

THE MOST RELIABLE

To correct the constipated habit, remove sick-headache, relieve dyspepsia, to purify the blood, cure jaundice, liver complaint, and biliousness, Ayer's Pills are unequalled. They are an excellent after-dinner pill, assisting the process of digestion, and cleansing and strengthening the alimentary canal. When taken on the invasion of a cold or a fever, they effectually prevent further progress of the disease. Being sugar-coated and purely vegetable, they are the best medicine for old and young. Ayer's Pills are indispensable to soldiers, sailors, campers, miners, and travelers, and are everywhere recommended by the medical fraternity. Dr. J. W. Hayes, Fair Haven, Conn., writes: "Ayer's Pills are the most evenly balanced in their ingredients, of any I know of."

Cathartic

and always give satisfaction.—Harry Robinson, 50 E. Pearl St., Fair Haven, Conn. "For a long time I was a sufferer from stomach, liver, and kidney troubles, and having tried a variety of remedies, with only temporary relief, I began, about three months ago, the use of Ayer's Pills, and already my health is so much improved, that I gladly testify to the superior merits of this cathartic."—Macono Jorge Pereira, Oporto, Portugal.

It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrup, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd-cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
Dr. G. C. Osceola,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
Dr. J. F. Knechelo,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

COULD SAY EVERYTHING.

THE BALD-HEADED MAN GOT AS MUCH BABY TALK AS HE COULD STAND.

From the Detroit Tribune.
The birds sang blithely; a gentle refreshing breeze blayed with the green foliage; a sky of undefiled azure bent over a rejoicing world; but the young woman in the first-class coach was indifferent to all else save the ill-favored baby in her arms. Upon the infant she was showering admiration in lavish quantities. The train had proceeded about fifty miles when she found herself constrained to share ecstasy with the tall, bald-headed man just across the aisle.
"What," she rapturously demanded, gazing at the baby, "could be sweet-er?"

The bald-headed man smiled in a sickly way. Several sweeter things than a baby seemed to occur to his mind, but he mentioned none.
"Nothing."
The young woman was replying to herself, radiant with maternal love.
"Nossing, no nossing wuz sweeter."
She had buried her face in the tament of the ill-favored infant to whom she was iterating her positive declaration. The bald-headed man felt it his duty to say something.
"Does—er—ah—your baby talk?"
"Talk?"

The young woman appeared to be astonished that there should be any doubt about it.
"Why that child," she enthusiastically insisted, "can say everything."
With a triumphant smile at the tall, bald-headed man the young proceeded to illustrate.
"Say mammy, tootsey."
The ill-favored baby stared vacantly.
"He's trying to remember," she proudly explained.
The ill-favored baby dug its fist into its mouth.
"Say mamma tootsey."
"Goo," gurgled the infant.
The young woman clasped her hands in delight.
"Did you ever hear anything so distinct?" she eagerly asked.
The bald-headed man refrained from committing himself.

"Say papa, tootsey."
Flushed with success the young woman was proceeding another step in the demonstration of the contention that the baby could say anything.
"Say papa, tootsey."
The baby emitted a nondescript grunt.
"Did you ever hear anything so plain?"
She literally fell upon the ill-favored bit of humanity in her arms and nearly smothered it with kisses.
"Oh, yes, he can say—"
She turned to the bald-headed man.
"Everything. Let me show—"
But the man had gone.
