WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington, Jan. 9, 1893.

Senator Chandler is developing a tendency to throw oratorical brick around with all the carelessness which characterized the sensational Congressional career of Benjamin F. Butler. While speaking in favor of the National Quarantine bill Mr. Chandler made a few remarks about the relations existing between Secretary Foster and other Treasury officials and the North German Lloyd Steamship Co., the agents of which have been in Washington since the session began for the purpose of preventing legislation for the suspension of emigration. He also had something to say about the courtesies extended by the same Steamship Co. to the prominent newspaper men who compose the Gridiron Club. Here are the exact words of his arraignment of Secretary Foster and Assistant Sec. Spaulding, and many consider it strong enough to call for an investigation. If it isn't true Chandler should apologize; if it is true Foster should be impeached. "This North German Lloyd Steamship Co.," said Senator Chandler in his speech, "is the favorite route for the Secretary of the Treasury and the Asst. Sec. of the Treasury and the Commissioner of Immigration and other Treasury officials when they go abroad, and the Company is very kind to them. It always gives them the best accommodations, and if they find themselves lacking money when they are on the other side and Congress has been negligent in providing the means for their transit and their support over there, it loans them money." It is very evident from Mr. Chandler's plain and unmistakable language that he believes the republican officials whose duty it is to enforce the present immigration law have been bribed by this Steamship Co. to neglect their sworn duties, and that he thinks some prominent Washington correspondents are in the same boat. The speech has caused a great sensation in Washington, and that class of newspaper correspondents—entirely too numerous—who make a practice of placing themselves under obligations for favors received from any who choose to offer them, are highly indignant; but all the same it is a fact that no correspondent is apt to write disagreeable things, even though he knows them to be true, about those he is under obligations to. That speech hits a good many of them in a tender spot, and it hurts. Some papers will not allow their correspondents here to accept costly courtesies, and the sooner they all get on that basis the better for all concerned.

The House is not losing any time with the Appropriation bill. Since the reassembling of Congress it has disposed of two of them—Fortification, and the District of Columbia.

The House Ways and Means Committee expect to get that statement from Secretary Foster of the condition of the Treasury up to and including December 31, some time this week.

After much persuasion Mr. Harrison issued an order extending the classified Civil Service to the Letter carriers at all free delivery offices, but declined to include Bureau and Division chief in the Government Departments, or printers in the Government Printing Office. It is expected that this order will keep between 6,000 and 8,000 republicans in office under the democratic administration, but if Mr. Cleveland is prompt in displacing republican post masters the example of the republicans in dealing with the railway mail clerks at the beginning of the Harrison administration can be followed and a few thousand democrats be put in before the Civil Service Commission holds examination and prepares its list of eligibles.

The House Committee which has been engaged for several months in investigating the Reading Coal Combine has completed the taking of testimony and is now at work on its report. It is believed that the Committee will report that the main allegations concerning the combine have been fully substantiated by the evidence taken; also that the Constitutional right of Congress to legislate on the subject will be affirmed, and that certain legislation, probably in the shape of an amendment to the Interstate Commerce Law, will be recommended.

The World's Fair people are after another appropriation from Congress. This time the amount wanted exceeds $625,000—$485,400 for judges, $20,000 for stenographers, $27,990 for deficiencies in the payment of salaries and the expenses of the National Commission, and $93,190 for expenses of the board of lady managers. The general impression in Congress is that the amounts are too large and that they will be cut before they can get through.

Andrew Jackson day falling this year on Sunday was celebrated twice by democratic associations of this city, once on Saturday and again to-day. Both celebrations were dinners, at both of which many democratic Congressmen were guests and speakers.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
