

OUR LETTER FROM HARRISBURG.

What Has Been Done in the Legislature—Other News from the Capital.

HARRISBURG, May 10.

Getting ready for final adjournment seems to occupy the mind of every legislator...

Senator Lloyd has amended the house anti-Pinkerton bill on second reading so as to reduce the bond required by special policemen or detectives from $10,000 to $2,000...

The senate has passed finally the Farr free text book bill. The vote on the measure was almost a unanimous one in its favor...

In the house the appropriations committee has reported another batch of bills providing for appropriations amounting to $2,088,831...

On motion of Mr. Stewart the bill for the revision of the wharf lines on the Delaware river, Philadelphia, was postponed for the present...

On motion of Mr. Crawford, the vote by which the bill permitting the holders of retail liquor licenses to own stock in breweries or distilleries was defeated in the house on Thursday last...

In the house the Niles tax bill has been defeated by a vote of 139 to 69. The rapid transit bill has suffered defeat by a vote of 83 to 93.

HARRISBURG, May 9.—In four opinions handed down yesterday by Judge Simonon at the opening of court he again sustained the constitutionality of the Boyer revenue law of 1891.

A number of companies accepted the invitation of the trust company and appeals were accordingly entered, the companies paying four mills tax and appealing from the old mill.

He holds also that the act of 1891 does not conflict with any of the provisions of the constitution of the United States.

HARRISBURG, May 8.—Hon. George V. Lawrence, an ex-state senator and member of the house at the present time, was stricken with apoplexy yesterday.

More Pennsylvania Postmasters. WASHINGTON, May 10.—The total number of fourth-class postmasters appointed yesterday was 118, of which 99 were to fill vacancies caused by resignations and deaths.

The Trouble Filled to Materialize.

CHICAGO, May 10.—The anticipated trouble over the closing of the Chemical bank Monday evening did not occur. Since yesterday morning a policeman has stood at the door of the bank to preserve order, but there was no disturbance on the part of the crowd, although some felt angry because their deposits were accepted Monday.

A statement made by President Curry to several creditors that gained access to him, had a quieting effect on the remainder of the depositors.

"Within four or five days we will have money enough to pay one-third of our depositors," said Mr. Curry to a reporter, "and in time every creditor will receive one hundred cents on the dollar. This bank has good backing and its stockholders, who are solid business men, will make good every cent of its debts. A levy will be made on the stockholders of 10 or 15 per cent, and, as under the banking act, they are responsible for double their stock, it is only a question of time when everybody will be paid in full.

"The reason we suspended business was because the extraordinary heavy runs on Saturday and Monday exhausted our currency."
