Honest Newspapers Denounce the Republican Scheme for Bribing Voters. Mr. Harrison perhaps is not responsible for Hackett's doings, but he must be aware of this scandalous direction in which his campaign is being moved, and he can put a stop to it if he will. He knows that with the enormous sums of money tried out of the protected manufacturers in 1888 more was done to debauch the franchise and undermine the foundation of a free government than can be repeated by any other man in our country. President Harrison cannot afford again to be an accessory, before or after the fact, in such a crime against government and society as was openly committed by the Republican managers and openly boasted of by them in 1888.—Springfield Republican.

A "BLOCKS OF ONE" SCHEME. The chief significance of the exposure is that it is a confession on the part of the Republican managers thus early in the campaign that their only hope of success lies in bribery. All loud swelling pretensions that President Harrison is to be re-elected as the result of a campaign of education go for nothing in the light of the revelation afforded by the publication of the Hackett circular. The so-called campaign of education is to be a mere beating of tomtoms, while Hackett and his agents with "the ability to keep a secret" are purchasing the venal voters with the golden stream furnished by the protected manufacturer.—Philadelphia Times.

Chairman Hackett explains that he was after Democratic names for the distribution of campaign documents. That makes the import of the circular all the more clear. Does it require "an exercise of discretion and the ability to keep a secret" to get names to which to address campaign literature? It is simply a blocks of one edition of Dudley's notorious blocks of five circular of 1888. Hackett is getting up in New York such a "list" as Dudley worked up in Indiana.—Springfield Republican.

ARRANGING FOR SYSTEMATIC BRIBERY. Chairman Hackett says that he merely wants the names of Democrats to whom circulars and documents may be sent. The plausibility of this explanation is smashed into bits by the injunctions of discretion and secrecy contained in this "confidential" circular. Republicans, those of you who are honest and candid, do you approve of this palpable attempt to arrange for systematic bribery? Does it indicate a clean election or a clean administration by the Republican leaders who are striving to benefit by it?—Newburg Register.

HACKETT'S GREATEST SIN. It is reported that the publication of the circular has caused consternation at all the Republican headquarters. Talk about removing Hackett from the chairmanship of the state executive committee has already begun. His greatest sin in the eyes of the Republican managers is that he was found out.—Syracuse Courier.

AN ILL ADVISED CIRCULAR. The only fault charged to Mr. Hackett is the careless way he did his work. The desperate fight the Republicans are making in the hopeless cause of carrying New York state could not be better shown than in Chairman Hackett's ill advised circular.—Pittsburg Post.

BLOCKS OF FIVE TACTICS REPEATED. What do Republicans who are opposed to corruption of the ballot box think of the adoption in New York by their state committee of Dudley's "blocks of five" tactics in Indiana four years ago?—Rochester Union.

The Republican Kingbird, Destroyer of Other Birds' Eggs.

—Boston Post.

The Foremost Democrat. We do not overrate the importance of the document when we say that Mr. Cleveland's letter of acceptance will be read with greater popular interest than any public document that has appeared since his historic tariff message. His presentation and interpretation of issues will be generally received as a more commanding and conclusive index to the government policy during the next four years than the platform itself. Whether wise or otherwise, a mighty American constituency look to Grover Cleveland for political inspiration and direction. Like Jefferson, Jackson and Tilden in their day, Mr. Cleveland is regarded as the foremost expounder of Democratic doctrine.—Troy (N. Y.) Press.

A Queer Sort of Convert. Republican organs are exulting over the news that Mr. Powderly has come out for Harrison, claiming him as a new convert. Mr. Powderly has always been an extreme protectionist. He declared at a meeting at Cooper institute in New York that if there were a hair in his head that was not for protection he would pluck it out. Mr. Powderly is better understood among workmen than Republican organs appreciate. They are welcome to him as a convert.—Chicago Times.

Kill the Iniquitous Force Bill. The force bill is the liveliest issue the Republicans have, but it is temporarily put under cover by the cowardly Republican press for fear its unpopularity will lose votes for Harrison in November. All patriots who have faith in the blessings of peace and believe in the sovereignty of the people and the freedom of our institutions should keep the issue prominently in sight and kill the force bill.—Toledo Bee.

Some one has said that a bargain is an article sold under its real value. Some advertisers are not believers in this theory or are as economical of the truth as they are with their bargains. But "an honest tale speeds best being plainly told." This is our purpose in offering Wall paper bargains. They are bargains because they are as we represent them, full length, full weight, bona-fide goods.
