George T. Parker, who has been Auditor for the Democratic national committee, it is reported will be Mr. Cleveland's private secretary at the White House.

Illinois is not accorded a place in the above list, because the Vice President comes from that State.

It has been the generally accepted belief in political circles that Ex-Secretary Whitney, who has done so place of Secretary of State by the President-elect, but those who appear to know something about it say that Mr. Whitney would prefer to be Secretary of the Navy if he enters the Cabinet at all. consolation. New York, November 15. The one hundred and twenty-fourth annual banquet of the New York Chamber of Commerce was held at Delmonico's to-night. The fact that Presidentelect Grover Cleveland was to be the guest of honor kept the attendance of financiers and statesmen up to the usual figure in spite of the execrable weather.

Delmonico's large hall never looked better. There were flowers and flags in profusion, and the orchestra was completely hidden behind a big screen of exotics. The capacity of the hall is about 250, and about that number of tickets were issued, with the usual result that nearly half of the SPECULATION CONCERNING THE MEN | applicants were left out in the cold. Even such distinguished men as Senator Carlisle and Ex-Governor The New York Evening World Campbell, who arrived in the city un-

Mr. Cleveland was received with enthusiastic cheers, Republicans vieing with Democrats in an endeavor to honor the next Chief Magistrate of the United States.

After the applause which greeted his rising had subsided Mr. Cleveland said : "Mr. President and gentlemen. I am exceedingly gratified by the kindness and warmth of your greating. It does not surprise me, however, for I have seen and felt on more than one occasion the cordial hospitality and heartiness of those who assemble at the annual dinner of the Chamber of Congress.

HARRISON'S PLURALITY IS 59.424.

Official and semi-official returns from all of the counties of the State show a Republican plurality of 59,424, of 1888, of 20,034. The total numpublican and Democratic candidates, was 972,724, and counting the Prohibition and Labor vote the aggregate was 997.544. The total Republican Pennsylvania, a decrease of 8,808 on the vote of four years ago.

In some counties the process of counting the ballots has been very slow and the official figures, when obtained, are likely to show slight changes in the vote.

The Weaver vote was very light, and the Socialist-Labor vote seems to have been polled in only a few localities, and will amount to only a few hundreds throught the State.

The Judge of the Supreme Court, John Dean, Republican, received 508,-494 votes, and Christopher Heydrick, plurality is 59,467.

Harrison's Administration Can No Longer Conceal Its Extravagance.

The House Committee on Appropriations will be called to meet Monday, Nov. 28, to prepare some of the regular annual appropriation bills for a decrease, as compared with the vote the action of Congress when it meets for the second session. The Treasury ber of ballots cast in 1888 for the Re- Department has promised to submit estimates for the District, Pension and Fortification bills.

For the first four months of the year the Treasury payments have exceeded and Democratic return, according to by $16,000,000 the expenditures for on the general result, give Cleveland the Associated Press table given be-the corresponding period in the pre-the corresponding period in the pre-ceding fiscal year, which means a total increase for the present year of t en States and Weaver 21,500 in six Socialist Labor vote for Weaver was $48,000,000, while the appropriations 3,116, as far as the returns go. This for the year are only $12,000,000 gives a grand total vote of 988,735 in greater than the appropriations for the last year. In plain English that means (if the estimates of the committee hold good) a deficiency on account of pensions of $39,000.000, which will have to be met by Congress at the next session, in addition to an appropriation for pensions for the next fiscal year of certainly not less than $150, 000,000. The total appropriation that Congress must make for pensions next session will aggregate not less than $186,000,000. With this enormous sum added to the other appropriations necessary to carry on the Government, and in view Democrat, received 449,027. Dean's of decreased importations expected to result from the agitation of the tariff question, the Appropriations Committee has good reason to feel dismayed at the outlook.

Complexion of the House.

In the House the Democratic ma jority of 146 is cut down to 95, a majority such as the Democrats never had in a Presidential year. The Democrats thought it would not exceed 25 or 30, while the Republicans hoped and claimed the entire majority would be wiped out. The present House stands : 234 Democrats, 89 Republicans and 9 Farmer's Alliance. The next House, of which the membership has been raised to 356 by the new apportionment, will stand : 225 Democrats, 125 Republicans, 6 Populists, giving the Democrats a majority of 95 over all

No political party in this country. except the Democratic party, founded as it is on the basic principles of the American republic, has ever survived a landslide like that of last week when it was on the underside of the slide. The Democrats suffered the defeat of 1840, but twelve years later they crushed their adversaries, Scott and the Whig party, beneath a defeat that left the old party of Clay and protec tion not a leg to stand on and within rheum, cczema, rheumatism, scrofula, or eight years it ceased to exist. The Republican party is now thirty-six years old. It outlived its usefulness soon after the war, but the possession and use of the Federal machinery and the vivid memory of the issues of the war, of which it got the usufrect sufficient to keep it in power until its aims and objects changed, and an unholy alliance with tariff monopoly, disgusted many of its most distinguished members until they deserted it in this campaign as the rats desert a sinking deceased, will expose to public sile on the preship, while the people in their wrath rose up and administered to it the most sweeping and far-reaching defeat in the history of American politics. THE DEFEATED CANDIDATE'S VIEWS OF REPUBLICAN REVERSE.

Whitelaw Reid, the defeated Republican candidate for the Vice Presidency, has been stating his views of the result of the election. He says that the Democratic tidal wave which has swept the country gives him more disappointment and concern than his own personal defeat. He takes it as an indication that a large portion of the Republican party is dissatisfied with McKinley tariff legislation, and yet, he says, he is glad the Democrats have made a clean sweep, for all responsibility for a change in policy will now be put where it belongs.

As for his own reverses, he says he feels like the boy who stubbed his toe -he was too old to cry, and it hurt too much to laugh.

Mr. Reid declares that he has had enough of public life, and does not intend to enter it again.
