

THE POPE AND THE CZAR

Greek Church About to be Turned Over to Rome.

STATEMENT COMES FROM SATOLLI

If Leo Accomplishes This It Will be a Long Step Toward Bringing About the Disarmament of Europe and Eternal Peace.

ROME, July 5.—Mgr. Satolli, Ablegate of Pope Leo, states through Dr. O'Gorman that there are pending diplomatic negotiations to bring the Greek church of all Russa, now under personal control of the Czar, into the keeping of the Vatican. Father O'Gorman was asked to reduce this statement to writing and have Mgr. Satolli sign it in order that there might be no question as to its authenticity. He said: "That is unnecessary, I spoke for Mgr. Satolli. I have talked the whole matter over with him, and you may say that he says it through me, his interpreter."

THE CZAR.

Father O'Gorman is professor of ecclesiastical history in the Catholic university at Washington, and here and elsewhere during the tour of Mgr. Satolli and party has been the spokesman of the Pope's ablegate. Churchmen take it for granted that if the Czar is to place his state church under the control of Rome, it is the interest of Leo's hope to effect the disarmament of the great nations of the world and secure ultimate universal peace and the arbitration of international quarrels.

RIOTING IN PARIS.

Many Policemen and Students Injured—Fires in the Streets.

PARIS, July 4.—Intense excitement prevailed in the Latin quarter this morning. Students and police fought repeatedly. Fifteen policemen and many students were injured seriously.

The students upset the street booths and set fire to many of them. M. Loze, Prefect, and M. Vignie, Secretary-general of police, were in the district all night, directing the police force.

Three Young Murderers.

NEW YORK, July 5.—Three boys, Frank Lago, aged 12; Patrick Radigan, aged 9, and John Maloney, aged 9, were arraigned in the Tombs police court this morning, charged with causing the death of Thomas Maloney, aged 10, by drowning last Thursday night. Thomas Maloney was sitting on a box on the Beekman street dock when one of the boys pushed the box over, and Maloney fell into the river and was drowned.

Shot by a Messenger Boy.

BROOKLYN, July 5.—Andrew Anderson, an American District messenger, shot T. Murray, 33 years of age, while delivering meat on Seventh avenue this morning. Murray was taken to the Fency hospital. His condition is considered serious. Anderson is still at large.

Czarewitch in Peril.

BERLIN, July 5.—It is reported that a futile attempt was made to wreck the train of the Czarewitch near Dimaburg, Government of Vitebsk, while he was on his way to London to attend the royal wedding. No particulars are given.

Miss Schiebeler Committed.

NEW YORK, July 5.—Christina Schiebeler, who last night shot and killed her friend, Henry Soli, was committed to the Tombs by Coroner McKenna to await the result of the inquest, which will be heard on Thursday morning.

Ten Will Graduate After All.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., July 5.—President Parsons, of the State Normal School, says ten members of the senior class have signed one of the two papers presented to them and certificates of graduation are to be issued to them.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The office of the Belford Publishing company, in Chicago, is in charge of a constable, on account of a judgment for services.

Emperor William has conferred upon Dr. Johannes Miquel, Prussian Minister of Finance, the decoration of the Grand Cross of the Order of the Red Eagle.

The Ohio State Board of Paroles has refused the application of Frank Von Loon, the Columbus bank robber and murderer of Father Vandermark, for commutation of sentence, and he will be executed July 7.

The Moses Conlee bridge on the Great Northern railroad at Spokane, Wash., burned last night. It was 924 feet long and 135 feet wide. It will take three weeks to replace the bridge, during which passengers will be transferred.

WILD TIME IN COURT.

A Husband Shoots Five Times at His Wife's Murderer.

TEXARKANA, Ark., July 5.—While the examining trial of S. E. Lee for the killing of Mrs. Jesse Hale, which occurred in this city some days ago, was in progress before Justice Edwards, Hale, the husband of the deceased, entered the court room with two little daughters, and, advancing to where Lee was sitting in the prisoners' dock, drew a revolver and opened fire on the slayer of his wife.

He fired five times, the second shot striking Lee in the thigh and making a dangerous wound. Lee owes his life to a large stove, behind which he took refuge. The scene in the court room was a wild one, judge, lawyers and witnesses taking refuge from the flying bullets.

Hale was placed under arrest, and Lee's trial postponed to await the result of his injuries.

TWENTY-SIX KILLED.

The Boiler of a Steamboat on the Volga Explodes.

A Russian General Among the Dead—The Wrecked Boat Burned to the Water and Sank to the Bottom.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 5.—A terrible disaster, resulting in large loss of life, occurred to-day on the steamer Alfons, a boat employed in the river trade on the Volga.

The steamer, with quite a number of passengers on board, was approaching Romanov, when her boilers exploded, killing twenty-six of the passengers.

Among the dead is Gen. Petrushevski. The explosion tore the upper part of the steamer to pieces, and the burning coals that were blown from the furnaces set fire to the work. The boat burned to the water's edge and then sank.

HENRY STARR'S WILD CAREER.

Only 22 Years Old and Must Answer for Several Crimes.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., July 5.—Henry Starr, who was arrested Sunday with John Wilson, confesses that he is the man wanted for killing the United States Marshal at Fort Smith, Ark., but he claims it was in self-defense. United States Marshal Crum wires that requisition papers are now on the way, and that Starr and Wilson must be held till his arrival. Special Agent Taylor of the Santa Fe, who is in this city, thinks the two men robbed the train at Cimarron on June 10 last.

Starr will stand charged with every crime upon the calendar—murder, train and bank robbery, whisky selling, etc. Starr is only 22 years of age, and began his career of crime only about a year ago. There are rewards amounting to $3,000 for his arrest.

Midwinter Fair is a Go.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—Three hundred thousand dollars have been offered the managers of the proposed Midwinter Fair by voluntary subscription before the systematic canvass has begun, and there seems to be no doubt that a million can be raised without great difficulty. The subscriptions include amounts from $50,000 from the Southern Pacific, down to $1. The projectors had determined to go ahead on a $500,000 basis, but it appears now that the plan will have to be enlarged. Headquarters have been established in this city, and an active campaign for the fair has begun.

A Woman Saved by a Woman.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 5.—Miss Annie Ferguson, of Philadelphia, a visitor at one of the cottages here, was hauled out of the surf this morning by a woman companion as she was sinking beneath the breakers. The young lady had remained in the surf too long, and was so fatigued that when hit by a breaker she was knocked over and could not regain her feet. Her rescuer refused to give her name.

Rolling Out of Bed to His Death.

NEW YORK, July 5.—At 3:50 this morning the body of James Knowles, a longshoreman, was found by a policeman in an alley at the place where he boarded. He retired last night under the influence of liquor. His bed was on a level with the open window, and it is supposed that he rolled from the bed out of the window.

The Break in the Erie Canal.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 5.—The break which occurred yesterday in the Erie canal three miles east of here has caused more damage than was at first thought. About ten miles of farm land is flooded and valuable crops are destroyed. Traffic will be delayed about a week.

Twenty Horses Burned.

SARATOGA, N. Y., July 5.—Gurdon Conkling's large barn and horse hospital on the Grassland's Stock Farm near Dunham's Basin, Washington county, was burned last night. There were 38 valuable horses, brood mares and colts in the buildings, and only 18 of them were saved.

Cadets to Go to Chicago.

WEST POINT, July 5.—The superintendent of the Military Academy has been informed by the Secretary of War that he has decided to send the corps of cadets to Chicago. The cadets now in camp will strike tents August 10 and proceed to the World's Fair.

Short Legislative Sessions Hereafter.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 5.—The Kentucky legislature after being in session 531 days adjourned sine die, yesterday. The cost to the State was $600,000 and hereafter sessions will be limited by law to sixty days.

A Bad Bank Failure.

DENVER, Col., July 5.—The failure of the Chaffee county bank at Salida Saturday proves to have been a bad one, and it looks as though the institution had been looted. Liabilities are $80,000, and genuine assets only $8,000.

Nawob of Rampur Lands.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 5.—The Nawob of Rampur and party arrived yesterday morning from Alaska. They left last evening for Banff, en route to Chicago. The party consists of thirteen, including servants.

LABOR NOTES.

Word has been received at Pittsburg, that the Findley Rolling mill of Findley, O., had signed the union scale. This company employs 200 men.

The five daily papers in Denver have asked compositors to accept a reduction from 50 to 40 cents a thousand ems. The printers say they will not accept.

Did They Sit Up Late Nights?

"Can I see your father for a few moments before I go, Miss Hendricks?" he asked. "I want to speak to him upon a matter of importance."

"Certainly, Mr. Sampson," replied the girl, with a blush.

After Mr. Sampson had taken his departure, with a happy smile on his face, Miss Hendricks found her way to her father's shoulder, and, stealing one arm about his neck, whispered:

"What did he want, papa?"

"He is agent for a patent gas burner," said the old man, "and I've agreed to give it a trial."—Boston Globe.

An Accommodating Mental.

"Why didn't you come when I rang?" said a Texas lady to her servant, Matilda Snowball.

"Because I didn't heah de bell."

"Hereafter when you don't hear the bell you must come and tell me so!"

"Yes'm."—Texas Sittings.

Unkind.

Elderly Maiden (out rowing with a possible suitor and a little sister, who is frightened by the waves)—Theodora! If you are so nervous now, what will you be at my age?

Little Sister (meekly)—Thirty-seven, I suppose.—London Tid-Bits.

In Sunday School.

Pretty Teacher—Now, Johnny, can you tell me what is meant by a miracle?

Johnny—Yes'm. Mother says ef yew don't ketch the new parson it will be a miracle.—Judge.

A Rouser.

Employer—What! On time? This is the first time in a month. Have you brought an alarm clock?

Clerk—No; a folding bed.—Puck.

INTERESTED SOLICITUDE.

Wilkins—Ah! if there is anything I like to see it is conjugal affection. Just look at the care Popleigh is taking of his wife.

Bilkins—Yes; he told me yesterday that that dress cost him seventy-five dollars.—Puck.

Their French Gave Out.

Mamie enters a horse car and finds a friend there. They kiss effusively.

Mamie (after seating herself)—Comment vous portez-vous, ma chere Susie?

Susie—Tres bien, je vous remercie, ma chere Mamie.

Mamie (after a somewhat awkward pause)—How are you, anyway, Susie?

Susie (enthusiastically)—I'm feeling just out of sight.

Then they rattled on in the vernacular.—Kansas City Times.

Must Be Something Terrible.

Dorc—I shan't stand it another minute! I'm going to send him back his ring!

Clara—What? That beautiful diamond ring?

"Yes."

"Horrors! What has he done? Robbed a church, killed his mother, or what?"—N. Y. Weekly.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla, operating through the blood, eradicates the scrofulous taint.

"Sir William Napier one day met a poor child who was crying bitterly because she had broken her bowl. Having no money with him he promised to meet her in the same place at the same hour next day, and give her money to buy another. Reaching home he found an invitation to dine with a gentleman whom he particularly wished to see; but he declined it on account of his pre engagement with the child. 'I could not disappoint her, she trusted me so implicitly,' he said."

"Working Girls."
"Are your cheeks pale?"
"Your eyes dull, and step heavy?"
"Does your back and side ache sometimes terribly?"
"Are you at times faint and dizzy, with pain in the lower part of your stomach?"
"Do you watch the clock, and wish the day would end, as you feel ill, and so tired. If so, listen! Standing all day, week in and week out, you have slowly drifted into woman's great enemy, displacement of the womb."

"That or some other derangement of the organ, causing irregularity and other troubles."

"Take warning in time! Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the surest and safest remedy in the world for you."—Miss Sallie Palmer, Juniata St., Nicetown, Pa.
