

Stephen M. White (dem.) of Los Angeles, California was elected United States Senator Wednesday.

Mr. Landis introduced a bill in the Senate Tuesday, providing for the election of road supervisors for three years.

A bill will soon be introduced in the Legislature at Harrisburg providing for a Chattel mortgage in the State of Pennsylvania.

R. B. Hayes died at his home at Fremont Ohio Tuesday evening at about 11 o'clock. Heart disease brought on his death. He was 70 years of age.

Senator Herring on Tuesday afternoon introduced a bill in the Senate asking for a special appropriation for the State Normal School at Bloomsburg.

Edward Murphy Jr. was elected Tuesday, to be United States Senator from New York in place of Frank Hiscock. Mr. Murphy received every democratic vote, having a majority of 16 over Hiscock.

Mr. De Armond of Missouri, Monday, introduced a bill in the House of Representatives at Washington, to suspend during the first year of each Presidential term all civil service laws, rules and regulations.

M. S. Quay was re-elected United States Senator from Pennsylvania, Tuesday. Every republican vote but one was cast for him. The democrats cast their entire vote for Senator George Ross.

James Smith Jr. of Newark New Jersey will be the next Senator from that State. A caucus was held Monday night which showed the strength to be Smith 44, Gov Abbott 11. Smith's selection will be made now without any further contest.

The Legislature convened last Thursday morning, when the case of Andrews and Higby was argued, and the journal corrected by which Higby's name was placed on the roll. The case will now go before the Committee on contested seats and both will draw their salary while Andrews will have the privilege alone of voting. After this act the Legislature adjourned until Tuesday morning the 17th.

President-elect Cleveland had an interview, Monday, with Senator Vilas, at the Lawyer's Club, New York city, on the subject of silver legislation.

From a Democratic leader who ought to know, it was learned that Mr. Cleveland has become more and more anxious as each day passed last Congress should adjourn without taking action on the silver question. With a view to ascertaining the situation in the House he asked W. Bourke Cockran to visit him last week and that gentleman returned to the National Capital convinced that the President-elect desired the Democrats to vote for the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman act. Senator Vilas was summoned to give an idea of the prospects of the silver legislation in the upper House. He is understood to have had a two hours' interview with Mr. Cleveland upon this and other subjects and to have departed with assurance that the President-elect hoped no effort would be spared by the Democrats in the Senate to secure the proposed repeal before March 4.

A Proposed Road Law.

Among the bills which will be offered at the present session of the Legislature is a road law which is now known as the "Kirk bill." It is so called because it is supposed to be the production of Arthur Kirk, of Pittsburg. It is not yet known to whom Mr. Kirk will entrust the duty of standing sponsor for his suggestion of legislation, but his bill proposes to put the roads of the State entirely under State control, taking away from the counties and townships all duties and responsibilities for the establishment and maintenance of roads. The bill provides in addition to the minor details of a State Road Superintendent, at a "commensurate" salary, and for a County Superintendent in each county, also at "commensurate" salary, for the issuing of $60,000,000 of state bonds, $6,000,000 to be issued each year at the rate of $500,000 per month, for the perfection of a uniform system of country roads.

The Present Administration Accused.

It seems probable that the present administration is not doomed to escape another scandal which, if not so widespread and malodorous as the pension stench, is, perhaps, of a graver character in that it goes directly to the door of a member of Mr. Harrison's Cabinet—Steven B. Elkins, the Secretary of War. The story of the affair was concealed beneath an innocent sort of a resolution which the House adopted last Friday afternoon. It was as follows:

RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Interior be directed to inform the House whether an executive order has been issued restoring to the public domain any portion of the Navajo Indian Reservation lying in the Territory of Utah, and if so that he furnish the House with a copy of said order and report what action has been taken regarding the same.

The resolution refers to the reported finding of rich placiers of gold mines on these lands. These alleged discoveries have only been made public within a short period. It is said that the discoveries were made known to Secretary Elkins ahead of the public and that he proceeded, in company with others, to get in on the ground floor by locating the choice finds.

Of course these mines could not be located or worked legally so long as they remained within the limits of an Indian reservation. Lands are set apart for Indian reservations by Congress and can only be restored to the public domain by the same authority or by an executive order from the President. It was claimed that an order has been issued by President Harrison to restore them, thus placing them in the catalogue of lands which may be entered, or, if containing precious metals, staked out as mining claims.

Representative Stout, of Michigan, went to the Interior Department to see the order, but could get no satisfaction regarding it, hence the resolution. It developed Friday night that the controversy was made last November and has been for some inexplicable reason withheld. The order, which is now printed for the first time, is signed by President Harrison and rescinds an order of President Arthur's. It is dated November 19, 1892, and is as follows:

It is hereby ordered that the executive order of May 17, 1884, by President Chester A. Arthur, withdrawing from sale and settlement and setting apart as a reservation for Indian purposes certain lands in the Territories of Utah and Arizona, be and the same is modified so that all of the lands described in said order which lie west of the 110th degree of west longitude and within the Territory of Utah, be and the same are hereby restored to the public domain freed from the reservation made by this order.

BENJAMIN HARRISON.

Meantime, while the order was being withheld, it is claimed that the Elkins syndicate was quietly slipping around entering all the rich mineral lands. The excitement in the West attending the discovery of this new gold field and the rush for it are, in the first instance, responsible for the charges of foul play against Elkins.

Elkins has always been considered a very thrifty individual, but he has been known in past enterprises to effectually cover up his tracks. Representative Stout claims that he has enough data to force an investigation unless this matter can be very satisfactorily explained. Should an investigation be had, it will go to the bottom of things and whatever shrewd practice has been indulged in by any one, high or low, in or out of office, will be ferreted out and made known to the public. If the case is as fragrant as it is said to be somebody may be indicted or impeached.

WASHINGTON LETTER

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16, 1893.

Mr. Harrison and his Secretary of State have had a very serious disagreement, and nothing but the nearness of Secretary Foster's resignation and departure for Europe, where he goes as counsel for the United States before the Behring Sea Arbitrators, has prevented an open row much more serious than that which led to the retirement of Mr. Blaine from the Cabinet last Summer. The disagreement between the President and his premier was over the policy which this government should pursue in South and Central America, concerning the efforts of various European nations to acquire interests there. Mr. Harrison believes in an aggressive enforcement of the Monroe doctrine, while Sec. Foster believes in to a certain extent letting things alone, and he carried his belief to such an extent as to actually obstruct certain plans of Mr. Harrison's. Then it was that he discovered that Mr. H. was bossing the machine. It is said to be a direct result of Mr. Harrison's action that the Republic of Columbia has positively refused to renew the French concession for the Panama Canal, which will shortly expire by limitation.

Representative Bourke Cockran, of New York, who has come to the front with a rush during this Congress, says the talk about his going into Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet amounts to nothing, and that he is just where he wants to be, in the House.

Is the country on the eve of another whiskey ring scandal? There are people here who believe that it is, and a resolution has been introduced in the House providing for the appointment of a select committee of five to investigate the various charges that have been made against the whiskey trust of defrauding the government of money by the use of poisonous drugs in adulterating the liquor manufactured, and specially instructing the committee to ascertain and report the names of all persons connected in any way with the trust. According to rumor this investigation, if it be ordered by the House, will result in bringing to light a very sensational scandal, involving the good name of many men not suspected by the general public of profiting by the dealings of the whiskey trust. Let the investigation proceed, and in the language of Gen. Grant at the beginning of the exposure of the old whiskey ring, "Let no guilty man escape."

It is probable that the House committee on Commerce, will favorably report a bill providing for an amendment to the Inter-state Commerce law permitting railroad pooling whenever in the judgement of the Inter-state Commerce Commissioners it will be to the interest of the public to allow it, and authorizing the commissioners to put a stop to it whenever it becomes necessary to protect the interests of the public.

Hon. Henry Villard, who has been conspicuously mentioned as a probable member of Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet in Washington, endeavoring to persuade Congressmen to support a bill for the suspension of the purchase of silver. He says that whatever his personal inclinations might be his large business interests would compel him to decline a seat in the Cabinet should it be tendered to him by Mr. Cleveland.

A report that President-elect Cleveland was considering the name of Senator Morgan, of Alabama, for Sec. of State was received with pleasure here. Senator Morgan's long and conspicuous service as a member of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has qualified him to make an ideal Secretary of the State, if he would consent to leave the Senate.

There is an evident intention in Congress to go slow in that Nicaragua Canal legislation. The last move was to direct the Senate committee on Foreign Relations to ascertain the exact amount the Canal Company has spent up to this time, and what it was spent for. This is on the theory that "it is better to be slow than to be sorry."

Senator Caffery, who will by the appointment of the Governor of Louisiana fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Senator Gibson, took his seat Saturday. He made a very favorable impression upon his colleagues.

Everybody around the Senate is glad that the tiresome anti-opium bill is to be finally disposed of this week. It will be passed.

Decidedly the busiest place in Washington at this time is the headquarters of the Inauguration committee. A large force is now constantly at work perfecting the details and answering questions and correspondence. Mr. Richard Croker of New York, has been appointed marshal of the first division of the Civic organizations in the inaugural parade, which will be composed exclusively of New Yorkers, with Tammany at the head. There is much rivalry between military organizations of various states for the honor of acting as Mr. Cleveland's personal escort in the parade.

Rescued from Death

All Said She Could Not Live a Month

Now Alive and Well—Thanks to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I must praise Hood's Sarsaparilla, for it is wonderful medicine. I suffered 10 years with Neuralgia and Dyspepsia and fainting spells. Sometimes I would be almost stiff with cold perspiration. I spent a great deal of money for medical attendance, but I did not get any benefit until my daughter told me about Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I began to take it. I weighed less than 100 lbs. and was

Every one who saw me thought I could not live another month. But I began to improve at once after beginning with Hood's Sarsaparilla, and have gradually gained until I am now perfectly cured. I eat well, sleep well, and am in perfect health. I owe all to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

THEY'RE ALL TALKING OF IT.

A Reporter Investigates several public recommendations, and finds EVERY WORD TRUE.

More Words of Praise spoken than Published.

The strong letters of recommendation and experiences which have so frequently appeared in the various daily papers, excited the curiosity of the Editor of the Albany Argus. Determined to know as to the genuineness of the published documents, placed the matter in the hands of one of their reporters, Mr. Robert A. Male, the veteran foreman of VanSlyke & Horton's Tobacco Factory, on Broadway, Albany, N. Y., was first called upon, and shown the following:

"About ten years ago I had a great deal of trouble with stone in the bladder, and I had to submit to an operation. But the old trouble re-appeared and I feared that another operation would be necessary. A friend suggested that I try Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, or, in other words, I take it whenever I feel a little out of sorts, and I always do me good. But for kindred troubles of any kind I am a proof of its curative power."

Mr. Male said every word was true and he would not be without that valuable preparation.

Mr. F. C. Brink, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., whose famous experience published, as "A Scrap of Paper," picking up a scrap of paper up in the street one day, found it contained Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy advertisement, and as it particularly hit his case, bought the medicine and found the help he had been praying for.

Mr. F. C. Brink. In answer to the truth of the article, Mr. Brink said he was always pleased to say a good word for Favorite Remedy, and referred the writer to the Poughkeepsie Eagle.

Gentlemen—Receiving many letters from all over the country, asking as to the truth of an advertisement printed in your paper, giving my experience with Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, I wish to say it was a pleasure to give that recommendation to Dr. Kennedy, and when I said I was cured of catarrh, of the bladder and chronic kidney disease, I wrote simply the truth.

For years before I used this valuable medicine, I suffered from urinary troubles, pain in my back and a nervous, sleepless condition, yet before I had taken the fourth bottle I was cured, and I feel well. I have no more trouble, and am willing to do similar service to those afflicted. But I make this public statement hoping it may reach the eye of the sufferer, and save the persons who correspond, for at my age letter writing is not easy.

Yours truly, F. C. Brink, 24 Thompson Street.

Mr. Peter Lawler, chief engineer of Messrs. Crane & Co's Paper Mill, Dalton, Mass., said:

"I don't look much like a dead man, but I was pretty near one. For fifteen years I suffered from a kidney trouble, and my back and joints were so stiff that I could not get up in the morning. I had a similar experience. Seized one day with pain in my back, next came stoppage of urine. Medical advice was sought, and pronounced it stone in the bladder. In writing to a friend he

Mr. E. D. Parsons, head book-keeper Washburn Dry Goods House of S. J. Atwood & Co., Rochester, N. Y., had a similar experience. Seized one day with pain in his back, next came stoppage of urine. Medical advice was sought, and pronounced it stone in the bladder. In writing to a friend he

"I suffered beyond words to describe. None of the medical men pronounced any benefit, until I began the use of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, which dissolved the stone, the symptoms began to yield, the pain ceased and from this time my recovery was complete. Can I after this experience speak too lightly of that which saved my life?"

"I can speak in higher praise than I have written," are the words of every person I talked with, which proves the great popularity of this remedy, possessing what no other medicine has, the power to save life. It can be used with safety by all ages.

The worst cases of nervous prostration, sleeplessness, headaches and digestive troubles, yield to its curative power. Salt rheum, eczema, rheumatism, scrofula, or any disease arising from impure blood, are banished by this brain, nerve and blood tonic, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.
