

APPROVED BY THE GOVERNOR.

The Official Signature Attached to a Number of Bills.

HARRISBURG, June 12.—The governor late Saturday afternoon approved the supplement to the Baker bill, law, the state dental examiners' bill, the Philadelphia House bill, the bill authorizing reorganization of corporations not exceeding $50,000, and the bill to prevent incorporation of boom companies on streams not more than thirty-five miles long.

The governor also vetoed six bills. One of these proposed to prohibit the peddling, selling or hawking of merchandise or other goods in the state without a license, and in vetoing it the governor says he regards it as "a most vexatious and oppressive interference with the free operations of legitimate business" and as "a most unwise and unjust discrimination against the citizens, manufacturers and merchants of our own state."

Another bill was intended to prevent the peddling, selling or hawking of product and merchandise in cities of the second and third classes without license.

The governor also vetoed the bill enlarging the duties and powers of the fire marshal of Allegheny county.

The bill to authorize cities to make appropriations for the establishment and maintenance of free libraries and to acquire, by condemnation, eligible sites for their location was vetoed.

The governor also vetoed the act making an appropriation to the State Agricultural Society.

Another bill vetoed by the governor provided an appropriation to aid the several counties in the construction, improvement and maintenance of public roads, and provided the manner of distribution thereof.

HARRISBURG, June 9.—Governor Pattison last night turned his attention to the work of the legislature and with the assistance of Secretary of the Commonwealth Harry and Private Secretary Tate disposed of a large number of bills. The measure authorizing the superintendent of public instruction to place in every public school of the state containing a school library one copy of Small's Hand Book and increasing the compensation from $500 to $1,000 for a more thorough revision of the book does not meet the governor's sanction, and he has vetoed it. He says, for reasons which he has already explained, he regards all these efforts to make the Commonwealth a distributor of such works ill considered.

HARRISBURG, June 12.—Governor Pattison heard argument in the application for a reorganization of the officers of the General Electric Company of New York, who were indicted in the Pittsburgh courts for conspiracy against the Westinghouse Electric Company. John D. Dainoff, for the Westinghouse, showed that Messrs. Clark and Hamilton, two of the indicted persons, were in this state at the time of the alleged offense, and John R. Head insisted that a requisition could only be issued for those two, as the others indicted were in New York and Boston. Mr. Dainoff agreed to this and the requisition will be issued only for Clark and Hamilton.

HARRISBURG, June 10.—The Hon. E. C. Coker, Hamilton and Georgia, well known physicians of this city, have been sued for $10,000 damages by Antonia Denno, an Italian restaurant. The medical fraternity are much interested in the case.

Several other bills were approved.

During the excitement numerous fights occurred between the opposing workmen, but no one was seriously injured.

THE LIZZIE BORDEN TRIAL.

Evidence Suggesting in Favor of the Defendant Thus Far.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., June 14.—Interest in the trial of Lizzie Borden for the murder of her father and another at Fall River, this state, on the 4th of August last, increases in interest as the time passes.

The court room is packed continually and the greater portion of those in attendance are women.

If the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, which the criss of the court here calls upon the Almighty to save at the opening and closing of the session each day, does not present any stronger evidence as to why Lizzie Borden should be convicted of having hastened her step-mother and father to death, she will never be convicted of the awful crime of which she stands charged in the indictment. That fact has become so apparent that some of the lawyers (some of them came all the way from Georgia) to attend the trial who have been present from the first have gone home, thoroughly convinced that the jury will acquit the young woman now on trial for her life.

What the prosecution can have in reserve with which to convince the jury of the guilt of Miss Borden, if it has anything at all, is a subject of speculation. The evidence taken at the inquest, which furnished the prosecution with weapons which would have been used to advantage when she went on the stand, having been excluded, the prosecution will have to get along with it as best it may.

THE DISASTER AT WASHINGTON.

Twenty-one Dead Seem to Cover the List of Fatalities.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—It is now clearly ascertained that the number of deaths resulting from the accident at Ford's old theatre is twenty-one, although it is believed that several of the seventy-five injured will die.

Until late last night workmen had been employed in removing the tons of loose bricks and broken timbers from the building, and this morning the old bulk looked less hideous than when the scores of dead and broken bodies were yesterday being carried from it.

By 8 o'clock, an hour earlier than usual, the clerks began to arrive at the building, and every newcomer was greeted with of festive welcomes by his comrades. And then they told tales of marvelous escapes, and each was again and again questioned as to where he was at the awful moment. Tears filled many eyes as each told of his experiences, and how he had seen one whom they all knew and loved dashed down to death. Many of the clerks, with a view to not losing any time, knocked on the doors of the annex building adjoining the ruined theatre, and to the officials within reported for duty. But no outside building has yet been secured and it will probably be some days before the force is again put to work.

The cause of the accident is said to be due to criminal negligence on the part of the government.

Among the dead are George O. Allen and Samuel P. James, of Pennsylvania.

At the hour stated Schaeffer called at the stable and said he would take the team to Mr. Harbeter's residence.

He was given the team, but instead of taking it to Mr. Harbeter's drove to Pottsville, where, it is alleged, he offered it for sale to a livestockman for $150. The latter, suspecting something wrong, notified Chief Cullen, who at once informed Mr. Glass. A warrant was sworn out before Alderman Schrader for the arrest of Schaeffer, and Constable Wagner left for Pottsville yesterday afternoon. Mr. Glass also accompanied the constable, and brought the team home late last evening.

The Defendant Made a Bad Mistake.

NONESTOWN, June 9.—During the session of criminal court here the defendant in a lacy case pled guilty without waiting for the formalities of an indictment by the grand jury. Shortly afterwards the grand jury, ignorant of the action in the case, ignored the bill of indictment, and the culprit would have been discharged. Afterwards, learning of the situation, they concluded that they had not given justice a fair show. They reconsidered the bill and indicted the accused, who, evidently guilty, had taken it for granted that the grand jury would find a true bill.
