THE COLUMBIAN.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

FRIDAY, MARCH 10, 1893.

OUR CLUB RATES FOR 1893.

For the coming year we make the following liberal offers to all our subscribers in the county. Those who already take THE COLUMBIAN can avail themselves of any of these offers by paying up to date, and one year in advance. In the case of new subscribers the cash must be paid when the order is given. Sample copies of any of the papers named will be sent to any address in the county, free, on application.

To any one paying all arrearsages and one dollar in advance we will send THE COLUMBIAN and American Farmer for one year. The latter is a monthly farm paper, and the regular price is one dollar a year.

We will send THE COLUMBIAN and New York weekly World one year for $1.80, regular price $2.00.

THE COLUMBIAN and Philadelphia weekly Times for $1.40, regular price $1.50.

THE COLUMBIAN and Woman's Weekly for $1.30, worth $2.00. The Weekly is printed by the New York Recorder, and contains 8 pages of matter that interests womankind especially, no politics, no editorials. This is one of our best offers. Try it a year.

The statement of Bloom Poor District appears in this issue.

According to the statement for Montour County, they have a debt of over $20,000 in excess of their assets.

The snow upon the top of the mountain in the turnpike leading to Ganoga lake is said to be five feet in depth.

The shirt factory at Benton began operation Monday. It has been leased by John F. Wright.

Bryfogle Bros. have closed their market house on Market street. They will open again about April 1st.

A new edition of the ordinances, laws, and by laws of the Town of Bloomsburg are in press at this office.

Over 60 inches of snow has fallen this winter. Enough to almost cover an ordinary person if it had fallen at one time.

The law offices of H. A. McKillip, W. H. Snyder and Geo. E. Elwell, in the COLUMBIAN building, have been greatly improved by new paper and paint.

A little ill, then a little pill. The ill is gone the pill has won. DeWitt's Little Early Risers the little pills that cure great ills. W. S. Rishton, Druggist. 10-14 1 yr.

Wood's Business and Shorthand College of Scranton is now the largest school of its class east of Chicago. It leads all its competitors and gets larger every year.

The borough fathers of Mt. Carmel have granted the right of way to the Shamokin-Mt. Carmel electric railway Company. Mt. Carmel is one of the most prosperous and rapidly growing towns in the coal regions. They are anxious to have all the means of travel possible.

John W. Kramer is agent for this county for the Chicago Renting Agency, which secures quarters for visitors to the World's Fair, in hotels and private residences at reasonable rates. No advance money is required. For particulars and a guide to Chicago and the fair, address John W. Kramer, Bloomsburg, Pa.

The most intelligent people of our community recognize in DeWitt's Little Early Risers pills of unequalled merit for dyspepsia, headache and constipation. Very small, perfect in action. W. S. Rishton, Druggist. 1 yr.

The Williamsport Republican is making a tirade upon John R. Bubb, one of the county commissioners. It seems that Mr. Bubb charged for the time of 313 days during 1892; as there are 314 working days, the Republican offers a prize of two dollars gold pieces to the person who will inform them what day in the year Mr. Bubb missed.

Bad complexion indicates and unhealthy state of the system. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are pills that will correct this condition. They act on the liver, they act on the stomach, they act on the bowels. W. S. Rishton, Druggist. 10-14-1 yr.

Live Quail Wanted.

Charles Watson McKelvy, and Wm. H. Snyder will pay 25c. per pair for live quail for propagation. Birds to be sound and healthy.

"Papa, I could hardly get John home with the whip." "My son tell the groom to give the horse some Bull's-Head Horse and Cattle Powder in his feed. He is suffering from loss of vital energy. Here is 25 cents for a package."

The Place to Buy Coal.

At T. F. Barron & Co's. new colliery on public road, just South of Catholic church, Centralia, Pa.

Note the prices: Egg $2.80, Stove $2.90, Chestnut $2.80, Pea $1.50.

No SCALES—Full weight given. This coal is mined from the celebrated Buck Mt vein.

The Latest Swindle.

An old swindle is being revived and should be watched for by all persons likely to become victims of the wily confidence man. It is the note game. A man goes to his victims, generally a farmer, and represents himself as agent for some agricultural implement. He wants the farmer to sell for him in this section and presents a paper for him to sign. It is a promissory note written in such a way as to read like a contract, but after it is signed the contract part can be torn off making a note of it. The best way to do when a man comes with such a scheme is to turn the dogs on him.

Wood's College of Business and Shorthand offers special rates to teachers during the spring and summer months. The institution regards teachers with special favor as they invariably succeed.

Crinoline To Be Or Not To Be.

Mr. George M. Becker, Democratic member from Hennepin county, in which Minneapolis is situated, caused a sensation in the Minnesota Legislature, on February 3d, by introducing a bill prohibiting the manufacture or sale of crinoline. The bill in full is as follows:

SEC. 1. It shall be unlawful for any persons to manufacture or sell, or to offer for sale, or use, or permit to manufacture, sale or use of any hoop-skirt or hoopskirts, or anything like thereunto, within the limits of Minnesota.

SEC. 2. Any persons violating this act, or in any way assisting the violating of any provision of this act shall be punished by a fine not less than $5 nor more than $25 for each offense, and shall be imprisoned in the county jail for a period not exceeding thirty days.

The vexed controversy concerning crinoline, which has been raging in papers of late, is due to the death of Fashion news rather than to actual facts. Whilst newspaper fashion writers have busied themselves discussing the appalling consequences of the revival of the hoopskirt in Paris and whilst the influence of the Princess of Wales has been appealed to stand as a barrier against this coming threatening event, the leading dressmaking houses of the French capital have not yet made a single crinoline for any of their customers.

All there is to be said on this subject is that the several pretty novel models of skirts coming from Paris are as a general rule flat around the waist with considerable fullness at the bottom. In order to thoroughly comprehend the actual tendency of Fashion and to get reliable information as to the best way of securing fine models of these stylish skirts, one must consult the McDowell Fashion Magazines: La Mode de Paris and Paris Album of Fashion are invaluable to dress-makers and sell at $3.50 a year, or 35 cents per copy. The French dress-maker, $3.00 per year, or 30 cents a copy, is noted for its practical styles. La Mode, $1.50 a year, or 15 cents a month; is the Family Fashion Journal, par excellence. You can subscribe at your newsdealer or by applying directly to the Publishers, A. McDowell & Co., 4 West 14th Street, New York City.

It is a truth in medicine that the smallest dose that performs a cure is the best. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the smallest pills, will perform the cure, and are the best. W. S. Rishton, Druggist. 10-14-1 yr.

To Rent.

"I want to rent my farm to some first class farmer. B. F. GARDNER. Bloomsburg, Pa.

The proceedings of the Stillwater Institute reached us too late for publication this week.

Special services will be held in the Lutheran church every Friday evening during the month to which every body is welcome. Preaching by the Pastor.

The burglar at midnight may be feared by the timid; but he is not so much to be dreaded as an insidious cough, which stealthily enters the system, and undermines the constitution. When the cough first appears use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, the effectual remedy for all such troubles.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, March 6, 1893.

Democratic enthusiasm cannot be washed out, snowed out, blown out or froze out. The north wind blew the snow fell and there were icicles hanging from the trees, houses, and the whiskers of men, but these little annoyances did not count when it came to inaugurating a democratic President. Mr. Cleveland proved his indifference to them by declining to deliver his inaugural address in the Senate chamber, instead of from the open-air platform on the east front of the Capitol, before which, standing in the snow storm, were about 10,000 people. He thought, and correctly, too, that if these people were good enough democrats to brave the storm to see him—few of them could get near enough to hear him—deliver his inaugural address and take the oath of office, he was good enough democrat to take off his hat, storm or no storm, and do it, and he did.

There isn't money enough in existence to buy from the President the worn bible upon which he took the oath of office in 1885, and upon which Chief Justice Fuller administered to him the same oath Saturday. It is more valuable than gold or precious stones; it was his mother's, and Mr. Cleveland has never forgotten the the commandment, "Honor thy father and mother" etc.

Not since the second inauguration of Grant has there been such a disagreeable inauguration day, but the only noticeable effect the weather had was to keep a few men whose health was not robust out of the parade, which was over three hours long as it was, to disfigure and disarrange the house decorations and to postpone the fireworks. Everything else went off according to programme, just as would have been done had the day been clear and balmy as that on which Mr. Cleveland was first inaugurated. On the reviewing stand with the President and Vice President were a large number of prominent ladies and gentlemen, among them Mrs. Cleveland and Mrs. Stevenson.

It is difficult to say which of the democratic governors in the procession received the grandest ovations along the line of march, but Peck, of Wisconsin, Flower, of New York and Russell, of Massachusetts, have good reason to put the day down among the proudest of their lives.

It is generally conceded that the Inaugural ball was the most successful, from every point of view ever held, and that the decorations of the ball room were handsomer and more artistic than had ever been seen here. The members of the committee in charge started out to make this inauguration a memorable one in every respect, and they succeeded. It was a great day for Grover Cleveland, a greater one for the democratic party, and greatest of all for the country, beginning, as it did, an era of real, simon-pure democratic government, not the pinchbeck kind the republicans have given us.

President Cleveland's inaugural address was a model of its kind. A plain honest, straightforward statement of his intention to carry out to its fullest extent the platform upon which he was nominated and elected, and particularly noticeable was the complete ignoring of the Hawaiian annexation scheme. It is evident, and particularly gratifying to democrats, that Mr. Cleveland intends to investigate that subject more thoroughly than Mr. Harrison did before committing himself, and as he put himself, in his address, squarely on record as opposed to subsidies and bounties of all kinds it is certain that if Hawaii gets annexed its sugar planters will get no bounty on their sugar.

The Vice-President, in his address, upon assuming the chair of the Senate at the opening of its extra session, made an excellent impression upon the Senators as well as upon the public. His popularity with the rank and file of the democratic party is unbounded and what is more to the point it is all deserved. He made of the right sort of stuff. A newspaper man was telling him that he supposed the dignity of his new office would prevent a resumption of the free and easy method in vogue in his office, when he was first assistant Post Master General, and the boys were always welcome. Mr. Stevenson laughed and said: "My new office will make no difference. You boys will be just as welcome as in

The old days. There will be no sentry standing in front of the vice-President's room. You will not be forced to dive into your pockets and fish out a card to be transmitted to me on a salver. The doors will stand wide open. There are sofa inside for you to occupy, you will walk right in, and if I am not there you will send for me. Wherever I am the newspaper man is welcome. I am the vice-President of the people, and the people are entitled to know what I am doing. There will be no red tape about the office."

Brother Wanamaker is an expert on the value of advertising. He signaled his retirement from public life by sending—of course at government expense—a letter to every Postmaster and railway clerk in the country. This letter administers taffy in such big chunks that its receivers cannot fail to read between the lines—"I am again in business at the old stand; bargains in every department."

One reason why Scott's Emulsion of Pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda has had such a large sale is because it is "Almost as palatable as milk;" but the best reason is that its curative properties are unequalled. It cures the cough, supplies the waste of tissues, produces flesh and builds up the entire system.

Scott's Emulsion cures Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Scrofula, and all Anemic and Wasting Diseases. Prevents wasting in children. Almost as palatable as milk. Get only the genuine. Prepared by Scott & Bowne, Chemists, New York. Sold by all Druggists.

Rupture

J. A. SHERMAN, HERNIA SPECIALIST, respectfully notifies the public, especially the many who have called at his New York office during his absence that he has returned from his European office, London, England, where his successful treatment and the marvelous cures resulting from it, received the approbation of the most eminent Surgeons of Europe.

His fame soon spread, crowding the London office with the victims of Hernia anxious for relief. Patients who had endured long years of suffering came to consult him from India, Russia, Germany, Belgium, France and other countries. The remarkable cures made in London of chronic cases of patients, who had been at the various hospitals and under the care of the most eminent English Surgeons without obtaining relief, consulted J. A. Sherman, and were at once relieved and eventually restored to a state of soundness through his method to the astonishment of the eminent Surgeons who had formerly treated them. In the case of Mr. Henry James, who had been a great sufferer for over 20 years, his wonderful and complete cure was certified to by that distinguished Surgeon and operator on rupture at Kings College, John Wood, F. R. S., F. R. C. S., F. R. C., also Dr. Edward Bellamy, Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons, Surgeon to Charing Cross Hospital, etc., Sir Henry Thompson, Surgeon at University College, London, and others.

J. A. Sherman's extensive practice in the treatment of Hernia in its various forms with a success unparalleled in all previous ages, is of the highest value to those who are afflicted with rupture and hope to be once more sound. In J. A. Sherman's treatment there is no operation or restriction from labor, while there is relief from the torment and injury of wearing trusses and security from that terrible condition known as strangulated rupture, to which every victim of Hernia is daily subject. His book of information and indisputable proofs is mailed to those who send 10 cents. His Book of Photographic likenesses, showing the condition of patients before and after treatment and cure, is sent by express on receipt of 25 cents. Call on or address.
