Without Variations.
A MUSICAL CAT THAT SINGS SEVERAL WELL-KNOWN SONGS.

From the Washington Post.
There is a young lady on Capital Hill who has a musical cat. After nearly a year of hard work on the feline musician, she says it can sing the best portion of two well known songs, "Home, Sweet Home" and "Auld Lang Syne," but without the usual variations. When this young lady wants pussy to sing she puts her on a velvet footstool and commands: "Puss sing 'Home, Sweet Home,'" at the same time humming the air. Pussy always responds, singing the desired tune in a rather high falsetto voice, a little broken, but sufficiently well to be recognized by the hearers. Sometimes when this cat is out on a moon-light expedition her voice can be heard above those of her companions in the fine-out-door-back-fence concert, ringing out "Auld Lang Syne" or "Home, Sweet Home." The young lady does not want her name mentioned, for fear she will be besieged by freak collectors or dime museum proprietors, who want to buy, beg, borrow or steal her musical pet.

In autumn, winter and spring, colds are the rule rather than the exception. Hence it is the part of every wise and prudent mother to keep on hand a supply of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup the great domestic favorite and infallible cure for all affections of the throat and chest.

The Luzerne county Farmers' Institute will be held at Huntingdon Mills on January 12 and 13.

It is not what its proprietors say but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does that tells the story of its merit. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures.

Danville, Montoursville, Mt. Carmel and Hazleton are all after a pantalon factory that is soon to be established.

"I was deaf for a year, caused by catarrh in the head, but was perfectly cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla," H. Hicks, Rochester, New York.

The Pittston Stove Company have been compelled to run their works night and day to fill the large amount of orders they received.

The Plain Truth.

Is good enough for Hood's Sarsaparilla—there is no need of embellishment or sensationalism. Simple what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that tells the story of its merit. If you have never realized its benefits a single bottle will convince you it is a good medicine.

The highest praise has been won by Hood's Pills for their easy, yet efficient action. Sold by all druggists. Price 25 cents.

There is an old married couple in Porter county, Ind., who, it is stated, have not spoken to each other for twenty-five years, although they live in the same house and eat from the same table.

Inflammation of the lungs (pneumonia) and inflammation of the air passage (bronchitis), Bull's-Head Horse and Cattle Powder is a specific. Price 25 cents per package, of one pound.

Odd Fellows of Pennsylvania pay for the relief of their members, widows and orphans an average of forty-six dollars for every hour in the year.

I have been troubled with chronic catarrh for years. Ely's Cream Balm is the only remedy among the many that I have used that affords me relief—E. H. Willard, Druggist, Joliet, Ill.

I have been troubled with catarrh for ten years and have tried a number of remedies, but found no relief until I purchased a bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. I considered it the most reliable preparation for catarrh and cold in the head—Geo. E. Crandall, P. M. Quonochawaug, R. I.

On a clear night a red light can be seen at a greater distance than a white light, but on a dark night the reverse is the case.

Would you rather buy lamp chimneys, one a week the year round, or one that lasts till some accident breaks it?

Common glass may break or not the minute you light your lamp; if not, the first draft may break it; if not, it may break from a mere whim.

Tough glass chimneys, Macbeth's "Pearl-top" or "Pearl-glass," almost never break from heat, not one in a hundred.

Where can you get it? and what does it cost?

Your dealer knows where and how much. It costs more than common glass; and may be, he thinks tough glass isn't good for his business.

READ THIS.

"When the fatal shot was fired," he says, "I thought some property man had fired a pistol. Just then I heard a heavy fall on the stage and the people began to yell: 'Hang him! Lynch him! Stop him!' and I saw a man running across the stage toward me. When he got near I saw his eyes were almost starting from his head and there was the most fearful expression on his face I ever saw."

"I recognized Wilkes Booth and at that instant he put down his head and came rushing on, saying: 'Let me pass! let me pass!'"

"I was standing where I could not move much, the passage was so narrow. He came on and when he got near struck me with a bowie knife and kept saying, 'Let me pass! I felt the cut and turned a little. Then he struck the knife into me again near the back of my neck and I fell. When I was down he rushed to the stage door, grasped the knob with both hands and dragged the door open. I saw 'Peanut' John standing outside holding a bay horse. Then Booth pulled the door shut."

"Very soon Detective Stewart ran over me and out of the door after Booth. The crowd came upon the stage and grabbed me and wanted to hang me right there, but some who knew me shouted that I was not the man. I was arrested, however, and taken to jail, when Mayor Wallace examined me."

"I thought I was severely cut, but when I took off my clothes I found that the knife had only pierced my clothing and cut the skin a little. The cuts were as clean as though a razor had made them, and I have never understood how I escaped. The knife was found in front of the patent office, where Booth had dropped it as he rode away after the murder."

"I had seen Booth before the show standing near the Tenth street entrance to the theater, and after the performance began saw him again standing against the rear wall of the parquet circle, and then noted that he had gone into the balcony. After President Lincoln came in Booth stole down the balcony until he could look through a hole that had been bored in the box door and locate the president exactly. Then he had opened the door a little, taken careful aim and fired the fatal shot. He burst through the box and jumped fourteen feet to the stage."

"It was such an experience as I never wish to have again. It made me sick for weeks, and I get excited now when I think of it. I taught little 'Fad' Lincoln to play the drum, and was always kindly treated by the president. The whole shooting and escape were done in a few seconds and unexpectedly. Booth had evidently made his plan carefully, and was prepared to resort to any means to avoid arrest. I sleep that old coat now, and value it more than anything else I have."—San Francisco Examiner.

Satisfied with a Monarchy.
A schoolmaster was so enthusiastic over politics that he began to give lessons on them to his class. He did not get on very well at first, but at length the scholars began to have a tolerable idea of the subject.

"Now, Johnnie," the schoolmaster asked in the course of one lecture, "would you rather have a republic or the present form of government?"

"The present form of government," replied Johnnie.

"Why would you rather have the present form of government?"

"Because I shouldn't get a holiday on the queen's birthday if it was a republic."—London Tit-Bits.
