Happenings of Importance from All Sections.

GATHERED FROM HERE AND THERE.

Counterfeiting Gang Run Down at Philadelphia—Two bodies recovered from the Laurel Hill Mine—Police Officer Martin Murdered at Carlisle.

PHILADELPHIA, April 8.—Two counterfeiting dens run by Russians, were unearthed by the police yesterday. The candy store of Samuel Garfinkel, 1642 South street, was raided and the proprietor and three lads, his son Nathan, aged 14, Jacob Gross, aged 16, and Harry Sinclair, aged 16, were discovered in the cellar manufacturing bogus pennies. The cellar was a well equipped counterfeiting den, 1,300 finished pennies, 2,000 partly finished and 1,000 ready for a chemical process to brighten them being found, as were also sixty pounds of copper and considerable quantities of machinery. The counterfeiter were arrested and the materials confiscated.

READING, April 11.—Smallpox has broken out in the southern section of this city, a district which up to this time had been exempt. Owing to carelessness the disease is again spreading. A man suffering with smallpox was seen on the crowded streets of this city on Saturday evening and at once taken to St. Joseph's hospital. The disease has made its appearance in Leesport, a village nine miles north of Reading, to which it was carried by a family from this city. There are four cases in the village.

ROSCOE, April 12.—On Tuesday last two boys, Thomas F. Parks and Smith Pearson, of this place, aged about 12 years, engaged in a quarrel. Parks drew a pocket-knife and stabbed Pearson just under the left shoulder blade, inflicting a wound an inch and a half deep, from the effects of which the wounded boy died Monday. An information was made and Parks was arrested and committed to jail for trial at Washington on a charge of murder.

UNIONTOWN, April 10.—The republican central county committee met at the courthouse here Saturday afternoon and agreed upon June 17 as the date for holding their primaries and June 19 as the time for holding the county convention. This is two weeks later than the Democratic primaries. An attempt to change from the delegate system to the Crawford county system of holding nominations was defeated.

HAZLETON, April 10.—Shortly after midnight the body of Richard Williams was found in the Laurel Hill Mine, and at 10 o'clock this morning another body was discovered a short distance from where Williams was found. It proved to be that of William Trembath. He was badly cut and mutilated. The search for Thomas Hodgson who is still entombed is being pushed vigorously.

PHILADELPHIA, April 12.—Seven persons were injured by a cable car colliding with a horse car at Franklin street and Columbia avenue. The brakes on the cable car failed to work and the car attained a fearful speed down Columbia avenue. When the curve at Franklin street was reached the driver of the horse car could not get out of the way of the runaway and the collision resulted.

READING, April 8.—Pietro Buccieri, the Italian murderer, will make a final appeal to the board of pardons for a commutation of his death sentence to imprisonment for life. A petition will be presented to the board by his counsel on May 23. Buccieri has written a letter for publication, but his counsel has stated that it will not be given to the newspapers for the present.

HARRISBURG, April 12.—There were chartered yesterday Crescent Electric Light Company, of McKees' Rocks, Allegheny county; capital, $25,000. Armstrong Telephone Company, of Dayton, Armstrong county; capital, $5,000, to do business in Armstrong county. Columbian Building and Loan Association, of Mauch Chunk; capital, $1,000,000.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, April 8.—A large supply store at Carlisle, fourteen miles south of this city, was burglarized. The front door was battered down with a crow-bar and sledge-hammer. The door of the safe in the store was blown twenty feet away by a tremendous charge of dynamite and $500 belonging to Hungarian laborers was taken.

NOBLESVILLE, April 10.—Rev. Eugene Weber, who for four years past has been confined in the state hospital for the insane here, and who was a parole patient, was found lying dead yesterday afternoon in Oak View cemetery by a party of young men. The dead man was 47 years of age, and was formerly a Methodist minister in Bethlehem.

CARLISLE, April 12.—The coroner's jury in the case of Policeman Martin, who was murdered Saturday night, met yesterday and after taking considerable testimony, rendered the following verdict: "That the deceased came to his death on the night of April 8, 1893, by a pistol wound inflicted by some person to the jury unknown."

GREENVILLE, April 12.—Grove City, this county, has a smallpox scare. A son of Hon. W. J. Marsha died and was buried hastily. The report that the disease was smallpox has created great excitement among the townspeople and the college students. An investigation will follow.

READING, April 8.—A severe northeast storm set in here Thursday night and yesterday the earth was white with snow. Snow, hail and rain fell at intervals during the day. Three days ago the temperature was 80 in the shade. Yesterday it was down to 36.

OIL CITY, April 8.—The subscribers to the fund for the purpose of repairing and keeping in repair for one year the old Oil City race course have effected a permanent organization. The track is a regulation half-mile and the new association has secured a lease of it for one year.

POTTSVILLE, April 8.—It is now tacitly understood among the individual coal operators that their tonnage contracts with the Reading are to be revised, and those located along the Lehigh Valley railroad are to be made out directly in the name of that company.

FRANKLIN, April 12.—About forty tailors went on strike yesterday for a general increase of 10 per cent. in wages. Among them are a dozen females who did not want to go out, being satisfied with their pay. The employers refuse to pay any increase.

BRADDOCK, April 12.—The negroes who were brought here from the south a few months ago to work at the Edgar Thomson furnaces are thinning out. Not more than half of the original number remain. It is said they could not stand the work.

WEATHERLY, April 10.—Nellie Brighton, a little girl 11 years old, died here yesterday, after a week of intense pain and suffering, caused by the use of rope jumping at school. She slipped a rope 350 times without intermission.

NEW CASTLE, April 12.—The authorities of West New Castle found a man entirely nude running about in an open field a short distance west of town. He was swinging his arms and uttering peculiar cries. After a hard chase the mad man was surrounded by eight men and a terrific struggle ensued, during which two or three citizens were badly hurt. The man was bound hand and foot and brought to the city prison. He is a Slav and cannot speak a word of English.

GREENSBURG, April 12.—One of the most extensive coal deals ever made in this county was the transfer of the Mutual Coke Company's plant to the United Coal and Coke Company for $300,000. The purchase includes all interest of the first-named company, consisting of coal, surface, tips and sidings. The plant is one of the best in the county and the coal and coke find ready market. The deed of transfer was left at the recorder's office.

WAYNESBURG, April 11.—The defendants in the Morgan fratricide case have been sentenced. Thomas Morgan was given the maximum penalty of twelve years in the penitentiary. Two of the sisters, Rebecca and Caroline, were given ten years each and Jennie three years.

YORK, April 10.—Leib Dunlap, who resided near Gatchelville, while felling timber on the premises of Abraham Hailey, was struck on the head by a falling tree and received injuries from which he died. He leaves a wife and three children.

ALLENTOWN, April 10.—Harry Haring, who Saturday shot Mrs. Annie Coffle four times in a jealous rage, and who then fired a bullet into his own chest, is slightly improved in condition and there is a good chance for his recovery. The woman is still prostrated from the shock.

GREENSBURG, April 10.—Judge Doty finished the liquor license list yesterday. "Milk-Shake" Martin, of Jeannette, who had a license last year and applied again, was among those refused. There were twenty-one licenses granted.

LANCASTER, April 11.—Henry Eshleman, a well-to-do farmer, committed suicide by drowning himself in the eastern on his farm. No cause is known for the act. He was in good financial situation and enjoyed excellent health.

MCKEESPORT, April 8.—A new water-gas plant for manufacturing gas for illuminating purposes from water and crude petroleum has just been completed here—the first of the kind attempted.

THE BIG STRIKE AT CHICAGO.

Strikers Offer to Submit the Difficulty to Arbitration.

CHICAGO, April 11.—Many men applied for work yesterday and were at once given employment. Fully 2,000 men remained at work in spite of the order to quit. President A. B. Russell, of the building trades council, appeared before the World's Fair council of administration in the afternoon with a communication, which he said the strikers wished him to make. In this the men stated that they did not wish to retard the work of the exposition, and would consequently be glad to leave the settlement of the trouble to arbitration.

They asked that the fair officials appoint one man while they would do the same, the two to select a third and all three to act as a board of arbitration. This offer, Mr. Russell said, would be open until today at 4 o'clock. If it is accepted the men will return to work pending the hearing of the evidence and the settlement of the trouble. It was remarked, however, but little attention would be paid to the offer as the World's Fair officials had been expecting the strike, and had made arrangements to secure 5,000 men who are now on their way here.

Policeman Martin's Remains Laid to Rest.
CARLISLE, April 12.—In the old historic graveyard, just east of which Policeman George Martin met his death on Saturday night and within a stone's throw of his unpretentious little home on South East street, the remains of the murdered officer were laid to rest yesterday afternoon attended by half the population of the town as mourners.

Excursion Tickets to the World's Fair via Pennsylvania Railroad.

PRELIMINARY ANNOUNCEMENT.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company announces that the Trunk Line Passenger Committee has authorized the railroad companies to sell excursion tickets to Chicago on account of the World's Columbian Exposition on a basis of $40 from New York by fast express trains, and $32 by express trains scheduled to make the run in thirty-five hours or more. Proportionate rates will prevail from all stations in Trunk Line territory. The round-trip rate from Philadelphia will be $36.50 by fast trains, and $29.20 by the thirty-five-hour trains, starting from New York. From Washington and Baltimore the rate will be $34.50 by fast express, and $27.60 by slow trains.

These tickets will not admit of a stop-off en route, and can be used for a continuous passage only. The tickets will be on sale from April 15th to October 30th inclusive, and will be valid for return trip until November 15th, 1893.

All the lines leading to Chicago will sell tickets good for passage going by one route returning by another, so that a person may go out by the Pennsylvania Railroad, and if he wills, return by the New York Central, Baltimore and Ohio, Erie, or any other trunk line, or go out by any other line, and return by the Pennsylvania.
