A Family Affair

Hires' Root Beer

THE GREAT TEMPERANCE DRINK is a family affair—a requisite of the home. A 95 cent package makes 5 gallons of a delicious, strengthening effervescent beverage. Don't be deceived if a dealer, for the sake of larger profits, puts you some other kind of "root beer" in a Hires' bottle. No imitation is so good as the genuine Hires'.

SOME CAMPAIGN SONGS.

Reports of the Poets in the New York World's Competition.
[Air—"Hail, Columbia!"]
Rise, ye patriots, Freedom stir!
Rise, ye are her worshippers.
Who live and die to save your rights,
Who live and die to save your rights,
For now our country's voice we hear,
That wakes to thrill her lover's ear.
Forget can we the victories won,
Patriot sire and patriot son,
Sages of immortal birth,
Bring glory to the earth!

CHORUS.
Hear the tocsin and array—
Lest we have tyrannic sway—
As a mighty phalanx bold,
For our Union's years untold.

Guard we the people's happiness,
Believe would we the poor's distress
Turn no one can from such a cry,
Turn no one can from such a cry,
No autocrat can us enslave
While we are pure, and true, and brave
And shiners would we the helpless now,
Twine honors round the freeman's brow,
That joy and plenty may abound,
And men—as men—alike be crowned.

Strike, strike for liberty a blow!
Fear have ye not to meet the foe!
Ours is the land of Washington,
Ours is the land of Washington,
Whose flag shall never trail in dust,
To this we look, in heaven we trust,
Life's dearest trusts we must defend,
No force shall our standard rend,
Or tariff give for wrong a cause,
Let us have just and equal laws.

See there the chiefs who will us guide,
Our hopes we may in them confide,
Shout Cleveland and our Stevenson,
Shout Cleveland and our Stevenson,
From lake to gulf, from sea to sea,
And vote the ballots of the free.
When weak men groan and poorly rule,
Or are corrupted by the bribe and guile,
The oath is ours, they shall remove,
For our Columbia 'tis we love.

Hurrah, Hurrah, Democrat
In surried ranks, with martial tread,
We come in panoply of right,
No war to wage with issues dead,
But living wrongs to fearless smite,
And high our hearts with fervor smite,
As millions 'neath our flag unite
To ring the host protection's knell,
And labor's honest conduct to light.

CHORUS.
Then lead our slaves to the sky;
Cleveland, Cleveland, our rallying cry,
Hurrah, Hurrah, Democrat!
Cleveland, reform and victory!

'Tis ours for rights of man to stand,
Which pampered pride would keep in bay
And mock the ballot's stern command
With lawless threat of bayonet sway:
And never shall our flag be furled,
Till freedom's foes from place are hurled
And, spurned, the people's voice obey.

Arise, ye Democrats, arise!
Be worthy of your glorious name
Advance and grasp a nation's prize,
And own your heritage of fame.
Into your hands is given now
The common people's sacred cause;
To wage their fight with fearless brow,
Their mandates pen in equal laws.

Grover in November.
[Air—"The Girl I Left Behind Me."] O Ben, do you know the pulls we'll go
For Grover in November?
O Ben, do you know you will have no show
With Grover in November?
CHORUS.
No G. O. P. nor tariff high;
That force bill we remember,
North McKim can ever win
With Grover in November.
O Ben, do you know that the cock will crow
For Grover in November?
O Ben, do you know you are all too slow
For Grover in November?
O Ben do you know we are all in tow
For Grover in November?
So, Ben, here's a go; let the good cheer flow
For Grover in November.

Protection That Hurts.
The Pacific coast is writhing over the prospective effect of the action of the government of Victoria, Australia, increasing the import duty on Oregon pines to $0.25 per 1,000 feet and the duty on canned fruit to six cents per pound, or about fifteen cents per can. This is in retaliation against the McKinley bill. The blow is particularly severe to fruit growers and canners who have been for years engaged in building up a market in Australia for California canned goods.—Wilmington (Del.) Every Evening.

Stevenson's Popularity.
The popularity of the Democratic nominee for vice president with those who know him has rarely been equaled and never exceeded in this country. Governor Proctor Knott explains it to some extent in a letter in which he says, "The conservatism of Mr. Stevenson is not only pleasant and innocently cheerful, but carries with it a certain indescribable charm which renders him the very soul and center of every social circle in which he may be thrown."—Hous- ton Post.

West Virginia's Next Governor.
The recent Democratic state convention in West Virginia, which selected the next governor of the state in the person of William A. McCorkle, was the largest ever held in the "younger Virginia." It is morally certain that Mr. McCorkle will be elected, and this fact adds to the credit due the delegates for their discrimination in the selection of a candidate. Mr. McCorkle is a very young man. His father lost his life during the war. William obtained an education through his own efforts, became a lawyer and has risen rapidly in his state. If his friends are not mistaken he will pile up the largest Democratic majority that West Virginia has had in many years.

Growing More Liberal

That's what the human race is doing—particularly the American part of it. There are a few left who are satisfied with ancient history. But most people are ready to apply modern progress and common-sense to the treatment of the human stomach—an organ that demands its rights whether or no; that resents the insults of worn-out methods. All this is to emphasize the facts about

GOTTOLENE

There was once a prejudice against Cottonseed oil. But people who are alive, who investigate, who have no bigotry in their composition, have found that pure, refined cottonseed oil combined with selected beef suet is a better article in every conceivable way than hog's lard. And so they wisely use it for cooking—and are correspondingly healthy and happy. The sales of GOTTOLENE are enormous and constantly increasing; a proof that it is appreciated by appreciative persons.

MONEY
Wisely invested will soon double itself, and there are often as many elements of safety surrounding a good paying investment as one that pays small dividends. The earning capacity of every investment is the foundation of dividends. The Athens Home Furnishing Co. of Maine, Organized in 1887, has paid its stockholders 9 semi-annual dividends of 5 per cent. each (10 per cent. a year) and is earning a handsome surplus besides. It is a buy and sell business and a safe investment for all classes. The authorized capital is $1,000,000, of which $570,000 has been paid in. To further increase the business, $80,000 of the Treasury Stock is offered until March 15th, at par, $10 per share. Price of stock will be advanced February 18th to take effect on above date. For full particulars address the company, Box 1218, Boston, Mass. or Portland, Me.
