Eighteen Professors of Amherst Issue a Cleveland Address.

Twenty-three of the thirty-three professors of Amherst college favor the election of Grover Cleveland to the Presidency and seven favor the election of Harrison. Eighteen of the twenty-three Cleveland supporters in the faculty have issued this address:

With Mr. Cleveland's views on public questions we agree. We admire his courage, his constancy, his public spirit, his studious neglect of his merely personal interests where they conflict with the calls of public duty.

We remember his tariff message, his pension vetoes and his letter against free silver as conspicuous instances of disregarding personal considerations for the public good.

We therefore urge all our fellow-citizens to give Mr. Cleveland their hearty support. John R. Clark, Anson D. Morse, Edward B. Crowell, H. Humphrey Neill, Edward Dickinson, George D. Olds, Benjamin K. Emerson, Frederick B. Peck, William C. Esty, J. K. S. Sterrett, Henry A. Frink, David P. Todd, Edwin A. Grosvenor, Charles A. Tuttle, Edward P. Harris, John M. Tuttle, Elijah P. Harris, Ephraim L. Wood, Amherst, Oct. 18, 1892.

The sentiments contained in this address are not a surprise to those who know the professors, but the unusual act of college professors in issuing a political address and the fact that a great majority of the Amherst faculty have united in it is significant. It speaks loudly of their convictions of the importance of the issues and of the election at hand.

A correspondent called upon Prof. Grosvenor to-day and obtained from him the facts which are given in this despatch. Twenty-five years ago there was not a Democrat in the faculty of Amherst College. It was in fact the very Gibraltar of Republicanism. To-day over two-thirds of the faculty are decided Cleveland men. Of the five who did not sign the address is Prof. Burroughs, who has recently become President of Wabash College. A few of the professors voted for Cleveland in 1884, and a larger number voted for him in 1888, but by no means so many as will cast their ballots for him this year.

This does not indicate that the faculty of Amherst College have become Democrats, although the number calling themselves Democrats is probably as great as that of those who claim to be Republicans.

This change in the political sentiments of the faculty has been very largely brought about by the indifference of the Republican party to civil-service reform; by its change from a standard of moderate protection to ultra-protection in the interests of monopolists; by the attempted passage of the partisan Force bill; by the employment of Government officials of all grades for the purpose of accomplishing Mr. Harrison's renomination at Minneapolis, and the unblinking employment to-day of Government officials in the effort to secure his reelection, and by many minor causes, some having influence with one professor and some with another. While nearly all advocate a moderate protection or a tariff for revenue so adjusted as to foster American interests, the present McKinley tariff is believed to discriminate excessively and unjustly in favor of privileged classes.

It May be Interesting to Know

That when excursion rates are made to Chicago for people who live in the East, to enable them to attend the World's Fair next year, it is contemplated by the Western roads to also make excursion rates from Chicago to all principal business and tourist points in the West, Northwest and Southwest, so that those who desire to spend a few weeks among their friends in the Great West, may have an opportunity of so doing without incurring much additional expense. It may be well to consider this subject in advance of actual time of starting, and the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Co. has issued maps and time tables and other instructive reading matter, which it will be glad to furnish free of expense upon application by postal card addressed to Jno. R. Pott, District Passenger Agt., Williamsport, Pa., or to Geo. H. Heafford, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, Ill. 10-21-21.

Dyspepsia, distress after eating, sour stomach, poor appetite, bad taste, coated tongue and heartburn are cured by De Witt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. W. S. Rishton, Durggist. 10-14-17

Would you rather buy lamp chimneys, one a week the year round, or one that lasts till some accident breaks it?

Common glass may break or not the minute you light your lamp; if not, the first draft may break it; if not, it may break from a mere whim.

Tough glass chimneys, Macbeth's "Pearl-top" or "Pearl-glass," almost never break from heat, not one in a hundred.

Where can you get it? and what does it cost? Your dealer knows where and how much. It costs more than common glass; and may be, he thinks tough glass isn't good for his business.

And a good lamp must be simple; when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. All metal, tough and seamless, and made in three pieces only, it is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's of old, it is indeed a "wonderful lamp," for its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light and more cheerful than either.

Some one has said that a bargain is an article sold under its real value. Some advertisers are not believers in this theory or are as economical of the truth as they are with their bargains. But "an honest tale speeds best being plainly told." This is our purpose in offering Wall paper bargains. They are bargains because they are as we represent them, full length, full weight, bona-fide goods. We know one instance of a bargain in wall paper which after it was on the walls lead pencil marks showed through. Whose was the bargain? Come and see us before buying elsewhere.
