Com. vs. F. L. Shuman assault and battery. Not a true bill and the prosecutrix Angelina Shuman to pay the costs.

Com. vs. F. L. Shuman, surety of the peace. The defendant appears in open court and furnishes bail in the sum of $500.

Com. vs. James R. Bibby, adultery, attachment against A. F. Harman, witness, returned by sheriff, after making diligent search and inquiry he was unable to find the witness.

Now, September 28, 1892, court read the law to the Grand Jury in reference to absconding witnesses, and directed the District Attorney to send an indictment to the Grand Jury against said A. F. Harman, with the said District Attorney as prosecutor and Harvey Low, John Mourey, J. H. Vastine and Lora Styers as witnesses. Eadie subpoena issued.

On the same day A. F. Harman appeared in open court and being called before the court said that he had no intention of absconding and disobeying the subpoena served upon him, but was informed upon inquiry made that the case would not be on trial till to-day. Whereupon the court excused him and directed the District Attorney not to send up an indictment against him, but that he pay the costs of attachment and subpoena.

In the matter of petition of citizens of Catawissa for a borough. Report of Grand Jury as follows:

"Now Sept. 28, 1892, the Grand Jury of said county respectfully certify that after a full investigation of the case presented by the annexed petition to incorporate the village of Catawissa, a majority of said Grand Jury do find that the conditions prescribed by the Acts of Assembly in such case made and provided and relating thereto, have been complied with and believe that it is expedient to grant the prayer of the petitioners. By direction of a majority of Grand Jurors.

Com. vs. Bibby, not guilty and Harvey Low, prosecutor to pay the costs. GRAND JURY'S REPORT.

We have also examined the public buildings and find them in good condition. We recommend that there be a book rack put in the Recorder's office, also that the condition of the water closet on the first floor to be kept in a better condition."

DAVID YOST, foreman.

Com. vs. Wm. Hunsinger, and B. true bill.

Com. vs. Chas. Strausser, assault and battery. The Jury find not guilty and each to pay half the costs.

Harvey Low discharged as an insolvent debtor.

Daniel Deckart gave bail in the sum of $300 for his appearance next term.

Com. vs. J. S. Mann, selling liquors to minors. The evidence in this was to the effect that S. W. Dickson Esq., the prosecutor, had given money to one of the witnesses, a minor, to buy the liquor with, and had requested three others to go to Mann's saloon, on January 23. All of them got beer. The court charged the jury that the prosecutor had gone too far, and directed a verdict of not guilty. The jury put the costs on the prosecutor. It also appeared that Mann and C. D. Fowler had endeavored to keep witnesses away from court, and indictments were directed to be drawn against them.

Com. vs. J. S. Mann. Inducing witnesses to abscond and disobey subpoena. The defendant gave bail in the sum of $300 for appearance at next term.

Com. vs. Chas. D. Fowler. Inducing witnesses to abscond and disobey subpoena. Defendant gave bail in sum of $300.

On Friday Judge Savidge filed the following opinion in the bridge case: The endorsement "Filed August 8th, 1892," by the clerk on that date did not make the paper a record. If presented then the petition was immediately withdrawn without action thereupon by the court and the views were not appointed or the view ordered until the 23 of the same month. The first minute made by the clerk of the proceedings was on the 23 of August as appears by inspection of the record. There was no irregularity in the withdrawal of the petition and the securing of additional signatures thereto prior to Aug. 23, 1892.

The alleged interest of President Judge Ikeler was not such as to disqualify him from acting upon the petition and even if so, as the case stands, it must be taken as established that in point of fact, he did not act. The sworn answer affirms that the views were appointed by the associate Judges. In the absence of countervailing proof the responsive allegations of the answer must be taken as true. All action taken by the court has been free from error and wholly unexceptional.

It was urged that there was no such Quarter Sessions Court on Aug. 23, 1892, as had jurisdiction of the petition. Counsel for the rule contend that except during term time viewers may be appointed only at a special session called upon due notice. We do not agree to this proposition. At a regularly adjourned Quarter Sessions Court as was that of Aug. 23, all such business may be transacted as is not required by law to be done during term time. This was an adjourned court of previous term—a court for motions and arguments and at such court viewers may be appointed.

The rule to show cause why the petition should not be dismissed and all proceedings thereon set aside, is discharged at the cost of the petitioners for the rule.

By the Court

C. R. SAVIDGE, specially residing.

Com. vs. Arthur Meredith, larceny. Verdict not guilty.

Mertus E. Edwards appointed guardian of Mint O. Kuehn, Bruce Edwards, Laura Edwards, Pearce Edwards, Ross Edwards and Cora Edwards, minor children of Isaiah Edwards, dec'd. Petition for re-sale, estate of O. A. Jacoby, granted.

A man who practiced medicine for 40 years, ought to know salt from sugar; read what he says.

TOLEDO, O., Jan 10, 1887.
Messrs F. J. Cheney & Co.—
Gentlemen—I have been in the general practice of medicine for most 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by you. Have prescribed it a great many times and its effects are wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of Catarrh that it would not cure, if they would take it according to directions.

Yours truly,
L. L. Goursuch, M. D.,
Office, 215 Summit St.

We will give $100 for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured with Hall's Catarrh Cure. Taken internally.

Would you rather buy lamp chimneys, one a week the year round, or one that lasts till some accident breaks it?

Common glass may break or not the minute you light your lamp; if not, the first draft may break it; if not, it may break from a mere whim.

Tough glass chimneys, Macbeth's "Pearl-top" or "Pearl-glass," almost never break from heat, not one in a hundred.

Where can you get it? and what does it cost?

Your dealer knows where and how much. It costs more than common glass; and may be, he thinks tough glass isn't good for his business.

Here is what the Mifflintown Herald has to say about it:
"Mrs. Monroe as a lecturer is a success. Her manners are easy and her enunciation clear and distinct. She has traveled a great deal, visited the classic scenes made memorable by Luther's life and achievements, and can describe them so well that when you see them on the curtain you almost imagine they are real.
You can scarcely afford to deny yourself so rich a treat, intellectually and morally. It is so vivid and impressive a representation of the Reformation, the greatest of all religious movements, that you will learn to love the church and her doctrines more than ever. So come to the Luther Entertainment.

Deserving Praise.
We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits.
