There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. The Libby Prison War Museum.

Of the many attractions outside of the World's Fair in Chicago, there are but few in which there is so much interest centered as there is in the Libby Prison War Museum. In 1889 this celebrated prison was removed from Richmond to Chicago and converted into a War Museum. The project was undertaken by a syndicate of the best known business men of the city whose enterprise was conceived in a commercial spirit, but has attained a national reputation. A project such as this was never before heard of. To move a brick and stone building the size of Libby more than a thousand miles, across rivers and mountains, was an enterprise that many of the best known contractors in the West refused to undertake at any price. But the move was made with success. Then the famous old structure was filled with war material that represents the work of a lifetime and the expenditure of half a million dollars. The great collection is conceded to be second to none in the country and includes much of the most valuable material that the greatest civil war the world has ever known has left to posterity. The collection includes thousands and thousands of relics of every description, many of which form important links in the history of the Nation. The old building itself is fraught with interesting memories and the story of the celebrated tunnel escape of Feb. 9, 1864, never fails to interest the visitors. One hundred and nine Union officers made their escape through that tunnel, which formed one of the most thrilling events in the history of the war.

Lord English.—"What this country lacks, Miss Americus, is a leisure class such as we have in our country. I mean the class we call gentlemen, who do not work for their living, who take no part in business, but devote their time to observation and travel—er—"

Miss Americus.—"Oh, yes; we have that class in this country, but we call them tramps."

Huckleberry Bill lives on the mountain near Kane, McKean county. He is 75 years old, and since he became a voter he has dwelt in the solitude of the vast forest, picking berries for a living in summer, frying rattle-snake fat in the fall, hunting rabbits, bear and deer in winter, and tapping maple sugar sap in the spring. Doing this more than half a century, tells the Warren Mirror. Bill says he has gathered 1,000 bushels of huckleberries, killed 1,735 rattle-snakes for their fat, slaughtered over 1,500 wild animals and got sap enough to make forty barrels of best maple sugar. He is a veteran of two wars and was never married.

Repairs Would Be Wasted.

From the Washington Star.

"Say, mister, don't you want your front gate fixed?"

"What's the matter with it?" asked the Georgetown man.

"It sags like everything."

"It does sag a little bit. But there's no use of fixing it now."

"Why?"

"Because," and he looked thoughtfully up at the big shade tree, "I have three daughters, all over 17 years old, and the engagement season is just opening."

Nothing Could Save It.

"What your town needs," said the visitor, "is a general shaking up."

Why She Hadn't Accepted Him.

From the New York Press.

"Have you accepted him?"

"No."

"Then you are foolish. He is well to do, and would make a good husband."

"Yes, but you see he hasn't proposed yet."

No other blood medicine so utilizes the results of scientific inquiry as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Delicately Expressed.

From Texas Sittings.

"How are you and your husband coming on?" asked Mrs. Elderly of Mrs. Newlywed, a neighbor living on Amsterdam avenue.

"We had a row yesterday. He said something that I didn't like, something that made me suspect that he wished I had never been born."

"What did he say?"

"He said he wished his mother-in-law was an old maid."

The Ruling Passion.

From Texas Sittings.

"So Scribble, the reporter on the Daily Hooter, has got married?"

"Yes, I was at the wedding at the Little Church Around the Corner."

"Was Scribble nervous?"

"Nervous? Not much. While the minister was praying Scribble yanked out a note book and took down the prayer in shorthand for the afternoon issue of the Hooter."

A Suggestion.

"How do you pay these ramblers?" asked a wayfarer of a paving contractor.

"By the day," said the contractor.

"You ought to pay them by the pound," said the wayfarer. "Then they'd pound oftener."

Very Suspicious.

Friend. "Why, Elvira, what's the matter?"

Elvira. "Oh, I don't know, only I'm worried to death. I've had the same girl six weeks and she doesn't talk about leaving yet."

"She doesn't?"

"No, not a word. She must be in love with my husband."

In Paint

the best is the cheapest. Strictly Pure White Lead is best; properly applied it will not scale, chip, chalk, or rub off; it firmly adheres to the wood and forms a permanent base for repainting. Paints which peel or scale have to be removed by scraping or burning before satisfactory repainting can be done. When buying it is important to obtain properly made. Time has proven that white lead made by the "Old Dutch" process of slow corrosion possesses qualities that cannot be obtained by any other method of manufacture. This process consumes four to six months time, and produces the brand that has given White Lead its character as the standard paint.

Strictly Pure White Lead

John T. Lewis & Bros.

is the standard brand of strictly pure Lead made by the "Old Dutch" process. You get the best in buying it. You can produce any desired color by tinting this brand of white lead with National Lead Co.'s Pure White Lead Tinting Colors.

TWO DEATHS FROM STARVATION.

Cases Referred to the Coroner in New York for Investigation.

New York, June 19.—Dr. John T. Nagle, of the bureau of vital statistics, has referred to the coroner's office for investigation two cases of death said to have resulted from starvation.

He reported that Mary McQuade, eleven months old, had died at No. 8 Varick place and that Dr. T. T. Janeway, of the Northern dispensary, at No. 26 West Seventeenth street, had stated that the child's death had resulted from acute gastritis, due to lack of nourishment.

The child was cared for by Mrs. McDonough, of No. 350 Cherry street. It had been there for three months and Dr. Nagle asked the coroner's office to ascertain whether it had been the victim of "baby farming."

The other case was that of Thomas Daly, 38 years old, who died in the Charity hospital on Blackwell's Island. Dr. M. C. Carr, of the Charity hospital, certified that Daly's death was due to starvation. The man had been in the hospital for nine days and his system was too weak to receive food when he became a patient.
