OUR CLUB RATES FOR 1893.

For the coming year we make the following liberal offers to all our subscribers in the county. Those who already take THE COLUMBIAN can avail themselves of any of these offers by paying up to date, and one year in advance. In the case of new subscribers the cash must be paid when the order is given. Sample copies of any of the papers named will be sent to any address in the county, free, on application.

To any one paying all arrearages and one dollar in advance we will send THE COLUMBIAN and American Farmer for one year. The latter is a monthly farm paper, and the regular price is one dollar a year.

We will send THE COLUMBIAN and New York weekly World one year for $1.50, regular price $2.00. THE COLUMBIAN and Philadelphia weekly Times for $1.40, regular price $1.50.

THE COLUMBIAN and Woman's Weekly for $1.30, worth $2.00. The Weekly is printed by the New York Recorder, and contains 8 pages of matter that interests womanhood especially, no politics, no editorials. This is one of our best offers. Try it if you can.

E. M. Kester is building a new house on Leonard street.

Mrs. H. E. Smith has begun the erection of a new house on her lot on Third street.

The Citizens Drum Corps will hold a dance in Grange Hall on the evening of the 24th.

S. F. Peacock & Co have put a new delivery wagon on the road. It was made by J. B. Brobst of this town.

An arc light has been put up at the corner of Third and West street. It was badly needed, as there was no light there.

Mrs. Joseph Ikeler of Mt. Pleasant died last Sunday night, aged 80 years. A husband and four children survive her. She was an estimable woman.

The Senate Committee on appropriations were in town on Thursday, and visited the Normal School. They came in a special car at 7:20 a. m. and left at 2:36.

Three cars were run on the Electric road, between Girardville and Ashland, last Saturday. Six cars were put on the road between Shenandoah and Girardville.

M. E. Edwards has formed a partnership with A. E. Shuman of Berwick, in the insurance business. Their office is in Wintersteen's building.

Mr. F. Sloan, 187 Portland St., Boston, Mass., gives it superlative praise. He writes: "I have used Salvation Oil for neuralgia, and find it superior to any liniment I have ever used."

The Rawlings meat market is being transformed into a neat store room. B. W. Jury is putting in a new glass front, and making numerous other improvements for Mr. Wells. The room will be occupied by Giddings & Salsburg about April 1st, as a clothing store.

The great banks of snow that were found almost everywhere on the mountain tops in Luzerne County have entirely disappeared; there is no more danger of high water on account of melting snows this season.

The big saw mill at Jamison City will soon start up, and will run all summer. It was fired up on Tuesday, and everything is being put in shape for business. A large number of logs are on hand. This will make things boom again at Jamison.

Anna Maria Moyer died at Factoryville, Pa. on Monday, and the remains were taken to Catawissa on Tuesday and the burial took place on Wednesday. She was a sister of the late John R. Moyer, and was aged 78 years. She was born in Catawissa, and was one of 17 children. She lived in Bloomsburg many years, and was well known here.

It is a truth in medicine that the smallest dose that performs a cure is the best. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the smallest pills, will perform the cure, and are the best. W. S. Rishton, druggist. 10-14-1Y.

WASHINGTON LETTER

WASHINGTON, March 29, 1893.

President Cleveland was forty-six years old Saturday, and his numerous callers did not forget to tender congratulations and wish him "many happy returns." The day was not celebrated in any way at the White House unless the unusually hard work put in by the President and his assistants can be called a celebration. That the rule against the appointment of ex-officials is not an iron-clad affair was demonstrated when Representative Springer, of Illinois, at the head of a delegation presented the name of Mr. L. W. Chambers, who was postmaster at Jacksonville, Ill., under Mr. Cleveland's last administration, as a candidate for a re-appointment. The President at once reminded Mr. Springer of the one term rule. "But Mr. President," replied Mr. Springer, "this is an exceptional case." Mr. Chambers was the best postmaster the town ever had and the citizens generally wish him re-appointed. Besides, he was not allowed to serve out his term. "Ah," replied Mr. Cleveland, "that makes quite a difference. Please put the facts in writing and submit to me."

His thoroughness with everything that comes before him is what surprises those who come in contact with President Cleveland more than any other one trait in his character. A case in point came under my personal observation several days ago. The President made an appointment setting a time early the next morning to hear an appeal for executive clemency for a condemned murderer, whose crime—the deliberate murder of his young wife and her brother—was one of the most brutal ever committed in Washington. At the time the President knew little more about the case than that a last appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States in behalf of the prisoner had failed a day or two before, but he sent for a complete record of the case and when met by those who came to make the appeal he was as familiar with the case as they were, although he had been compelled to remain up nearly all night to acquire the knowledge. Of course they were surprised to find all the arguments so well met by the President, but after seeing how thoroughly posted he was on the case they were not surprised at his refusal to interfere with the carrying out of the sentence. This is only one case, but it furnishes a fair sample of the methods of the President. It was because he did not possess the knowledge about Hawaii that he deemed necessary to intelligent action that the treaty was withdrawn from the Senate and ex-Congressman Blount sent to Hawaii in search of the desired information. He is never precipitate in anything; hence his reputation for making few mistakes, and for being a safe man.

So many sensational stories have been told and printed during the last week about the President being dis-appointed at the committee assignments of the senate, and about those assignments having been made by a majority of the democratic caucus in defiance of Mr. Cleveland's wishes, that I have taken special care to obtain the sentiments of the democratic Senators regarding those stories. As the result, it can be positively stated that the President made no attempt to interfere to the slightest manner with the committee assignments, which are made in the usual way, in accordance with the wishes of a majority of the democratic Senatorial caucus; therefore he could not have been disappointed. There can be no doubt that the President regrets that the financial views of a majority of the democratic Senators do not entirely accord with his own, but neither he or they anticipate any clash on that account, as all good democrats have precisely the same end in view—the prosperity of the country; and that a legislative programme can be arranged upon which all can unite is not doubted in either the White House or the Senate.

Representative Enloe, of Tennessee, who has for a long time been fighting the many abuses for which the Pension Commissioner Raum was responsible, has the satisfaction of knowing that he was directly the cause of Raum's resignation being asked for and received by Sec. Smith. Mr. Enloe was no candidate for the office; all he wished was to see Raum "wired out" of the office which he has in various ways disgraced, and he did not rest until that was an accomplished fact. It is expected that the new democratic Commissioner of Pensions will be appointed within the next two weeks. Meanwhile, Deputy Commissioner Davidson is acting head of the Bureau. As to the new man, Secretary Smith says he is determined to get the best man in the country for the place. The right sort of man at the head of the Pension Bureau will have an excellent opportunity to make a national reputation, by saving some of the millions that are annually squandered upon fraudulent and undeserving pensioners, and to be the sort of a man who will be selected.

Secretary Morton has started in well. One of his first official acts was the dismissal of forty-odd employees whose work he considered unnecessary.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. C. A. Klein Druggist.

A little ill, then a little pill. The ill is gone the pill has won. DeWitt's Little Early Risers the little pills that cure great ills. W. S. Rishton, Druggist. 10-14-1Y.

FOR SALE BILLS.

A lot of new cuts have been added to our already large stock, for printing sale bills. They include houses, furniture, horses, cows, pigs, sheep, chickens, stoves, farm implements, wagons, &c. Persons contemplating sales should call and see samples of posters, and get our prices. A free notice is given in the paper for every bill printed here. tf.

There is nothing used about a home that makes anything like so good an impression for the money spent as wall paper. It changes a cold cheerless room into a bright and cheerful one and gives it an inviting and homelike appearance.

Hard finished walls are nice in their way, but you know and we all know that a room never looks at its best until that beautiful hard finished wall is treated to a covering of more beautiful wall paper. Fine furniture, pictures and drapery all appear at a disadvantage until the walls are relieved by nice paper.

If you contemplate papering this Spring let us show you our line and give you prices.

We will send with the paper first class paper hangers to put it on your walls and guarantee the work. Can we do more? W. H. Brooke & Co.
