Hail, Procession. [Air-"Hail, Columbia."]

[AIr-"Hail, Columbia."] Hail, procession, strong and grand, Hail, ye leaders in command: We fall in line to take the polls. We fall in line to take the polls And rout the leaders of that band Which would despoil state, home and land; The people's triumph must be won And equal justice must be done-We'll never falter in the fight, For we must vindicate the right.

cnonus. Home rule, justice, equal lawa, All depend upon our cause; So united let us be, Just and true Democracy.

Courageous Grover leads the fight, And fearless Adlal lends his might, To strike taxation's ruthless hand, To strike taxation's ruthless hand From pockets taxed and stripped to need By plutocratio laws and greed; And we are soldiers to the cause Of justice, right and equal laws, And fight the bill the classes drew To tax the millions for the fex.

To tax the millions for the few. Both Cleve and Steve, who hold comm For less expense and tariff stand— The rock of virtue stays their feet, The rock of virtue stays their feet, While sense of justice nerves their arms To kill that force bill which alarmst So let us rally at their call

And win the campaign, once for all-They'll hold the office as a trust To make laws equal, fair and just.

Yes, we'll down unequal laws And hear an earthquake of applause Attest the joy of human souls. Attest the joy of human souls From sea to sea, from pole to pole, Thus freed from class protection's tolk And then the scale of equal right Will balance as the weight grows light Upon that end which is depressed With bounty tax by class assessed.

We Are Coming, Grover. [Air-"Wearing of the Green."] [AIr-"Wearing of the Green."] We are coming, Grover-Grover, deas, Five million men and more, To put rou in the White House, As we did in eighty-four. We are coming with determined hearts Our country's wrongs to right, And we'll never leave the battlefield As long's a rogue's in sight.

CHORUS.

We are marching on to Washington, Five million new and more, And we'll land you in the White House, As we did in eighty-four, For we know that you are true as steel, While Adlai, he's the same, So, Benny, pack your trunks, my boy, For Dennis is your name.

They no longer deceive us With their three card monte talk, And on November eighth, you bet, We'll make the robbers walk; We know "protection" does protect, We're certain sure of that,

But who else but the rich men And the party of "the hat?"

We are coming, Grover, coming, And we think we're sure to win; Then all the razcals we'll turn ous And put our good men in; We've had enough of force bills And the poor man's living tax; So Grover start your means how So, Grover, start your message now, And, Adlai, get your ax!

We are coming, Grover, coming, And we'll put you in the chair, And Frankie, too, and little Buth-We want you all three there,

A congress, too, we'll sure elect, To help the people's cause By knocking out all force bills, And all poor-man taxing laws.

I. W. Hartman & Sons.

Our prelude on the County Fair says, "That no where in all this part of the State, a ground equal in size and arrangement can be found. forget the Luther Entertainment .--Waynesboro Gazette, Jan. 3, 1892.

Next week during the fair the town will be full of fakirs and gamblers who will try to pick up some money in their own way. What they get, some body else will loose. It would be well for the unwary to bear in mind two things, first, that you can't get something for nothing, and second, that it is hard to beat a man at his own game. Beware of the stranger who wants to get you into a little game, and dont bet on the shell with a pea under it. Those who have money to spend, should spend it where they can receive value for it, and can rely on the party they deal with.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Lutheran Church of Bloomsburg have arranged with Mrs. H. E. Monroe of Phila. to give her illustrated Luther Lecture and Entertainment in the Opera House, Oct. 11 and 12 This Entertainment is a brief history of the life of Martin Luther, the great Reformer; its effect is educational and elevating. The audience will be taken back to the 16th Century by a lecture of more than ordinary interest illustrated by 85 stereoptican views and living representations of the men who took part in that trying time. 70 young ladies and gentlemen, dressed in the costume of Luther's time, singing his favorite hymn and giving triumphal marches, will present a most pleasing scene on the stage. The "Diet at Worms" is one of the principal features of the evening. Those who heard Mrs. Monroe in
