicit votes for any party or candidate, nor shall any written or printed matter be post- | which subordinate principle to moed up within the said room, except as required by law.

SECTION 25. No list or memorandum of the names of voters, except such lists as are expressly authorized by law, shall be made within the voting room by any person or officer, nor shall any list or memorandum of the numbers marked upon the ballots be made or kept, except such lists as are expressly authorized by law; Provided, That any voter may make a memorandum of the number of his own ballot, and the watchers may keep their poll books and challenge lists.

After the closing of the polls and before the ballot boxes are opened all the lists of voters upon which the numbers of the ballots are recorded, as now required by law, shall be placed in separate sealed covers, properly marked, and the stubs of all the ballots used, together with all unused ballots, and the ballot-check-list, shall also be enclosed in a sealed package properly designating the voting place which package shall be sent to the proper officer as required by law in the case of the ballots cast, and neither the said package nor the said lists of voters shall thereafter be opened, except by the return judges, or in the a court of a comp-tent jurisdiction. SECTION. 26. No person other than the election officers, shall take or remove any ballot from the voting place. If any voter inadvertantly spoils a ballot he may obtain another upon returning the spoiled one. The ballots thus returned shall be immediately cancelled, and at the close of the polls shall be secured in an envelope sealed and sent to the proper officer as required by law in the case of the ballots cast.

Section 27. If any voter declares to the judge of election that, by reason of disability, he desires assistance in the preparation of his ballot, he shall be permitted by the judge of election to select a qualified voter of the election district to aid him in the preparation of his ballot, such preparation being made in the voting department.

SECTION 28. If a voter marks more names than there are persons to be elected to an office, or if for any reason it is impossible to determine the voter's choice for any office to be filled, his ballot shall not be counted for such office. No ballot without the official endorsement shall, except as herein otherwise provided, be allowed to be deposited in the ballot box, and none but ballots provided in accordance with the provisions of this act shall be per corner of the back of the ballot, dorsed as defective, but shall be preserved with the other ballots. If any ballot appears to have been obtained otherwise than as provided in this act, the judge of elections shall transmit such ballot to the district attorney without delay, together with whatever information he may have tending to the detection of the person who deposited the same.

Necessity of Governmental Reform-

From Harper's weekly. REFORM in our national government is essentially one impulse, one principle, one policy. Demoralizing and iniquitous taxation is intimately as sociated with all other demoralizin and iniquitous methods of legislatio and administration. Thoughtful students of history will see the connection between our vicious tariff system and that extension of "bossism which makes a complete reform of the civil service more essential than ever. They see that the waste and corruption of our pension are largely a result of the same cause. They see that the schemes by which ignorance, fanaticism, and avarice are conspiring to degrade the currency owe most of their dangerous strength to the law which have trained men to seek wealth in legislation rather than in industry. The revolt of 1890 against the McKinley tariff was the first expression of an outraged people against a great wrong, and the pass-ion which inspired it seems for the time to be exhausted in the effort But there is deeper meaning in the widespread growth of an intelligent sentiment of reform, in the profound conviction that public office is a public trust, and that its powers must be exercised only for the people's good. It is the rapid growth of this sentiment demanding a single eye to the nation's welfare in every appointment to office, in every enactment of tax, in every expenditure of the people's money, that is the significant feature of American political life. With the call for tariff reform as the type of its demands, as the first and immediate practical end to be reached in the same voting room at any one by success in this election, indepentime. Watchers shall be required to dents unite with the young Democracy and proclaim their purpose to apply this principle everywhere.

THE independents accept Grover Cleveland, the candidate of the Democratic party, as, on the whole, the foremost representative of the reform principle, and will give him a cordial support. Not pretending to approve the views or to tolerate the methods of many who call themselves Democrats, with no sympathy for party bosses or organizations mentary success, they still rejoice that within this reinvigorated party the power of all such element has yileded to the demand for broad statesmanship and far-sighted policy. They believe that the force of truth will consolidate the discordant fragments which form the party, or that if it repel some of these, it will attract better and stronger support from without, and that the way open to-day, as it has not been in many years, for an educational canvass in the cause of reform, with strong prospect of an immediate success, which shall be an important service to the nation, and with the certainty that the final triumph of that cause in the civil administration of the government at large, as well as in the laws of taxation and currency, cannot long be delayed.

H. E. Davis, a c al merchant of Surburry was unanimously nomi-nated by the democrats, on Tuesday Septembe. 6th, to be a candidate for Senator in the twenty fourth Senatorial district. This is the district where the republicans had so much trouble in nominating a candidate, after taking 214 ballots. The district is republican by about 1200. It will be a close fight and require some boodle to carry it.

This Isn't on the Farmers.

A sharper is working the under takers of the state. With tearful eyes he goes to the undertaker and orders a coffin for his beloved wife who has just died of heart disease in an adjoining town. He tenders a check in payment drawn for several dollars more than the bill and the obliging undertaker, who is overjoyed to get his pay in advance, gives him the dif-ference in cash. A Wilkesbarre undertaker took a coffin to Bear Creek before he found that he was swindled.

THE REGISTRAR, Easton, Pa.

This Nation as a Road Builder

From the Altona Tribune. The gospel of good roads is being preached with a fervency and a tenacity that is certain to bring the answer sooner or later. The day is coming when a road which is morass half the year and a dust heap the other half will be as discreditable to a township as mud holes are to a city that wants to be well thought of. The farmer, who now looks with suspicion upon the agitation for improved roads, is going to put on his thinking cap and the result will be his conversion to a better state of mind. The State will take the matter up, the Natinal Government will lend a hand. It will be determined that a government which annually appropriates many millions for the improvement of rivers and hobers, will be doing wisely by aiding in the con-struction of decent roads. The States will interfere to some extent with the business of the wagon-maker, and in course of time vehicles will have tires that will make roads instead of de stroying them. When the State or National Government has constructed a number of main roads the township or the county will put the less important ones in order. The contrast between improved and unimproved highways will be so great that public sentiment will demand the completion of the work. Afterwards our rural friends will be amazed at the patience with which they submitted to the inconvenience and expense of poor roads, roads that for months are almost impassable.

The State Central Committee met at Harrisburg, Tuesday and selected John Conway of Rochester, Beaver county as presidential elector, in place of James A. Mellon who moved out of the state.

PURE OLD RYE AND WHEAT WHISKEY.

WHISELY.

We formerly had bonded warehouse room sufficient to sto e $,000 gallons of whiskey, which we considered a stock sufficient to meet out trade, but we found however, the demand to our whiskey such, that for us to be able to get a larger stock of old whiskey, we were compelled to increase our storage room and have just completed an Ironclad bonded warehouse with a capacity sufficient to store 20,000 gallons of whiskey.

We aim to sell no whiskey less than one year old and from that on up to the cides! we have in stock except in original packages, thereby giving our patrons the benefit of the age.

What we claim over a great many other distillers:

What we claim over a great many other distillers:
First. Briarcreek being a rich fertile valley, we are able to get a superior quality of grain to manufacture our whiskey from.
SECOND: Having our flouring mill in connection with our distillery we clean all our grain for distil ation over a rigid process of the sautter, thereby, making it as clean as the gran that is ground into flour.
Third: we hand mash, double distill our whiskey and then re-distill on a copper distilt.
FOURTH: We leach our whiskey well thereby getting out the fusil oil and all impurities, which new whiskey contains.
FIFTH: We use no second-handed barrels, our whiskey is all rut in new, clean, indiana white Oak barrels which is considered the best barrel in the market.

Oak larrels which is considered the best barrel in the market.

SixTh: It is a known that the hotter whiskey is kept the faster it will age, therefor, we heat our bonded ware-house with steem so the thermometer will register 70 degrees, wheat the temperature is at zero.

We have never distilled any corn, and do hereby guarantee all our whiskey positively pure rye or wheat and for purity and quality we defy competition, and to any person who will find any polsonous drug in our whiskey, put in by us, as it leaves our distillery or sales-room we will forfeit $200.00.
